LOCAL AND GENERAL

The Normal students won the basket ball game from Concordia Monday night after a fierce tussel for the honors, the final score being 51 to 19. The strategy of Capt. Brown of the High school team was responsible for the victory. The Concordia team is composed of seasoned players who are well built and understand the fine points of the game, but the large difference in the score is the result of the men being out of the basket-ball game several days preparing for the baseball team, of which they are also members. The basket-ball game was arranged to take the place of the scheduled baseball game which was delayed on account of the rains.

Rev. Harley, pastor of the Charleston Presbyterian church, addressed the students of the Normal Tuesday morning, and chose for his subject "Clear Thinking," which he handled in a clear, forceable manner, leaving the impression of a good lesson on the minds of the student body. His address was free from allusions that usually characterize speakers along this line, Mr. Harley confining himself to facts. He made many friends among the students and faculty who will no doubt invite his early return for a lecture along other lines.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Scivially, of Manilla, Ark., and Mrs. J. F. Scott of Caruthersville are guests at the home of their brother, Mr. B. Rayburn. Friends of Mr. Scivially will be glad to know that he is very much improved in health. Since his visit here during the winter he has spent some time in the hospital in St. Louis, where he underwent a serious operation successfully. For the past month they have been in Cape Girardeau.—Malden News.

Quite an excitement was created at Sikeston last week when a man named Reid fired two pistol shots at a boy, Willie Malone, which is alleged to have been the result of the marriage of Reid's daughter, Miss Ruth, to young Malone in Cape Girardeau last week. The shots both went astray, however, and no harm was done other than the excitement created.

The ladies of the Methodist church are preparing for an Easter Market, which is to be conducted in the Gramling building on Main street Saturday afternoon. They will have on display many splendid and suitable things for Easter, and those who desire to aid the church should patronize the market liberally.

J. W. Brooks shot and killed a man named Winston, at Holcomb, about twelve miles north of Kennett April 1, the killing being a result of an ill feeling which had existed between the two men for some time, and the men were neighbors. The shot took effect in Winston's heart, causing instant death.

Agnes Biehle, five-month-old child of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Biehle, South Ellis street, died Monday morning of catarrhal pneumonia, and interment was made Tuesday in the Catholic cemetery.

Prof. Clark H. Reid of Sikeston was in Cape Girardeau this week on business.

Margarite Burke, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Burke who reside on South Sprigg street, died Sunday of tubercular meningitis and the remains were interred in the Catholic cemetery in this city Monday morning.

J. W. Block, who was many years ago a citizen of Cape Girardeau where he has relatives, died in New York Saturday. He had been ill several years.

It is reported that the levee at Commerce is broken and the water is flooding the country in that vicinity, and as far down as Buckeye.

Ralph Brown of Jackson was here Monday on business.

D. A. Kineman of Puxico was a Cape visitor Monday.

THE CITY ELECTION.

As a result of the city election Tuesday two new councilmen were elected, C. B. Hoeller defeating Jos. Haas in the third ward, and Thos. Gill won out over Lawrence Morrison in the fourth ward. W. H. Coerver succeeded himself in the second ward, as did J. T. Wilson in the first. The result is as follows:

First ward—Wilson, 117; Van Amburg, 66.

Second—Coerver, 162; Schulz, 149; Krueger, 87.

Third—Hoeller, 136; Haas, 119; Kaess, 116; Bleckwendt, 34.

Fourth—Gill, 108; Morrison, 95.

Total vote cast, 1197.

In the election to choose members for the School Board, Harry W. Bridges and Edw. Willer were elected to succeed E. P. Ellis and Dr. Howard, by the following vote:

Willer, 622; Bridges, 573; Howard 562; Ellis, 445.

The contest for school directors was waged principally on the levy question, or whether the annual tax should be increased from forty to eighty cents, or should not be so increased. Messrs. Willer and Bridges were opposed to the increase and made a vigorous, though short campaign. They entered the race only a day before the election, issuing circulars announcing their stand in the matter. Both the newly-elected members of the Board are hustlers and well qualified to render good service to all concerned.

The newly-elected councilmen are men who hold the city's interest sacred and will, like Mr. Willer and Mr. Bridges, no doubt render yeomen service to the city. Mr. Hoeller has had previous experience in council affairs, which will naturally be of great advantage to him in looking after the people's interest. Mr. Gill is a man said to have a clear foresight, being a good business man and well equipped for the council.

Jackson Camp Inspected.

Company F. N. G. M. was inspected by Capt. McRae, a U. S. Army officer. The inspection proved satisfactory.

The Globe-Democrat's Report of the High Waters.

Hickman, Ky., April 1.—With a roar that could be heard for miles, the western end of the levee gave away at 9:30 o'clock to-night, sending a torrent of water two to eight feet deep racing through the streets of Hickman. No lives were lost, but two thousand persons are homeless and to-night are wandering about in the rain seeking shelter. To add to the danger of the situation, when the inhabitants heard the fire alarm agreed upon as a signal they rushed toward the levee to see the spectacle, unaware that the break was of so great extent. When the seriousness of the break was realized confusion reigned everywhere in West Hickman. Without food or much clothing the citizens hurried to safety. It was the plan of the citizens if the levee gave way in the center that there was no need of carrying foodstuff out of the town. As it is feared is expressed that there will not be sufficient food to last four or five days. The damage incurred by the break to-night is estimated at several hundred thousand dollars. Gov. McCreary notified the stricken families of Hickman to-night that a hundred tents are on the way to the flooded district, and that more would be furnished if needed.

At Columbus conditions are much worse than at Hickman. There is hardly a home which is not partly submerged, and sickness has sprung up among the destitute families, while women are waiting upon the sick and trying to keep food for the men, the latter are trying to save the town from total destruction. Owing to the suddenness of the destructive tide, many of the families were unable to save any of their property. If there is a drop in the temperature there will be much added to the discomfort of the homeless families. Boats are busy trying to move furniture and other household goods out of the way of the river, which is threatening to sweep everything before it.

Cairo, Ill., April 1.—With more than 1000 men working on the levees, and hundreds of citizens patrolling the banks at all points watching for breaks, the flood situation in this district is rapidly reaching a crisis. Railroad communication practically is at a standstill and within the next two days it is feared that the Illinois Central will be the only means of communication north and that there will be no roads running south. The telephone wires between Cairo and all points south are down and the Illinois Central and Mobile and Ohio Railroads are running their trains without orders. Trains are hours late and in many places the trainmen report the tracks from 1 inch to 8 and 10 inches under water. The levees along the western part of Kentucky and southeastern Missouri are overflowing and breaks are momentarily expected. The country from Charleston and Cape Girardeau on the north to James Bayou on the south is flooded for a distance of forty miles inland. The water stands from 2 to 10 feet deep and a steamboat can run over a majority of the country. To the north of Cairo the drainage district is in a precarious condition. It is only a matter of hours until it will be known whether the levees will hold and avoid flooding several thousand acres, most of which is in winter wheat. The district is thickly settled and has several small towns besides fifteen or twenty big lumber companies, an oil refinery and a hundred other industries. The levee at Cairo is in good condition and expected to hold. No fear is felt for the city, nor for any part of the country in direct proximity of it. The fears are expressed for the districts lying several miles north. Mayor Parsons today issued a statement saying: "The city is safe, and we expect no trouble, unless something unforeseen happens. The city will not suffer from the flood, excepting for the fact that some of the railroads are having to suspend business. Our reasons for impressing men into service is to take all precautions and to aid the people in the district. While it is not in Cairo, this city draws much from that source, and we feel that we should help. The men are being fed and are working in short shifts day and night."
