

City News in Brief

W. Finney of Kennett, visited friends in this city yesterday.

J. L. Reeves of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

J. Bonkamp of Advance, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

I. Hall a banker of Enola, Miss., was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Attorney Wilson Cramer of Jackson, was a Cape visitor yesterday.

W. E. Burgess of Redmon, was in the Cape yesterday on a shopping trip.

W. C. Hays, a merchant from Allenville, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Miss Ella Williams of Bloomfield, was in the Cape yesterday on a shopping trip.

Harry Smith and Ben Klack of Newell, Iowa, were in the Cape yesterday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Jones of St. Louis, are visiting friends in this city.

F. R. Griffith of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

R. Dorste, a plumbing supply salesman of St. Louis, is a business visitor in this city.

G. G. Goettig, a coal salesman of St. Louis, is in this city on a business trip.

J. W. Wakefield, a C. & E. I. conductor, of Chicago, is visiting friends in this city.

L. W. Daniels of Ellington, Iowa, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Frank Jackson of Murphysboro, Ill., transacted business in this city yesterday.

Phil Hafner of Benton, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Clyde Andrews of Poplar Bluff, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Penny of St. Louis, passed through this city yesterday on their way to Jackson, where they will visit relatives for a few days.

E. L. Markham, an insurance adjuster of Pine Bluff, Ark., was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

C. H. Williams, a professor in the State University at Columbia, Mo., was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

W. E. Cage, a coal salesman of Chicago, Ill., was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

L. A. Holey, a piano salesman of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

We will launder two sheets and two pillow cases, enough linen for one bed, for 10 cents, we do it beautifully, too. Give us a trial. Phone 577. Cape Steam Laundry.

John C. Supling of St. Louis, was in this city yesterday attending to some business matters.

B. B. Blythe of Rochester, N. Y., transacted business in this city yesterday.

Clarence Craig of Chaffee, visited friends in this city yesterday.

Henry Puls, Clyde Vandivort and Alvin Boss were over from Jackson yesterday on a business trip.

Anne Cook and Charles Casey of Arbor, were business visitors in this city yesterday.

Andy Gibbs of Sikeston, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

R. B. Andrews, the South Cape merchant, is in St. Louis on a short business trip.

O. J. Snider of Fredericktown, visited friends in this city yesterday.

W. H. O'Brien of Cairo, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

James A. Finch of Fomfelt, was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

John W. Garner, a banker of Fredericktown, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hugh Morton of Murphysboro, Ill., are in the city visiting at the home of Mrs. Morton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Powers.

Dr. W. T. Rolston was called to Jackson yesterday on professional business.

W. A. Haber, a packing house salesman of St. Louis, is a business visitor in this city.

C. A. Brasher and son of Crowder, Mo., are visiting friends in this city.

Grover C. Howell, who was arrested in this city several months ago charged with stealing some brass at Ilmo from the Cotton Belt Ry. company, was tried in Benton yesterday, resulting in a hung jury, which is said to have stood eleven for acquittal and one for conviction.

R. C. Terry, a liquor salesman of Louisville, Ky., was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

C. E. Morgan, a prominent lumberman of Menfro, is in the Cape on a business trip.

S. G. H. Taylor, a packing house representative of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

I. E. Lotton of Cleveland, Ohio, transacted business in this city yesterday.

G. W. Stone of Chaffee, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

A. H. Twente, a hardware salesman of Cairo, was in the city yesterday supplying the needs of his customers.

L. H. Pruitt, a prominent farmer of Whitewater, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

J. W. Calley of St. Louis, transacted business in the Cape yesterday.

F. C. Tucker of St. Louis, is in the city attending to some matters of business.

Lew S. Beattley, a St. Louis cigar salesman, is in the Cape supplying the needs of his patrons.

H. O. Bourkard, an electric supply salesman of St. Louis, is a business visitor in this city.

Thos. Thorsen of Chicago, transacted business in this city yesterday.

George F. Becker, a soap salesman of St. Louis, is in the city on a business trip.

J. H. Smith, an attorney from Nashville, Tenn., is in the Cape on legal business.

Clarence Grant and family were in the city yesterday and spent the day visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Taylor, parents of Mrs. Grant.

J. A. Frohock, a stationery salesman of St. Louis, was in the city yesterday visiting local dealers.

C. Jack Sieber, a typewriter salesman of St. Louis, is in the city on a business trip.

Robert J. Hundhausen, a harness salesman of St. Louis, is in the city visiting friends and relatives and looking after business interests.

J. M. Hipple of Chicago, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Mrs. J. H. Wiecearver and Miss Nina Wiecearver of Marble Hill, and Mrs. M. S. Henderson of Jackson, visited friends and did some shopping in this city yesterday.

Officers Stone and Whitener were called to a mover's camp on Sloan Creek in the north section of the city, to quell a disturbance last evening. One of the young men in the party had grown turbulent and whipped his parents, and on their complaint, the officers arrested him and placed him in the city jail.

While engaged in a practice game of foot ball yesterday afternoon, Gauthier Ranney, a high school boy, the son of H. B. Ranney of this city, received injuries that will perhaps prevent him from participating in any games during the remainder of the season.

His injuries were caused by a collision with another player, in which the flesh was torn from the ball of his left thumb, and the member was dislocated.

The injured lad was accompanied to the office of a surgeon, who dressed his wounds, and afterwards conveyed him to his home.

Rev. W. M. Batterson will deliver a free lecture tonight at the court house. His subject will be "Judgment Day of the Nations."

Carl Williams is working as night clerk at the Idanha while Ben Juden, the regular man, is away on a short vacation.

Mrs. George Talley departed yesterday for Ware Station, Ill., where she will visit for a week with relatives.

Dr. R. Lee Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis of Point Pleasant, were visiting friends in this city yesterday.

L. C. Starker of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

W. L. Proffer of Ilmo, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

C. A. Davis of Milwaukee, was in this city yesterday attending to some matters of business.

Henry Bode has been quite sick for several days and is now confined to his home on South Hanover street.

F. C. Flores and L. L. White of Chaffee, were in this city yesterday on a shopping trip.

George W. Graham, a grocery salesman of Farmington, is in the city today looking after the wants of his patrons.

M. K. Gillespie of St. Louis, a dry goods salesman, is in this city on a business trip.

William Orth of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

J. W. Stout of St. Louis, special representative for a condensed milk manufactory, was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

P. P. McVeigh, of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

W. P. Bradford of Memphis, a register salesman, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

J. W. Ellis of Ste. Genevieve, is a business visitor in this city.

P. R. Smith departed yesterday afternoon for a business trip in the southern part of the state.

Otto Kochitzky, Jr., returned yesterday afternoon from a short business trip to St. Louis.

Mrs. William Kendall departed yesterday afternoon for New Madrid, her old home, where she will visit with relatives and friends.

Rev. W. M. Batterson, who was billed to lecture at the court house this evening on "Judgment Day of the Nation," has been compelled to cancel his engagement and cannot appear in this city as intended.

Elbert Fenwick, clerk at the Idanha spent Tuesday at his home in Perryville, where he went to cast his vote. He returned to the Cape yesterday morning.

John Withers of Allenville, visited friends in this city yesterday.

J. C. Elliot of Chicago, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

R. E. Estel of Perryville, visited friends in this city yesterday.

E. B. Roblee, a grocery salesman, of Sikeston, transacted business in this city yesterday.

F. P. Haus of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Willis Hoskins of Arbor, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

Jake Hitt and R. H. Ruzel of Allenville, came to the Cape yesterday to do some shopping.

Charles Noland of Neely's Landing, visited friends in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hitt of Allenville, visited friends and did some shopping in this city yesterday.

D. J. Heard departed yesterday for Hayti, where he will join a number of friends on a big hunting trip.

August Sitt and Charles Parker of Bell City, were in the Cape yesterday purchasing farm supplies.

Will Orth and W. C. Malone of St. Louis, were business visitors in this city yesterday.

J. H. Rust of Troy, Ind., a drainage contractor, was in the city yesterday on business.

Otto Miller of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Mercer Wilson, Charles Stehr and Charles Overstolz motored to Commerce yesterday afternoon.

Herman Bremmerman and Henry Haman spent election day hunting squirrels and gathering pecans in Illinois.

Ducks were to be seen from the river front almost all day yesterday. Large numbers floated down the river during the day.

Miss Freda Wipperman has resumed her work as stenographer at the Commercial Club after an absence of several weeks, during which time she was engaged in teaching stenography at the business college.

Wm. J. Schumy and H. R. Leonard of St. Louis, were business visitors in this city yesterday.

Jeff Williams of Ilmo, a Frisco bridge man, transacted business in this city yesterday.

J. A. Schulte, John Westyehling, P. C. Simmons, M. J. Kerwin, John R. Doriac and P. T. Bolz were St. Louis business visitors in this city yesterday.

Ben Juden, the night clerk at the Idanha Hotel, is taking a short vacation.

A. A. Troft of Advance, was in the city yesterday purchasing some farm supplies.

John Smith of Paradise, was in this city yesterday negotiating for the purchase of a carload of corn.

A fine baby boy arrived yesterday morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Fisher at 602 Bellevue street.

Mrs. George Talley departed yesterday for Ware Station, Ill., where she will visit for a week with relatives.

Dr. R. Lee Williams and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Davis of Point Pleasant, were visiting friends in this city yesterday.

L. C. Starker of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

W. L. Proffer of Ilmo, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

C. A. Davis of Milwaukee, was in this city yesterday attending to some matters of business.

Henry Bode has been quite sick for several days and is now confined to his home on South Hanover street.

F. C. Flores and L. L. White of Chaffee, were in this city yesterday on a shopping trip.

George W. Graham, a grocery salesman of Farmington, is in the city today looking after the wants of his patrons.

M. K. Gillespie of St. Louis, a dry goods salesman, is in this city on a business trip.

William Orth of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

J. W. Stout of St. Louis, special representative for a condensed milk manufactory, was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

P. P. McVeigh, of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

W. P. Bradford of Memphis, a register salesman, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

J. W. Ellis of Ste. Genevieve, is a business visitor in this city.

P. R. Smith departed yesterday afternoon for a business trip in the southern part of the state.

Otto Kochitzky, Jr., returned yesterday afternoon from a short business trip to St. Louis.

Mrs. William Kendall departed yesterday afternoon for New Madrid, her old home, where she will visit with relatives and friends.

Rev. W. M. Batterson, who was billed to lecture at the court house this evening on "Judgment Day of the Nation," has been compelled to cancel his engagement and cannot appear in this city as intended.

J. H. Himmelberger returned yesterday afternoon from Morehouse, where he has been looking over his extensive land and timber interests.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Brissenden returned yesterday afternoon from Fomfelt, where they had been visiting their son, Ralph Brissenden.

P. A. Hoch departed yesterday morning for a hunting and fishing trip in Shannon County.

Howard Miller, Harvey Miller and A. Graves of Chaffee, were business visitors in this city yesterday.

B. F. Hafer of Kansas City, arrived in this city yesterday and will superintend some of the construction on the river front improvement.

Iska Carmack of this city, has filed suit in the Common Pleas Court, for divorce from her husband, Jas. Frank Carmack.

Plaintiff also asks for custody of their infant child, Rodney Whitelaw Carmack.

The suit is based on the charge of abandonment and non-support.

G. W. Tidwell of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Paul Price of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Alice S. Goodin, Kathryn Goodin and Mrs. Clara E. Graham of Charleston, are attending the teachers' meeting being held in this city.

A. P. Bethune of Portageville, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

T. A. Moore of Memphis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

J. W. Summerskiel of St. Louis, was in the Cape yesterday attending to some matters of business.

M. A. Johnson of Poplar Bluff, is visiting friends in this city.

C. C. Snider of Chicago, was in the Cape yesterday looking after some business interests.

H. F. Galancer of Delta, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

Xenophon Caverno of Kewanee, was in the Cape yesterday on a business trip.

J. A. Rigdon and family of Sikeston, were in the Cape yesterday on a shopping expedition.

Leroy Smith of Canalou, is in the city on a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Estes of Marble Hill visited friends in this city yesterday.

C. E. Allen of Kennett, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

James A. Finch of Fomfelt, was a business visitor in this city.

Milton Haas of Sikeston, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

H. Hibner of Chaffee, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

A. H. Akers of Farmington, is attending the teachers' convention being held in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Brown and son, Gertrude Wolf, Margaret Baugh, Mrs. Cynthia Addis, Mrs. Nannie Eaton, Hattie Johns, Maude Rinewolt, Tilmon Porterfield, L. P. Blackwell, Floyd Bricker and Guy T. McGee, of Bonne Terre are in the city attending the teachers' convention.

A hunting party composed of John Harris, Will Kopper and Silas Beal departed early this morning for the woods west of Dutchtown.

J. J. Burke of Kansas City, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Stella Cruse of Grand Tower, visited friends in this city yesterday.

Dr. P. Mayfield of Portageville, was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

Mrs. L. A. Frank of Sikeston, visited friends in this city yesterday.

H. L. Bowman of Longtown, visited friends in this city yesterday.

James R. Grabenhorst of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Rosine Dickman and Myrtle Gilliland of Dexter, were in the city yesterday visiting friends and doing some shopping.

G. W. McFarlane of St. Louis, was in the city yesterday on business.

W. D. Grove of Poplar Bluff, arrived in the Cape yesterday to attend the teachers' convention now in session in this city.

Mattie Henry, Grace Faust, Callye Faust, Anna Shelby and Lela Shelby of Charleston, are attending the teachers' meeting being held in this city.

H. C. Prather and Louis M. Layer of Parma, arrived in the city yesterday to attend the teachers' convention.

Ella Mae Johnson, Mary Flager, Mary Dunn, Cora F. Gill, W. T. Clouton and R. W. Hoffman, of Piedmont, arrived in the city yesterday and will attend the teachers' convention.

Gertie Smith of Bloomfield, arrived in the Cape this morning enroute to her home from St. Louis where she has been visiting for sometime.

C. L. Storris, a lumberman of Advance, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

D. Graham of Sikeston, was in the city on a business trip.

Steamer Rees Lee is due to arrive from St. Louis sometime this afternoon.

William Misenheimer of Allenville, transacted business in this city yesterday.

H. C. Phelps of Hot Springs, Ark., is in the Cape looking after some business interests.

James Ivie of Chillicothe, transacted business in this city yesterday.

H. S. McLeary, prominent farmer from the Bend, was in the city yesterday doing some shopping.

Joe Williams of Jackson, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Harry Williams of Bertrand, is visiting relatives in this city.

Wash Miller, cashier of the Oak Ridge Bank, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Zella Holman of Sikeston, spent Sunday visiting friends in this city.

W. J. Everett of Toledo, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

G. F. Richards of St. Louis, is in the Cape looking after some business interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Daues departed yesterday morning for St. Louis, where they will visit for a few days with Mr. Daues' brother.

A. B. Hannon of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Louise Kain has brought suit for divorce from her husband Nath. Kain, on the grounds of cruelty. Plaintiff is represented by Attorney H. E. Alexander.

John Frenzel has accepted a large tin roofing contract for Wm. Suedekum on his farm houses between Gordonville and Dutchtown.

Slivers Wolf of Chaffee, was in the city yesterday visiting friends.

David Schultz, son of R. H. Schultz, V. P. & G. M. of the C. G. & N. Ry. company, is confined at his home with diphtheria.

Dr. G. W. Walker with a party of Chaffee friends, departed yesterday for the hills of Carter County where they will spend a week on a hunting trip.

O. D. Snerley returned yesterday from a short business trip to St. Louis.

Martin Lorberg and Henry Ulrich spent Sunday in the woods south of the Cape, gathering nuts.

Percy Osterloh, with his mother and sisters, motored to St. Mary's Sunday where they spent the day with friends.

H. J. Bowman of Advance, is a business visitor in this city.

E. Chancellor, Wm. Schofield, N. Taylor and O. M. Farnell of St. Louis, are business visitors in this city.

D. H. Ingram of Atlanta, Ga., is visiting friends in this city.

Dr. Vorbeck returned yesterday from a short business trip to St. Louis.

While chopping some kindling Sunday afternoon, a stick flew up and struck Harry Ray over the eye, causing a painful injury.

Albert Summers has moved from his former home on South Spanish street to the Bauerle property at the corner of Good Hope and Pacific streets.

Herman Bremmerman and family spent Sunday in the woods, returning in the evening with a wagon load of walnuts and pecans.

C. H. Griesemeyer, a grocery salesman of St. Louis, is a business visitor in this city.

Ralph Harris, a cigar salesman of Kansas City, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

A. H. Robinson of Kansas City, an automobile salesman, visited local dealers in this city yesterday.

I. M. Cahill of Poplar Bluff, visited relatives in this city yesterday.

Otto Kochitzky, Jr., departed yesterday morning for a short business trip.

S. E. Elmore, a drainage man from Chicago, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

P. P. McVeigh of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

H. A. Putnam, a merchant of Parma, was in the Cape yesterday making purchases from a traveling salesman who had his samples on display at a local sample room.

D. B. Kevil and J. S. Kevil, grain dealers of Sikeston, spent Sunday in this city visiting friends.

W. H. Pinkerton, a plow salesman from Sparta, Ill., is a business visitor in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. M. Kaufman, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Thistlewood and J. Kaufman of Cairo, motored to the Cape Sunday, returning to their homes in the evening.

A. Blank has been compelled temporarily to abandon his work as baker at Kaess' bakery, and is being relieved by Edgar Fossil.

A large party of Cape citizens attended the shooting match at Richard Spalding's, two miles southwest of this city yesterday afternoon.

W. H. Brooke of Chaffee, a Frisco bridge foreman, was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harrison and K. C. Spence of Bloomfield, were Cape visitors yesterday. Mr. Harrison and Mr. Spence were here on political business, and Mrs. Harrison spent the day shopping.

E. C. Wilson, a soap salesman of Kansas City, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Dr. Joseph F. Breitweiser of St. Louis, was in the city yesterday on professional business.

Oscar Martin of Little Rock, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Special Bargain

COERVER PROPERTY, BROADWAY AND FREDERICK, BEST LOCATION FOR THE MONEY IN THE CITY—DON'T DELAY—SEE US NOW.

BOWMAN BROS. REALTY CO.

206-7-8 H. H. Building
Phone 526

How are you Fixed if your Business Partner Dies?

You would then need cash to adjust affairs with creditors, to buy out your partner's heirs; to pay a substitute to do his work.

You can have cash always ready for this emergency.

Business men are fast discovering the support given them by business insurance. Each partner insures his life. This insurance is paid for by the firm, and the insurance money comes to the firm.

Your partner means money to your business. Make sure you do not lose that money even though you lose him.

FRED B. PATTEN, Genl. Agt.

of the
German Mutual Life of St. Louis
3rd Natl. Bank Bldg. ST. LOUIS
Organized 1757

VALUABLE PRESENTS for B.T. BABBITT'S PURE LYE OR POTASH LYE LABELS

You Can Make Your House More Attractive With the Handsome Babbitt Premiums

A TEN-CENT can of Babbitt's pure lye is paid insurance against dirt or germs; guaranteeing clean sinks, and thoroughly sweet and sanitary conditions in the home, and in your barns, kennels or hen houses.

If you will write we will send you a book Absolutely Free telling a hundred uses for Babbitt's Lye; also our premium catalogue illustrating beautiful and valuable presents exchanged for coupons.

B. T. BABBITT The Great Soap Maker
BABBITT'S LYE—The Best Home Soap Maker
Highest in Strength but not in Price—10c
P. O. Box 1776 New York City

THE BEST GROCERS HANDLE BABBITT'S LYE

The Tribune's job work is the Best in town