Marriage Licenses. Albert Samuels and Mary J. Lee; Rev. Wm. M. Watson and Mary J. Bennett. Climate and Crop Bulletin. Of the Weather Bureau, Missouri Section, U. S. Department of Agriculture, for the Week Ending August 13, 1901. In a majority of the central and many of the northern and southern counties corn shows considerable improvement. The early will, as a rule, make little or no grain, but the rains have improved the fodder to a considerable extent. The late corn is now caring well in some districts and the yield will be better than was expected, though a few correspondents report a prospect of more than half a crop, while in many counties there can not be more than a fourth of a crop. In portions of the central and northern sections, and in nearly all of southeastern, where the rainfall has been light, little or no improvement is noted, and in some of the southern counties corn has been cut. Cotton, in the extreme southeastern counties, is doing much better since the rains. Pastures are improving in a majority of the central and southwestern, and in a few of the northern counties, but will need much more rain to insure good feed; elsewhere their condition remains unchanged. In many districts much of the blue grass has been entirely killed. Where heaviest rains have fallen stock water is plentiful, but in many of the northern and eastern counties it is extremely scarce. Late apples and peaches continue to improve in those sections that have been favored with good rains, and in a few localities a good crop is promised. In general, however, the apple crop will be very light at best. There is still much complaint of dropping, especially in those sections where drouth continues. Early peaches are now being shipped from Oregon county. Where rains have fallen melons, sweet potatoes, cow peas, and other forage crops are making good growth. Plowing for fall seeding is progressing well in many of the western and a few of the eastern counties, but in most of the northern and eastern counties the ground is too hard and dry. Many correspondents report that an increased acreage of wheat will be sown. A. E. HACKETT, Section Director.

Yesterday, there was a sensational case tried in Justice J. M. Snider's court before a jury. Nona Harris sued Royce Prince, both colored, for breach of promise. It seems that the Harris woman had done the housework at the Prince residence. She sued for $200 and damages. The jury gave her in their verdict $25 for labor but no damages. Royce got a marriage license a few weeks ago to marry Stella Berry. Now since his release from the Harris woman he can have the ceremony performed.

Order of Publication. In the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County, State of Missouri, in Vacation, Monday, July 8, 1901. Florence Stephenson, Plaintiff, vs. Frederick T. Stephenson, Defendant. Civil Action. Divorce.

Now at this day comes Florence Stephenson, the plaintiff in the above entitled cause, before the undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County, in vacation, and files her petition and affidavit, stating among other things, that the above named defendant, Frederick T. Stephenson, is a non-resident of this State.

It is therefore ordered by the Clerk aforesaid, in vacation, that publication be made, notifying him that an action has been commenced against him, by petition, in the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County, the object and general nature of which is to secure a divorce from the bonds of matrimony contracted between the plaintiff and the defendant, on the grounds of abandonment, and that unless he be and appear at the next term of said Court, to be begun and holden at the court-house in the City of Jackson, within the County of Cape Girardeau, on the 19th day of August, 1901, and on or before the third day thereof if the term shall so long continue, and if not, then before the end of the term, judgment will be rendered against him and a decree of divorce accordingly granted to the plaintiff.

It is further ordered that a copy hereof be published in THE JACKSON HERALD, a newspaper published in said County of Cape Girardeau, for four weeks successively, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the commencement of the next term of said Court.

A true copy from the record. In Testimony Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and affixed the seal of said Court, Done at my office in the City of Jackson, in said County, this 8th day of July, A. D. 1901. CHRIS F. BETTERS, Clerk Circuit Court.

Sheriff's Sale Under General Execution. By virtue and authority of a general writ of execution issued from the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cape Girardeau County, Missouri, returnable to the August Term, 1901, of said Court, and to me directed in favor of the State of Missouri at the relation and to the use of E. W. Flentge, Collector of the Revenue of Cape Girardeau County, in the State of Missouri, and against George Brennecke, owner of the land in this suit described.

I have levied upon and seized all the right, title, interest and claim of the said George Brennecke in the following described real estate lying, being and situate in the County of Cape Girardeau in the State of Missouri, to-wit: Sixty-two acres, being part of the north half of the southwest quarter, and the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of Section 10, Township 33, Range 11, all lying and being in Cape Girardeau County, Missouri. I will on TUESDAY, AUGUST 20, 1901, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the south front door of the court-house in the City of Jackson, County of Cape Girardeau, State of Missouri, sell at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidder, the above described real estate, to satisfy said execution and costs.

BERNHARD GOCKEL, Sheriff of Cape Girardeau County, Mo. "NERVE WASTE." One of the most helpful books on nerve weakness ever issued is that entitled "Nerve Waste," by Dr. Sawyer, of San Francisco, now in its fifth thousand. This work of an experienced and reputable physician is in agreement with the vast sum of false teaching which prevails on this interesting subject. It abounds in carefully considered and practical advice, and has the two great merits of wisdom and sincerity. It is endorsed by both the religious and secular press. The Chicago Advance says: "A perusal of the book and the application of its principles will put health, hope and heart into thousands of lives that are now suffering through nerve impairment." One of the most interesting chapters—chapter XX, on nerves and nerve troubles—has been printed separately as a simple chapter, and will be sent to any address for stamp by the publishers, The Pacific Pub. Co., Box 2658, San Francisco.
