200 MOONSHINERS, 486 STILLS SEIZED

During Raids In South By U. S. Agents Outlaws, 2 Sheriffs Are Killed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 31—The biggest intensive roundup of illicit distillers of whiskey ever undertaken by the government has just been completed in the southern mountain districts by revenue agents under direction of Internal Revenue Commissioner Daniel C. Roper. The activities of the agents resulted in the seizure of 486 stills, arrest of 200 moonshiners, killing of five outlaws and two sheriffs and the wounding of a number of other government men and liquor makers.

This systematic campaign of raids had been under way eight weeks, mainly in mountains in Tennessee, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, North Carolina and South Carolina—all dry states—but announcement was withheld until today to avoid giving advance information to moonshiners of the activities of a flying squadron of fourteen experienced revenue agents. This band, working swiftly from community to community, cleaned out nests of moonshiners who had been operating without serious difficulty for years, and left behind them "follow up" vigilance organizations of citizens and officers to prevent outlaws from going back to their traffic.

More than 30,000 gallons of pale moonshine whiskey was seized and poured down mountain streams. Over $100,000 worth of illicit copper stills and other paraphernalia, automobiles, horses, mules and wagons belonging to the distillers were taken by the flying squadron. About 21,000 pounds of sugar found on distillery premises was confiscated and the most of it given to the Red Cross. Recommendations for 321 prosecutions have been sent to the Department of Justice and forwarded to United States Attorneys, while most of the moonshiners caught at their stills are behind bars in Southern jails awaiting trial.

The drive had features more spectacular than even the usual moonshine raids, officially declared. More than a score of deserters from the army service were discovered participating in moonshine manufacture in the Southern mountains and two of these were killed in Georgia by armed raiders. In Tuscaloosa and Jefferson counties, Ala., two sheriffs were shot, and the killing of moonshiners occurred in Georgia, Tennessee and Alabama.

Members of the raiding squadron were picked from the most experienced revenue agents in the entire country. They were supervised by Daniel L. Porter, assistant of revenue agents in charge of the government's liquor and narcotic drug service. Sheriffs and other local officers assisted in the raids.

ASHINGTON IS CONSIDERING CAPE FOR SITE

Aviation Chief Says More Aviation Fields Must Be Established

ASSERTS PRESENT CAMPS ARE FULL

Government Expects People Here To Provide Grounds For Flying Forces.

Special Dispatch to The Tribune: WASHINGTON, Aug. 27—America's aircraft program for the nation's great army, which is counted on to win the war next year, will call for the establishment of a number of new aviation fields in various sections of the country, is the belief in Washington.

In the report made public by the Senate Military Committee it was shown that a number of aviation camps is not adequate to meet the demands.

Col. C. G. Edgar, construction head of the signal corps, in his testimony before the Military Committee, urged the construction of more training fields. Col. Edgar said virtually all aviation camps are now overcrowded. Camp 2, at San Antonio, Tex., he said, has 4,700 men when it was constructed to accommodate only 1,200.

This condition prevails at virtually all of the camps, it was stated, but if the United States is to accomplish all it has set out to accomplish, it will be compelled to increase its training facilities, and to do this, new grounds will have to be obtained.

There are a number of sites now under consideration by the War Department. Cape Girardeau, Mo., is an applicant for an aviation field when the Government makes its new allotments. It is quite likely that Missouri will be given recognition, if a suitable site can be obtained by the government. It is customary for the city selected for a camp to donate the ground and the Government makes all necessary improvements.

Major Giboney Houck and Joseph W. Folk last week presented Cape Girardeau's claim to Secretary of War Baker, and he informed them Cape Girardeau would be considered, provided the city made a tender of a site. It is expected that the Commercial Club will take some action promptly in the matter.

Mrs. Keller had been suffering for several years with blindness and the ailments of old age. She was cared for by her children, especially Mrs. Schwab with whom she lived.

The maiden name of Mrs. Keller was Weiss and she was born in Beddingen, Germany, Sept. 28, 1836, being nearly 82 years of age. She came to this country with her parents in 1848. She married John G. Keller with whom she lived until his death in 1888. Since that time she has made her home with her son-in-law John G. Schwab.

She is survived by four sons and two daughters, Louis, G. J. Henry

Bevo

THE BEVERAGE

An All-year-round Soft Drink for the Bluejackets

Our boys in the navy enjoy their Bevo. The esteem in which it is held by the Navy Department is clearly indicated by the fact that it is sold and served on U. S. vessels and in training camps. Afloat or ashore, you will find Bevo unusually refreshing, good and healthful.

Soft in the strictest sense, but a thoroughgoing man's drink. Try it by itself, or with a bite to eat.

Served everywhere—families supplied by grocers, druggists or dealers.

PATRIOTIC WOMEN TAKE CAPE CENSUS

To Make A House-To-House Canvass To Help U. S. Win The War.

A patriotic census is being made this week by the new block organization of the Women's Committee, National Council of Defense. The purpose of the work is to get a complete directory of Cape Girardeau, which will be kept up-to-date by the permanent organization. Similar census has been taken in many of the Missouri cities and the idea is being adopted everywhere.

The senior captain in charge of the work, are: Mrs. George A. Bell. Junior captains are: Mrs. William O'Brien and Mrs. George Meyers. Ward lieutenants: Mrs. William H. Harrison, Mrs. John P. Meyers, Mrs. Lewis Daugherty and Mrs. George Patton. Sergeants working in the different blocks of the various wards will make a house-to-house canvass to get the information desired.

The purpose of the organization is to do any war work that calls for a house-to-house canvass.
