Jackson, Sept. 28.

The glorious weather yesterday was so inviting that we believe everyone in Jackson possessing a vehicle made use of it, either for little pleasure drives about town, to visit friends out of town, or to drive to New Wells to attend the Mission Feast which was held at the Lutheran church there, and at which there was a large attendance, people coming from Illmo, Cape Girardeau, Jackson, Pocahontas, Fruitland, Wittenberg, Altenburg, Frohna and Shawneetown to listen to some good sermons preached by Rev. Bartz of Wittenberg, and Rev. Vogel of Altenburg.

Squire Cauvey of Kinder township, is in town today.

Mrs. Frank Sauer, of Bartelsville, Okla., will arrive tomorrow on a visit to the Misses Lizzie and Gayle Ranney.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Caldwell went to the Cape this morning to attend the funeral of Fred Schlimme, who died Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Henry Tischoff.

Prof. Griebel of Perryville, has been secured to teach the Lutheran school here and will arrive next week to enter on his duties.

Rev. Carnett of the Baptist church, preached to the colored people in the A. M. E. church yesterday afternoon.

At the M. E. conference which met at Caruthersville, Rev. Jenkins who has been stationed at Farmington, was assigned to the Jackson charge. The Jackson people are to be congratulated, as Rev. Jenkins is reported as an earnest worker in his vineyard, and a pleasant, social gentleman.

Thirty-three ladies of the Baptist church met at the home of Mrs. C. A. Maccom's last evening and marched in a body to the residence of O. English to give Mrs. English a surprise party. A surprise it certainly was, even to the dainty lunch which the ladies had prepared at Mrs. Beattie's and Graef's, neighbors of Mrs. English. The whole affair was delightful, and, if many more such are given Mrs. English this week, she will not want to leave Jackson to go to Phoenix, Ariz., next week.

Mrs. C. A. Maccom's class of girls of the Baptist Sunday school entertained Rev. Carnett's class of boys at the home of Dr. Vinyard last evening in honor of Tom English, who leaves for Arizona next week for a year's stay. There were thirty young people present even one of which enjoyed every minute of the evening which was spent in games and contest one of the latter which was entitled, "A Lover's Romance," remaining unsolved. (We wonder if some of those present could not solve it today?). To show how popular these young people are, we have only to add that Reese Horell's (colored) band serenaded them before they disbanded for their different homes.

The Cape High School boys were victorious in their game of foot ball with the Jackson High School team yesterday afternoon, winning by a score of 6 to 0.

The game was played on the Jackson grounds and was hard fought throughout.

The Thursday Literary club met at Mrs. Howard's residence today instead of Thursday in order that the members could attend the fair. Mrs. Du Ree Jones resigned as president and was succeeded by Miss Clara Mueller. The resignation of Mrs. Jones as treasurer was also accepted and Mrs. W. J. McCombs was selected to succeed her. The lesson was: The Knickerbocker group of authors. The magazine study was the city of Honolulu. The next meeting will be held October 15 at the home of Mrs. William Heyde.
