Eva L. Landes, plaintiff, vs. Ollie C. Landes, defendant. Civil Action for Divorce.

Now, at this day, comes the plaintiff herein, by her attorney James H. Doris, and files her petition and affidavit, alleging among other things that the defendant, Ollie C. Landes, is a non-resident of the State of Missouri, so that the ordinary process of law cannot be served on him in this state.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the Clerk in vacation that said defendant be notified by publication that plaintiff has commenced a suit against him in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain a decree of divorce from the bonds of matrimony contracted between the plaintiff and the defendant, and that unless the said defendant, Ollie C. Landes, be and appear at this court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the court house in the city of Jackson, in said county, on the fourth day of January, next, and on or before the first day of said term, unless further time be granted by the court, answer or demur to the petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed, and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published according to law in The Weekly Tribune, a newspaper published in said county of Cape Girardeau, for four weeks, successively, published at least once a week, and the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next term of this court.
