You Can Lead a Horse

to water but you can't make him drink.

You can't make him eat either. You can stuff food into a thin man's stomach but that doesn't make him use it.

Scott's Emulsion can make him use it. How? By making him hungry, of course. Scott's Emulsion makes a thin body naturally hungry didn't you? Well it isn't. A thin body is asleep—not working—gone on a strike. It doesn't try to use it's food.

Scott's Emulsion wakes it up—puts it to work again making new flesh. That's the way to get fat.

How This?

We offer one hundred dollars reward for any case of catarrh that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh cure.

F. J. Cheney & Co. Toledo, O.

We, the undersigned, have known F. J. Cheney for the last fifteen years, and believe him perfect honorable in all business transactions and financially able to carry out any obligations made by their firm.

West & Truax, wholesale druggists, Toledo, O. Walding, Kinnan & Maryin, wholesale druggists, Toledo, O.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. Testimonials sent free.

Sold by druggists, 75c.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

Notice.

The undersigned has a first-class well drilling machine (the same that drilled the test for lead at Gravel Hill), and is prepared to drill wells north of Jackson. For particulars apply to C. F. Habs, Daisy, Mo.

Prof. J. S. McGhee, of the Cape, made us a pleasant call Monday.

Ben Gockel, our efficient sheriff, received from his friends at Jefferson City a fine cane. It is made of leather with a steel rod through the center, with the initials "B. G." on the head. Mr. Gockel is quite proud of it.

We, the jury, find that the deceased came to his death from heart failure, caused by not taking Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine Co. 35c. Ask your druggist.

*The case won by J. S. McGhee in the common pleas court at the Cape last week properly adjusts the charges which the water works company can make on its patrons. The maximum charge now is $7.50 per year, and formerly it was $30. This will be a great saving for the people, and Mr. McGhee deserves great praise for making the fight.

Chas. R. Wessmar, Eyanston, Ill., writes: "My boy 2 1/2 years old had a severe cold which refused to yield to any treatment until we tried Foley's Honey and Tar. He was completely cured before using one bottle." Take none but Foley's. All dealers.

Gentry Bros.' show was here Monday, and it was anything that any reasonable person could expect. The acting of the animals showed wonderful intelligence and a great amount of work must have been necessary to get them in such perfect training. One of their large draft horses was taken sick here and had to be left behind in care of Veterinary Phillips. The animal died Tuesday night. It was a magnificent animal, weighing about 1,600 pounds.

A report from Supt. J. C. Gluck, reform school, Pruntytown, W. Va., Oct. 18, 1900. "After trying all other advertised cough medicines we have decided to use Foley's Honey and Tar exclusively in the West Virginia reform school. I find it the most effective and absolutely harmless." All dealers.

The Cape County Milling company will sell you corn for 65cts. a bushel.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers never disappoint. They are safe, prompt, gentle, effective in removing all impurities from the liver and bowels. Small and easy to take. Never gripes distress. H. L. Jones.

To make good tea and coffee the water should be taken at the first bubble. Remember, continued boiling causes the water to part with its gases and become flat. This is the cause of much bad tea and coffee.—October Ladies' Home Journal.

Lewis Ockerman, Goshen, Ind.: "DeWitt's Little Early Risers never bend me double like other pills, but do their work thoroughly and make me feel like a boy. Certain, thorough, gentle. H. L. Jones.

A simple remedy for warts is a dram of salicylic acid with an ounce of colloid in a bottle which has a tiny brush run through the cork. Apply this mixture to the warts twice a day and in a few days they will dry up and fall off.—October Ladies' Home Journal.

S. A. Ingalls, of Crown Point, N. Y., writes: "My wife suffered from kidney trouble for years. She was induced to try Foley's Kidney Cure and less than a week after she began using it, she was greatly improved and three bottles cured her." All dealers.

Whatever work a boy undertakes he should do it heartily for the work's sake. The boy who rises to the top is the boy who does more than he is obliged to do, who is all-around in his intelligence, and who thinks of something besides the end of the day and his weekly wage.—October Ladies' Home Journal.

Mrs. T. Bridleman, Parshalville, Mich., was troubled with salt rheum for thirteen years and had tried a number of doctors without relief. After two applications of Banner Salve, her hands became better and in a short time she was entirely cured. Beware of substitutes. All dealers.

Milde-Weltecke.

At 7:00 o'clock last Sunday night at the St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran church, the marriage ceremony of Louis Milde and Miss Mattie Weltecke was solemnized by their pastor, Rev. Langehenig. The church was crowded and many were on the outside to witness the happy affair. After the ceremony was performed the invited guests repaired to the residence of the bride's father, F. H. Weltecke. Here all partook of a well-prepared supper. The tables were loaded with everything good to eat. The occasion was indeed a very enjoyable one, and the HERALD takes pleasure in extending congratulations and wishing the young couple a long and happy life.

When suffering from a racking cough take a dose of Foley's Honey and Tar. The soreness will be relieved and a warm, grateful feeling and healing of the parts affected will be experienced. All dealers.
