

City News in Brief

Frank W. Hughes of Washington, D. C., transacted business in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Rennan and daughter of Egypt Mills, were in the city today and had some dental work done by Dr. Grissom.

R. E. Laidley of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Miss Alma Willer departed for Poplar Bluff, yesterday afternoon, where she will visit with friends for a few days.

Squire Barks of Blomeyer, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Mrs. Carl Powers of Poplar Bluff, came up to the Cape Friday evening to join her husband, who has been employed at the Crescent restaurant for several months. Mrs. Powers was accompanied by Mrs. J. L. Hoover, who returned to Poplar Bluff yesterday afternoon.

Charles Stehr departed this morning for St. Louis, where he will attend the big annual sale this week.

Roy Keith and family of Alto Pass, Ill., motored to the Cape yesterday and spent the afternoon visiting friends.

James Gill of Fomfelt, motored to this city with his family last evening, and this morning they were joined by Alvin Freeman, a brother of Mrs. Gill, and all departed for Sikeston, where they will spend several days visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. Arthur Whitener departed yesterday for Lutesville, where she will visit her parents for a few days.

W. N. Holly of Caruthersville, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Gus James of Lutesville visited friends in this city yesterday.

R. S. McCall of St. Louis, was in the Cape yesterday looking after some business interests.

John Williams of Grand Forks, visited friends in this city yesterday.

Chris Sansancie, a prominent business man of Bismarck, was a Cape visitor yesterday.

Julie Haynes and Recie Minor of Allenville, are in the Cape on a shopping trip.

W. N. Holly of Caruthersville, is a business visitor in this city.

B. A. Harris, a jewelry salesman of Buffalo, N. Y., was in the city yesterday calling on his patrons.

M. Haas, a fruit salesman, of Sikeston, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

L. W. Daniels of Ellington, Mo. was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

William O. Carroll of Rumsey, Ill., transacted business in this city yesterday.

Henry S. Rolwing, a prominent citizen of Thebes, with his two sons, visited friends in this city yesterday.

Miss Anna Golden departed yesterday for Chaffee, where she will visit with relatives and friends for a few days.

Miss Florence is visiting friends and relatives in Morehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Reese Allen of Benton, returned to their home yesterday afternoon after a short visit with friends in this city.

W. L. Proctor of Chaffee, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Prof. J. N. Crocker departed yesterday afternoon for Kansas City, on his way to the teachers' convention which meets in St. Joseph this week.

I. R. Kelso returned to his home in St. Louis yesterday after spending a few days in this city on business.

Charles Hundemark, who has been installing some plumbing fixtures for John Dohogne at Kelso, returned to the Cape yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. J. W. Williams passed through the Cape yesterday enroute to her home in Jackson from St. Louis, where she has been visiting for the past few days.

Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Kimbro departed yesterday for Anna, Ill., where they will visit with relatives and friends for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dockins of Rock Levee, were in the city yesterday with a load of farm produce, and spent the day shopping.

W. J. Edwards, a hotel register salesman of Dubuque, Iowa, is in the Cape on a business trip.

C. E. Mattock of Chaffee, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Joe B. Morgan, Jr., was in the city on legal business.

Chester, Louis and Elmore Kassel left today for Hayti, where they will play in the "Hayti Hussar Band" of which Otto Kassel is director.

John M. Shields, an abstract man of Jackson, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

W. W. Williams of St. Louis, visited friends in this city yesterday.

The young ladies realized a little over five dollars on the sale of boxes at the box supper in the basement of the Presbyterian church last night.

Mrs. George Rains of Helena, Ark., is visiting friends in this city.

J. A. Moran, a Frisco official, was a Cape visitor yesterday.

Allison's Toggery

Hat Sale

All Hats and Millinery must be closed out by Thanksgiving. In order to do so we will begin to-day with a slaughter sale of all trimmed Hats and Millinery. If you desire another Hat, now is your best chance. If you have not bought your Hat for this Winter, here is your best opportunity.

We will make-up or trim Hats at special sale price. All trimming will be reduced to a very low price—and the Hat shapes reduced in price. Our trimmers will trim-up any shape you select any time during the month. No charge for the work. Take notice of the low prices which we are making on the trimmed Hats during this sale:

Children's Hats worth 50c; Sale Price.....	25c	One Lot Felt Hats; trimmed up; worth $2.50; Sale Price.....	$1.00
Children's Hats worth 75c to $1.00; Sale Price.....	50c	One Lot Felt Hat Shapes worth up to $2.00; Sale Price.....	50c
Children's Hats worth $1.25; Sale Price.....	75c	Ladies Velvet Cape worth $1.00; Sale Price.....	50c
Children's Hats worth $1.50 to $2.00; Sale Price.....	$1.00	Ladies Velvet Caps worth $1.50 to $2.00; Sale Price.....	$1.00
Ladies' Hats worth $1.50 to $2.00; Sale Price.....	$1.00	All Feathers and Ornaments worth 50c to 75c; Sale Price only.....	25c
Ladies' Hats worth $2.50 to $3.00; Sale price.....	$1.49	All Feathers and Ornaments worth $1.00 to $1.50; Sale Price.....	75c
Ladies' Hats worth $3.50 to $5.00; Sale Price.....	$1.98	All Plumes worth $1.98; Sale Price.....	$1.00
Ladies' Hats worth $7.50 to $10.00; Sale Price.....	$4.98	All Plumes worth $5.00; Sale Price.....	$1.98
Ladies' Hats worth $12.50 to $15.00; Sale Price.....	$7.49	$7.50 Plumes go for.....	$4.98
One Lot colored Velvet Hat Shapes worth $3.00 to $4.00; Sale Price.....	$1.98

Allison's Toggery

J. P. Chichester of St. Louis, transacted business in the Cape yesterday. The Knights of Columbus will hold bi- initiation exercises in Cape today where a number will be initiated into the first, second and third degrees. About thirty people from the city will attend the meeting, having crossed on the ferry at 7:30 this morning, and motored down on the Illinois side.

Harvey Jones was in Jackson yesterday visiting relatives and friends.

Elbert Fenwick departed yesterday for his home in Perryville, where some business matters demand his attention. He will return to the Cape this afternoon.

Wm. Lightner, the prominent East Cape farmer, who has been sick for several months, is reported to be improving rapidly, and it is believed that he will soon be entirely recovered.

Dr. John D. Porterfield motored over to East Cape yesterday to see a patient, and when he arrived at the house, he learned that the sick man had improved sufficiently to attend a shooting match at a neighboring farm. The doctor then drove over to the neighbor's and joined in the shooting contest, and succeeded in winning a fine 25-pound gobbler which he brought back to the Cape with him.

Miss Mabel Flint, one of the Normal teachers, was called to her home in Des Moines, Iowa, yesterday, on account of the death of her father.

Judge H. E. Alexander departed yesterday morning for St. Louis on legal business.

Blucher Sperling, and Henry Pulz of Jackson, visited friends in this city yesterday.

Judge Jake Keller of the Dutch-town Road, was in the city yesterday doing some shopping.

Allen Kimmel returned from Perry county yesterday, bringing with him the largest mule ever seen in this section of the state. Mr. Kimmel stated that the animal was 17 hands high and weighed 1745 pounds.

Charles Penny of Oak Ridge, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Frank Kinder, a prominent farmer from the Bend, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Devine departed for St. Louis, where they will probably make their home in the future. Mr. Devine was formerly a foreman in the shoe factory in this city.

H. A. Nussbaum is attending the holiday sale now going on in St. Louis.

J. B. Corrigan of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Mrs. D. B. Smith is rapidly improving and it is believed she will soon be entirely out of danger.

C. L. Hunt, a cement salesman of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Scott V. Short and C. Jack Sieber, typewriter salesmen of St. Louis, were business visitors in this city yesterday.

G. Wayne of St. Louis, a clothing salesman, called on his trade in this city yesterday.

W. H. Folk and Charles E. Reeder, stove salesmen of Louisville, Ky., were business visitors in this city yesterday.

N. P. Jenkins, a roofing salesman of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Paul Clark, a flour salesman of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

R. F. Liddell, a hardware salesman, with headquarters in this city, returned yesterday from St. Louis, where he has been visiting with his family for the past few days.

G. E. Kottermeire, a lumber salesman of St. Louis, is a business visitor in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Hasey of Boston, are visiting friends in this city.

C. C. Grossham of Louisville, Ky., transacted business in this city yesterday.

Charles Griesemeyer, a grocery salesman of St. Louis, was in the city yesterday calling on his trade.

W. H. Robey of St. Louis, a cracker salesman, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Fred Moch, a glass salesman of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

V. H. Greffoz, a traveling salesman of Chicago, was in the city yesterday on a business trip.

I. Jackson, a shoe salesman of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

B. F. Masters of Jackson, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Blucher Sperling of Jackson, was in the Cape yesterday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Devine departed for St. Louis, where they will probably make their home in the future. Mr. Devine was formerly a foreman in the shoe factory in this city.

H. A. Nussbaum is attending the holiday sale now going on in St. Louis.

J. B. Corrigan of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

Street car traffic was suspended for almost two hours yesterday afternoon on account of an axle breaking on the car driven by motorman Cruse. The accident occurred at about 2 o'clock in the afternoon on Independence street between Main and Spanish streets.

H. F. Galeener og Delta, was in the friends in this city yesterday.

C. O. Doak, an attorney of Cincinnati, accompanied by H. S. Hamilton of Cincinnati, was in the Cape yesterday on legal business.

J. H. Richardson, of Bloomfield, Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

H. E. Arreto and J. J. Fitzgerald of Chaffee, were Cape visitors yesterday.

J. H. Norman of Little Valley, N. Y., was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

E. A. Hygiris of St. Louis, transacted business in this city yesterday.

J. B. Allen of Centralia, Ill., was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

A. O. Cook, a candy salesman of New Madrid, was in the city yesterday attending to the needs of his patrons.

Henry Heatley of Brownwood, was in the city yesterday on a shopping trip.

Carpenters are engaged in tearing out the old wooden floors in the dining room and office of the Aquamsi hotel, and new concrete floors will be constructed.

H. R. Beech of Allenville, was in the city yesterday with a load of country produce.

Mrs. Belchy and son of Ste. Genevieve, arrived in the city Saturday afternoon and spent Sunday visiting Mrs. Belchy's brother, John A. Johnson.

Charles Everitt of Kansas City, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Elsie Aldridge, a six months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Aldridge, living on North Spanish street, died Sunday morning of enter colitis after a short illness. The body was taken to Thebes for burial yesterday afternoon. The deceased was one of a pair of twins, the other of which is now seriously ill and not expected to live.

E. Shmute, a furniture salesman of St. Louis, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

News From The County Seat

Jackson, Nov. 12.

Robert Campbell, who went to St. Louis several weeks ago, underwent an operation on his nose last week. The operation was successful but he will have to remain in the physician's care there two or three weeks.

The Literary Society of the high school will give a program at the school tomorrow morning.

Henry Caldwell and Lee Bowman of the Cape are in Jackson today on business.

Mrs. Herman Mueller, Sr. and Jr., will visit at the Cape tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Patterson of Lutesville, are visiting their son here.

Mrs. Wilson Howard, who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer, at Birchtree, is expected home tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Steinerd of Leopold, spent Monday night in Jackson on their way to visit relatives in Perryville.

Mrs. Henry Koechig is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John Heider, at Oak Ridge.

Mrs. G. Sibley entertained Mrs. Bowles of St. Louis, and Mrs. Caton of the Cape, yesterday. Both last named ladies hold high offices in the Eastern Star lodge and were in Jackson for the lodge meeting which was held last night. Mrs. Bowles spoke at Oak Ridge tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. Washburn of Illmo, visited with the family of A. M. Robertson.

Miss Caroline McNeely fell last week and sustained a badly sprained wrist.

Miss Mattie Caldwell of the Cape, is visiting the family of Dr. Atkins.

Miss Norma Hines, who attends the Cape Normal, is home for a few days and will entertain the Methodist Sunday school orchestra tonight.

The Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist church, is holding a meeting in the church today.

Mrs. Roger Fulton of Kansas City, who has been visiting relatives in and near Jackson for the last few months, left for her home this morning.

The Democratic Central Committee endorsed R-K. Wilson for postmaster at Jackson.

The county court proceedings Tuesday were as follows:

Private road, petitioned for by Joseph Kranawetter, ordered opened. Moritz Zorn and Wm. Knight receive $10 damages.

Jacob Gluckhertz, Chris Gross and Henry Neunmeyer are appointed commissioners to assess damages to Fred Hartman by road change.

Some erroneous assessments are corrected and some tax business adjusted.

H. H. Kirchoff, special road commissioner, makes report, which is approved.

Road change upon petition of Ray Wood is established.

The county clerk presents abstract of general election, which is examined and ordered filed. Bonds are fixed as follows: Collector $150,000, recorder $2,500, county clerk $5,000, constable of Cape and Byrd townships $1,000 each; all other constables $500 each. A number of warrants are issued to pay judges and clerks of election, also constables and room rent.

Warrant for $100 to Cape County Fair Association for premiums.

Warrant for $50 issued for improving Gordonville-Burfordville road to H. F. Roloff.

Warrant for $131.25 to S. A. Welch for improvement on Snider Mill road. Report of Dr. R. T. Henderson, county physician, received and filed.

Accounts Allowed.

J. W. Cargle, unloading bridge steel and building culvert, $126; C. F. Bartels, grading and repairing, $14.50; John M. Austin, drawing on road funds, $20; C. F. Eartels, drawing on road funds, $9.50; The Republican, publishing official ballot, $604.85; F. E. Kies & Bro., publishing official ballot and stationery, $690.77; W. A. Summers, election expenses, $193.

In re petition of H. F. Galeener, et al, for public road, report of commissioners assessing damages represented and approved. Land owners ordered to move fences and crops off right-of-way within four months.

Dram shop petition of Jacob Gluckhertz at Randles is dismissed. Applicant having failed to sign application.

A number of other accounts were then allowed, and the court took a recess until tomorrow morning.

Special Bargain

COERVER PROPERTY, BROADWAY AND FREDERICK, BEST LOCATION FOR THE MONEY IN THE CITY—DON'T DELAY—SEE US NOW.

BOWMAN BROS. REALTY CO.

206-7-8 H. H. Building
Phone 526

How are you Fixed if your Business Partner Dies?

You would then need cash to adjust affairs with creditors, to buy out your partner's heirs; to pay a substitute to do his work.

You can have cash always ready for this emergency.

Business men are fast discovering the support given them by business insurance. Each partner insures his life. This insurance is paid for by the firm, and the insurance money comes to the firm.

Your partner means money to your business. Make sure you do not lose that money even though you lose him.

FRED B. PATTEN, Genl. Agt.

of the

German Mutual Life of St. Louis

3rd Natl. Bank Bldg.

ST. LOUIS

Organized 1757

You Can Make Your House More Attractive With the Handsome Babbitt Premiums

A TEN-CENT can of Babbitt's pure lye is paid insurance against dirt or germs; guaranteeing clean sinks, and thoroughly sweet and sanitary conditions in the home, and in your barns, kennels or hen houses.

If you will write we will send you a book Absolutely Free telling a hundred uses for Babbitt's Lye; also our premium catalogue illustrating beautiful and valuable presents exchanged for coupons.

B. T. BABBITT The Great Soap Maker

BABBITT'S LYE—The Best Home Soap Maker

Highest in Strength but not in Price—10c

P. O. Box 1776

New York City

THE BEST GROCERS HANDLE BABBITT'S LYE

The Tribune's job work is the Best in town