Jackson News.

Recorder Siemers and family visited in Illmo Monday.

E. S. Templeton, of Fruitland, was in Jackson last Monday.

John E. Heinberg went to St.
Louis Monday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. M. G. LaPierre left Monday for a visit in St.
Louis.

G. C. Seimers of Gordonville, was in Jackson recently, on business.

Mr. Bishop is now in St. Louis, making arrangements to move his family here.

William Wagner, Sr., is going to put plate glass front in the bakery building.

Walter Trickey, of Bonne Terre, has been at home this week with his family.

Mrs. J. M. Randol, while out feeding her chickens last Friday, fell and broke her ankle.

The parents of Oliver Graf and his brother came down from Herman, Mo., to attend his wedding.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church meet with Mrs. Lou McCombs this afternoon.

Mayor Kage and the assessor of Cape Girardeau, attended the meeting of the board of appeals Monday.

Adam Heuschouer bought a house and lot in the Hoffmeister addition, from his brother Joe recently.

Adam Thoma, a prominent farmer of Welch Township, was in Jackson on business the first of the week.

Fred E. Dormeyer of Stuttgart, Arkansas, visited relatives in this city this week, returning home Tuesday.

Rev. Burton and John P. Mab-rey, attended Methodist District Conference at the city of Sikeston, this week.

Robert Kimmich and Miss Ethel Abernathy were married in this city Monday evening, by Squire John G. Putz.

Wall Estes, formerly of Burfordville, now of Arcadia, and a conductor on the Missouri Pacific, was in the city last week.

Miss Bessie Limbaugh spent the weeks end with her mother and sister in this city, returning to her school work Tuesday.

Mrs. Clarence Pender of Lee-mon, visited her sister, Mrs.
Theodore Obermiller Jr., in Oran, returning home Monday.

The fire alarm was sounded Monday morning, but it proved to be only a flue which had caught fire, but did no damage.

Wreckers are at work on the Jones building, removing it, and when completed, the Wessell building will be moved upon the lot now owned by Mr. Jones, just west of where his old building stood.

A. H. Winters, formerly a citizen of Millerville, now of Oran, came up Saturday to visit friends, returning home Monday.

A. M. Rice, who for many years has been employed by the Milling Co., has resigned and is now working for Goodwin & Jean.

The board of appeals met Monday, but there was very little for it to do, which shows that the people are satisfied with its work.

Oil is now being put on the streets; this is no experiment, as it was used last year with good effect, and the city authorities endorsed it for another year.

Constable Scivally, of Cape Girardeau, brought a prisoner out Monday and lodged him in jail; the charge being assault with intent to kill.

Gus Siemers, son of the County Recorder, has passed examination in St. Louis, in a school of pharmacy. Gus is a very studious and worthy young man.

Lawyers and court officers are getting ready for circuit court, which convenes Monday, May 5.
County court will also be in regular session at the same time.

Farmers in this part of the county are planting and getting ready to plant corn, and with favorable weather, it will not be long until the main part of the crop is planted.

A party of Jackson citizens went to Marissa, Ill., to buy a car load of Holstein cattle. John W. Daugherty, Linder Miller, O. E. Kinder and H. J. Weiss composed the party.

The revival meeting at the Baptist church closed Monday night with thirty-two additions to the church. This meeting lasted over two weeks and resulted in much good being done.

Adam Heuschouer has sold his home farm, consisting of 90 acres, situated on the Green's Ferry road, one mile N. E., from Jackson, to his brother George, who takes possession at once.
Consideration $5,000.

The meeting of the Jackson Commercial Club Monday night was well attended, and much enthusiasm manifested. Messrs Betton, Birky, Schults and Fletcher from Cape Girardeau were present. Reports of Committees were made, and work mapped out for the future.

Ben. Rudert and wife passed through the city Monday, going to their home in Dutchtown.
They had been to Perry County to assist in celebrating the birthday of Pans father, who is eighty years old. There were some 300 people present and among them were children, grandchildren and great grandchildren.

An appeal has been made to the citizens of Jackson, to give the city a thorough cleaning of all trash and rubbish. The board of health, the Commercial club and the city authorities unite in making this appeal to the citizens to make next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, a time for general cleaning of our city.

Miss Gladys A. Brauckman of St. Louis and Ray Davis of Fruitland were married in St.
Louis Tuesday, by Rev. Luther E. Todd, pastor of Centenary church in St. Louis. Mr. and Mrs. Davis passed through this city Wednesday morning on their way to Fruitland where they will make their home. Mrs.
Davis made many friends in the Leamon neighborhood, where she taught school last term. Mr.
Davis is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Davis of Fruitland.

One day last week Henry R.
Meier living 3 miles West of Jackson sold nine steers to H.
H. Mueller for $1000. These cattle were Shorthorns, three years old and brought 8 cents per pound. Of course these cattle had been well taken care of, which shows the profit in having good stock and caring for it.

Next Saturday is the time set for the School meet here. There will be many pupils from all parts of the County, as well as many parents, who will be present to witness and also take part in the contest and graduating exercises. An interesting program has been made and the exercises will be profitable and entertaining.

have charge of one building and J. T. McDonald the other. They will be aided by many other teachers.
About seventy-five pupils are in the graduating class. More than two hundred children have a direct interest in the program in some way. The children come representing their respective townships. They were selected in the following manner; the best from the individual schools were sent to township meetings and the best from the township meetings are to be sent here.
The best speller in class "A" represents the county at Jefferson City in a state contest on the 12th of May.

This is to be a big day—a county picnic—the time to meet old friends and make new ones.
All are invited to come and bring their own dinner and dinner for a few others.

Ida Dallwig, Plaintiff, against Allios P. H. Dallwig, Defendant.

Civil action for divorce.
Now at this day comes Ida Dallwig, the plaintiff in the above entitled cause, before the undersigned clerk of the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas of the county of Cape Girardeau, State of Missouri, in vacation and files her petition and affidavit, stating among other things, that the above named defendant, William Seacock, is a non-resident of this state, and so conceals himself that the ordinary process of law cannot be served upon him in this state and is now a resident of the State of Illinois. It is thereupon ordered by the clerk aforesaid in vacation, that publication be made notifying him that an action has been commenced against him by petition in the Cape Girardeau Court of Common Pleas of the county of Cape Girardeau in the State of Missouri. The general purpose and aim of said suit is to dissolve the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted between the plaintiff and defendant herein for causes stated in plaintiff's petition to-wit, that said defendant has absented himself from plaintiff without reasonable cause for the space of about four years, and has offered such indignities to this plaintiff as to render her condition intolerable. And that unless said defendant, Allios P. H. Dallwig, be and appear at the next term of said court, to be holden at the court house in the city of Cape Girardeau, within the county of Cape Girardeau, State of Missouri, on Monday, the 26th day of May, A. D., 1913, and on or before the third day thereof (if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then before the end of the term), judgment will be rendered against him.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in the Cape County Herald a newspaper published in the said city and county of Cape Girardeau, State Missouri, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of said court.
