He was a brother of Mrs. John Ade, of Jackson and of Wm. Graden, who lives near Salem Evangelical church. Herman was a model young man and had prospered in business, being a Jeweler by trade, having worked with Jeweler Hasslinger of Jackson and with Al Chenue in this city.

ROELKER-RICHTER.

A very pretty ceremony was performed Tuesday morning when Mr. Henry Richter of St. Louis, led to the altar, Miss Rosa Roelker of this city. The bride is one of this city's charming young ladies and has many friends here, and had been the past few years an employe of the R. J. & R. Shoe Factory and the groom is a contractor at St. Louis.

The ceremony was said by Rev. E. Pruente, of St. Mary's church, and the church made beautiful with floral designs.

They left Wednesday for St. Louis, where they will make their future home.

The Herald wishes them bon voyage.

CAPE HAS NEW SHOE STORE.

Seibert's Selz Royal Blue Store Opened Thursday.

A large crowd attended the opening of the Seibert's Selz Royal Blue Store Thursday, where Mr. Seibert had on display many an assortment of shoes so complete in style that many made purchases that had no intention of buying at that time.

Mr. Seibert is new in the Cape, but not new in selling shoes, as he has been in the shoe business at Farmington for several years, and knows what line to buy to suit everyone's taste—Selz.

An orchestra furnished good music from 1 to 7 p. m.

CAPE DISTRICT W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

By Press Superintendent.

The first annual convention of the Cape Girardeau district Women's Christian Temperance Union met in Oak Ridge on Thursday and Friday, August 22 and 23. It was so good that your correspondent needs numerous columns to tell about it. The hospitality and general kindness of the Oak Ridge people made so deep an impression on the visitors that there is no proceeding without first referring to it. Those good people "tried themselves" to show their interest in their guests and their cause. We are profoundly grateful to the Methodist pastor, Mr. Margraves and his assistant, Mr. King, who interrupted a revival at their church that we might use their building, and who made every effort to help and advance our work.

Mrs. Alice Moore of the Cape, district president, opened the convention. The "Crusader Glory Song" was sung by the congregation, and Miss Minnie Steele read the 146th Psalm, Mrs. Jennie McNeely leading in prayer.

The district's thirteenth department superintendent, reported, showing good work begun and suggesting plenty more for the coming year.

Mrs. Lillie Armstrong read a paper on Legislature and Franchise, Mrs. Annie Mathews of Fruitland, one on Medal contest work, Miss Katie Bolen of Cape Girardeau, one on Press work, Mrs. Iva Brune, of Boise, Idaho, who was formerly of Cape county, read a paper on Child hygiene. (Mrs. Brune is in the county on a visit and her white ribbon friends are much pleased at her efforts for the cause in faraway Idaho.)

Nine local unions reported for the county, three—Gravel Hill, Burfordville and Oriole—having been organized by Miss Shauer during the past year. These unions reported fine work, the best being accredited to the Jackson union.

The Loyal Temperance Legion of Cape Girardeau made the best L. T. L. report and received a beautiful silver souvenir spoon.

Miss Minnie Steele conducted a beautiful memorial service in honor of our late co-worker, Mrs. Anna Hildreth of Jackson.

On Thursday evening the house was crowded. It is a fine choir they have at Oak Ridge, and opened the services, continuing to make good music throughout the program. Rev. King and Rev. Barnes of Fruitland conducted devotional services. Mayor O. S. Reid welcomed the delegates to the city, Rev. Margraves to the churches and Miss Shaner responded in her delightful way.

In the Gold Medal contest, Adrian Hally and Kelly Grant of Jackson, Clara Moore and Edna Maier of Cape Girardeau, Lettie Barnes of Fruitland and Mary Abernathy of Leemon took part. The medal was awarded to Miss Moore.

The annual election of district officers resulted in only two changes. Miss Alice Moore continues as president; Miss Lillie Armstrong succeeds Mrs. Sallie Mabrey as vice-president; Mrs. J. F. Neal of the Cape is now corresponding secretary in place of Miss Flossie Fields of that city; Miss Lillie Seabaugh of Milledale continues as recording secretary and Mrs. Fannie Bean of Jackson as treasurer.

Mrs. Moon made a splendid speech of acceptance which surprised and pleased her assembled friends.

The convention unanimously adopted the following resolution, introduced by Mrs. Armstrong:

"It is with great pleasure that we, the members of Cape Girardeau District W. C. T. U., in convention assembled, express our heartfelt thanks to the W. C. T. U. of Oak Ridge, who arranged for our stay in their pretty city; to the mayor, who so kindly greeted us; to the ministers of the different churches; to all of the people, who so hospitably threw open their homes to us and made our visit such a pleasant, one, and to the choir who furnished the excellent music. And especially do we wish to thank the officials and the minister of the Methodist church, who gave us the use of their church in the midst of a revival by giving away that we might carry on this part of the Lord's work in commodious and pleasant quarters, and all those who have helped make this—our first district convention—a great success.

Lillie S. Armstrong, Jackson.
Jennie McNeely, Leemon.

To The Honorable Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County, Missouri.

Your committee, appointed on the announcement to the Court of the death, since the last term, of the Honorable Linus Sanford, a member of this bar, respectfully submit the following:

Mr. Sanford was born on the first day of January 1838, at Jackson, Missouri where he spent his whole life, and died after a brief illness at his home on May 18th, 1912. After completing his law course at Harvard he was admitted to practice by Judge Hamilton Hough, on December 11th, 1860, and from that time on, continued to be a member of the bar of this court until his death, his last appearance in court being on May 12th, 1912, when he entered on the motion docket in his own peculiar handwriting the filing of a pleading—his last.

While the Circuit Attorney system still prevailed, Mr. Sanford was for many years County Attorney for Cape Girardeau County, and in 1870 was elected as a member of the General Assembly. After that he held no public office, but at one time was a candidate for the office of Circuit Judge. On January 31st, 1871, he was married to Miss Miss Martha J. Russell, of Jackson, who with three children survive.

But few members of the bar of Southeast Missouri who knew Mr. Sanford in his earlier practice, which extended into many counties when facilities for attending court were not which they are now, but all lawyers and court officers who came in contact with him know that throughout his long career as a practicing attorney is bearing in court was quiet, unobtrusive and uniformly courteous towards his brethren of the bar, he died leaving as a lawyer, a clean, untarnished name.

Therefore, be it Resolved, that it is but a just tribute to his upright, honorable career as a lawyer and a member of this bar, that a page of the records of this court to set apart and inscribed in honor of his name, and be it further

Resolved, that the bar extends its heart felt sympathy to his family, who notwithstanding their grief must find some comfort in the knowledge that Mr. Sanford enjoyed to the end, the respect and confidence of his fellow members of the bar.

Wilson Craemer
Thomas Lane
T. D. Hines
Committee.

In the death of General Booth, of the Salvation Army, the world has lost one of the greatest and grandest men of the age. There are other men who are great, as the world judges greatness, but few men have lived who have shown a truer devotion to the principles of right and the upbuilding and elevation of humanity than he. Few if any organizations has had a greater influence for good among the lowly than the Salvation Army, of which General Booth was the founder.
