Miss Kathryn Crismond of Logansport, Ind., and Miss Pauline Byington, of Farmington, who have been the guests of Miss Kathryn Himmelberger, departed Tuesday for their homes.

Among the young people enjoying the boat trip to Commerce Tuesday afternoon were the Misses Placide Weber, Bernice Miller, Lucille Bohnsack, Vivian Bohnsack, Celeste and Bernadette Hoch, Alice Schwepker, Helen Carroll and Mary Foley. The boat remained at Commerce long enough for the party to have a pleasant visit with friends in that town, before returning to the Cape.

The Young Ladies Sodality of St. Vincent's Church will give a lawn social next Monday evening on the corner of Spanish and Williams. The young ladies are endeavoring to make this an assured success, and are sparing no efforts to make it one.

Mrs. M. Post and daughter, Miss Marjori, departed Tuesday afternoon for the East, where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Mr. George Merritt and family have taken the Apartment in the Bellevue Apartments just vacated by Mrs. Post and daughter during the summer months. Mr. Merritt is connected with the Little River Drainage District.

Mrs. E. G. Gramling has returned home after spending the past two weeks with relatives at Dysburg, Tenn.

Miss Christine Wheeler leaves today for Arlington, Mo., where she will spend her month's vacation in the Ozarks.

Mrs. Frank Carmack leaves Thursday for Chicago, where she will visit relatives and friends for several weeks.

The best of us seem to be always in quest of something that's novel and new. And the things we are sure we can always do best.

Among the prominent society belles of the Cape, who will spend the summer away from home, is Marguerite Oliver, who has a trip planned that will not only carry her away from home, but far, far away. Miss Oliver sails on the S. S. Moltke, Hamburg-American Line, on July 15 for Naples. She has a three months' trip in view, that will take in nearly all of the European countries, starting from Italy, and traveling North, and from the schedule, there are not many places of importance that Miss Marguerite will not see. She will be joined in St. Louis by some friends from Columbia, with whom the trip will be made, and from there they go directly to New York, from which port they will sail.

Exercises on Porch.

They are telling a funny story about a man who has been sleeping on the back porch these hot nights. The man takes very good care of himself, and when he gets up in the morning does it gradually, turning over and drawing his knee up and going through all sorts of acrobatic stunts as a preparation for the business of getting out of bed. His queer actions interested the entire neighborhood, and until it was explained that it was only his morning exercise, there was much musing among those who observed them.

Much interest is being manifested by the members of the Wednesday Club over the report Mrs. W. W. Martin will give this afternoon at the Normal of the General Federation of Women's Clubs meeting which was held in Chicago June 9 to 19th.

Mrs. Martin's prominence in the various clubs of the city and her ability as a speaker, will undoubtedly bring a majority of the members out, who are eager to hear her paper on the session.

Many of the Club women of the Cape will be interested to learn that Mrs. Strong, cousin of Mrs. H. McGhee, of this city, has been sent to San Francisco, as Superintendent of Woman's Work Exhibit of Indiana at the Panama Exposition. Mrs. Strong has visited the Cape as the guests of Mrs. McGhee many times, and will be remembered by all those who had the pleasure of meeting her as a most charming woman and a great club member.

The Cemetery Association will meet Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Bahn, 309 South Spanish street.

Mrs. Sam Carter has as her guests Mrs. M. E. Logan and Mrs. R. M. Barron of St. Louis.

A jolly party of campers left the Cape Tuesday morning, driving to Big Flora, where they will remain for the week, returning home Sunday. They have taken about everything with them that will assure each member a good time. In the party were Messrs. and Mesdames Otto Vogt, R. Huhn and Shirley Harger.

The Ladies Aid of the Presbyterian Church met Tuesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Louis B. Houck on College Hill. It was a splendid meeting, and decidedly interesting, owing to the fact that each member was requested to bring one dollar that she had earned herself at some time during the year.

Quite a number of the members were present, and the various methods they employed to earn that dollar were most entertaining to their listeners, as well as furnishing clever ideas in the easy manner in which it was accomplished.

The president of the Society had quite a novel way of securing her contribution. She found it on the street. It would be really delightful manner of earning one's living by finding dollars in our paths as we walk, but all are not as fortunate as this well known matron, and the other members turned in their mite after selling the results from their well taken care of gardens, etc.

Another meeting will be held early in July, to receive the earnings of those who were not able to be present.

A piano recital given by the pupils of Mrs. Horace Siberell, at her home on Spanish street, was greatly enjoyed by the parents and friends of the little folks. The children showed the excellent results of their training under Mrs. Siberell's instruction, and their own steady work combined. The program of the evening was as follows:

Little Fairy Polka—(Streabog.)
March of the Little Soldiers—(Girli)
Nora Schrader
Valse—Tschakowski—Helen Brown.
Merry Christmas March—Watson.
Mayme Tooper.
The Buzzing Bumble Bee—(Heller)
Hardin Ervin.
Duet—(Diabelli)—Clara Wippermann.
Heather Rose—(Lange)
Jennie Van Gilder.
Duet—Octa Bollinger and Mrs. Siberell.

Golden Rain—(Cloy)
Melody in F—(Rubenstein)
Hazel Gangle and Mrs. Siberell.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Lail were passengers on the Steamer Cape Girardeau for St. Louis, where they will spend a week with relatives.

The Cemetery Association will meet Thursday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. G. W. Bahn, 309 S. Spanish.

Glenn and Ivan Fisher of Logansport, Ind., nephews of Mrs. John Himmelberger, who have been attending the house party of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Himmelberger of Morehouse, arrived in this city Friday, and are also the guests of Mrs. Himmelberger, joining the other young folks who returned Wednesday. The girls and boys are having a most delightful visit, passing a great deal of the time motoring through the shady country roads, and enjoying the cool breezes, so welcome these warm days.

A pretty affair of Friday afternoon was the bridge party given by Mrs. George Bell at her home on Lorimer street. The guests of the afternoon were Mesdames Max Koeck, J. P. Whiteside, S. B. Hunter, Keyes, Charles Harrison, Wm. O'Brien, W. S. Albert, and Miss Hazel Harrison.

Misses Ruth and Sarah Glenn and Terza Mechin, returned home Friday from a few days camping party given by Paul Whitmore at Marble Hill.

Hot Weather Advice.

While pork, red meats and heavy food, especially fried food of all kinds, should be avoided, it is well to remember that the heat produces weakness and that the body should have plenty of food to offset this. It should be white meat, such as chicken, lamb or other meat of the kind and plenty of vegetables. In fact with chicken almost prohibitive because of the price, vegetables and milk can take the place of meat altogether. Beware of too much of the iced drink.

Mrs. A. D. Speak has been ill at the St. Francis Hospital for the past three weeks, who has been ill at St. Francis Hospital for the past three weeks, is now very much improved and has returned to her home on Spanish street.

Mrs. J. A. Cresap and Miss Julia Clifton returned home today, on the Steamer St. Louis. They enjoyed a most delightful trip to the Tennessee River.

On next Tuesday, the Ladies of the Presbyterian Aid Society will meet at the home of Mrs. L. B. Houck, on College Hill. As many of the members as possible are requested to be present, as this is the meeting at which all the ladies will turn in the dollar they are supposed to have earned themselves, at some time during the year.

This was quite a novel way of raising a fund, requiring each member to earn this dollar in any manner she desired, and was given one year to do it in. About 100 ladies are expected to be present.

The young folks had a jolly time at the dance given at the Club House Friday night. The music was so "catchy" even the warm weather did not prevent the boys and girls from dancing to their hearts content, and the cool breezes on the veranda afforded them ample time to rest between each number. Among those enjoying the evening were: Messrs. and Mesdames Palmer Oliver, Allen Oliver, W. S. Albert, Mesdames Frank Carmack, P. B. Leming, Misses Marie Weber, Ruth and Sarah Glenn, Genevieve Hoch, Fannie Robertson, Eva Hill, Natalie Wilson, Margaret Yates, Lillian Leachman, Wetzel, Celeste Schultz, Bono, Marjorie Post, Christoph, Messrs. Fletcher Rhodes, Louis Juden, Tyler, John Lilly, Bob Harrison, Hawkins Bettin, L. Bahn, Harry Harty, Ed Gockle, Arthur Creign, A. Bolz, William Leming, Norman and Harry Gaines, Loran Chenue, Bob Beckman Neal.

A meeting was held Thursday evening of the committee who have charge of the raising of the necessary funds, for the Public Library.

At this meeting the subject was brought up that, should the Library be assured, and the needed improvements be made in the present building as they planned how will the work be carried on after the first start has been made. It would hardly be worth while to go to this expense, unless the future of the Library be looked into and the financial end assured, so the committee in charge with Mrs. W. H. Harrison as chairman, have decided to secure the names of at least 150 of the 280 names of women supporters in this work, to agree to contribute 50 cents a year, for the upkeep of the reading rooms, etc.

This plan, backed by so much encouragement, seems reasonable enough, and certainly is a small sum to ask in comparison to the great amount of good that will be done through these contributions. However, should this procedure be successful, the funds collected by the first subscription, that were to have been used on the building will be refunded.

The Cape, like every other progressive city, needs a library, so let every one do their share in putting our city on the level with the other progressive towns of Missouri, who are already boasting of their Public Libraries.

Without question the talk given by Mrs. W. W. Martin, Wednesday, afternoon at the meeting of the Wednesday Club, in her report on the Biennial of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, was so interesting that the members left the meeting yesterday, loud in their praise of their selection as delegate to the convention which was held June 9 to 19th. Mrs. Martin commenced her report with the statement at what to her seemed a particular feature of the session, the perfect union and harmony which was prevalent throughout the entire meeting. It was the means of bringing together some wonderful women from all parts of the world, 32,000 being present, and our representative spoke high in compliment of the Federation's president, Mrs. Pennybacker of Texas, who is held in such esteem by the clubs of the country, that one member in speaking of her suggested that should Mrs. Pennybacker be sent to Canada as a part of the Peace Conference, the matter would have been settled some time ago.

Her ability as an executive is her strong point, and the manner in which she has conducted the affairs of the Clubs, has won her the support of the entire country.

Another noticeable part of the convention, says Mrs. Martin, was in strict obedience to the parliamentary rules. As soon as each speaker was given the signal to end her talk, she did so without comment. One man though, from Wisconsin endeavored to continue his discourse after having been told to stop, and his breaking of the rules brought clapping from the 32,000 delegates.

It was noticed how little of art and literature was discussed, except in connection with the children of the day and their school work, and Ella Flagg Young gave a splendid talk on these subjects.

One Chinese delegate gave a very interesting account of the women in her country, and told how in her young days, her father was a school teacher with only boys attending his classes, no girls being permitted, and how he had insisted, that as he had no boys, his girl should be given the same advantages as they, and her accounts of early school days among all of these boys, was most amusing. She is now in America studying surgery, and when she finishes this year, will go back to her country, and lift the barrier from the door of the women of her native land.

"General" Mary Jones was a complete surprise to many of the delegates, who expected to see another person entirely, judging by her title, than the pretty little Miss that was called upon to give her views on women voting and suffragism.

"General" Jones related some very clever incidents in her work in this line, much to the enjoyment of her audience, and Mrs. Martin says that on this subject of women voting, all the women seemed to be of one accord, only three days given out of the entire meeting.

Miss Jane Adams told a clever story, of how at one time a man came to her to ask her just how to make out a ballot, he being an amateur at casting a vote. After much explanation, on the part of Miss Adams, in getting it all clear in the mind of her questioner, going over the ballot with care, and bringing out the importance of the vote, she casually remarked that she supposed that he would support the cause of the women in bringing about their rights to vote. The man looked at Miss Adams in great astonishment and quickly replied, "Oh no, indeed, women have no mind enough."

The other questions of the biennial centered on the civic work, child labor, and reasonable working hours, which are all great problems the women of the world are devoting so much time and combined efforts in bringing to the notice of the public, and securing their assistance in correcting the evils of these subjects.

Mrs. Martin said that she could talk for hours on the interesting work of the women, and various events of the convention, but time limited her, and she will continue her talk at a future meeting of the Wednesday Club.

At the close of Mrs. Martin's report, Mrs. Walter Cobb, gave an outline of the program for the coming year, which met the approval of the members who were present.

Mrs. George Bell will entertain the large Bridge Club this afternoon at her home on Lorimer street.

WILLINGNESS TO OBLIGE

THE public has a right to something more than perfunctory service from those who supply its telephone needs.

There is something more to a telephone service than merely placing at the disposal of the public adequate telephone equipment.

Courtesy, willingness to oblige and patience, under trying conditions on the part of telephone employees, promote friendly feeling and are essential to the best kind of telephone service.
