ROBBERS RAID BIG GORDONVILLE STORE

Thieves Hide in Warehouse and Ransack Store When Merchants Depart.

Robbers entered the store of the Gordonville Mercantile Co. at Gordonville, sometime Friday night, and were successful in securing a considerable quantity of clothing, blankets, and overshoes, although they overlooked the money drawer completely while making their raid.

The robbers evidently concealed themselves in the company warehouse which adjoins the store building and after business had closed for the day, and the clerks had gone to their homes the burglars broke through the door leading from the wareroom into the store. They first attempted to cut a panel out of the door, but failing in that, secured an iron bar and pried the door open.

In addition to the dry goods and clothing that were stolen, a quantity of apples and some candy and chewing gum were also missing.

A small amount of money that had been left in the cash drawer was not molested.

In leaving the premises, the thieves unlocked the warehouse door from the inside, and fixed a prop so that when the door was closed when they stepped outside, the prop would serve as a brace to hold it shut.

This is the second robbery that has occurred in Gordonville within the past two weeks. About ten days ago, the Iron Mountain depot was robbed by thieves who effected entrance by prying the lock off a window.

A large quantity of goods that had been shipped to different business men in Gordonville was taken, but the cash drawer was ignored, and the few dollars that had been left at closing hours, remained undisturbed.

The robbers left no clue by which their identity could be ascertained.

E. F. Sharp, an attorney from Marston, Mo., was in the city yesterday on legal business.

William Dawson of New Madrid, was a business visitor in this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Graves of South Pacific street, are the proud parents of a fine baby girl, born yesterday morning at 3 o'clock.

SPIKE PUNCTURES HAND

Rusty Nail Driven Through Flesh as Laborer Falls.

L. Laramie, a laborer employed at the plant of the Cape Cooperaage Company, in the southern part of this city, drove a large rusty spike entirely through his right hand yesterday morning, when he lost his balance and threw out his hand to catch himself as he fell.

The nail penetrated the heavy flesh between the thumb and fingers, protruded through the glove covering the back of his hand.

The hand was pinned securely to timber through which the nail had been driven. He was unable to free himself until the arrival of help.

The injured man was brought to home at 119 North Main street where his wounds were dressed. As a matter of precaution, the surgeons administered anti tetanic serum to prevent an attack of lockjaw.

When a Business Man Needs Money

HE CAN TURN TO HIS LIFE INSURANCE POLICY AND QUICKLY OBTAIN CASH.

He has no feeling of obligation as when he borrows from a bank, and his life insurance company is ready and glad to be of service.

But—
Don't mortgage your life insurance policy to buy an automobile, or to buy anything else.
Don't do it unless you know you will go broke without that cash.

When you consider borrowing on your policy, remember, it isn't YOUR money you are taking. It is your little children mortgaging their bread and butter. It is your wife giving it by doing days' work for some other woman.

Even if you do fail in business, your creditors can not take your life insurance money from you or from your dear ones. That money is absolutely safe from every business wreck. And you can not save money in any other way for your family, if your business goes on the rocks.

Think of this—when you are in desperate need of cash. Mortgage your home, if you must—but have a life insurance policy with which you or your family can pay off the mortgage.
