

JACKSON HERALD.

REPUBLICAN IN POLITICS.
B. F. LUSK.....PUBLISHER
Entered at the postoffice at Jackson, Mo., as second-class matter November 1, 1897.
Terms for the HERALD are as follows:
For one year.....$1.00
Six months......50
Three months......30
PHONES:
Office.....118
Residence.....112
JACKSON, MO., OCT. 17, 1901.

We are glad to know that President Jesse, of the State university, is going to stop "hazing."

The editorials in the Daily Republican have the right ring, and we hope the young men will carry them out to the letter. It is to be supposed that the boys will have to overcome temptation and surmount obstacles in the political arena, but that paper that will desert party faction and stick strictly to republican principles will be supported by the people. We wait to see which that will be.

We heard a prominent citizen of our town say the other day that there was but one man in Jackson who successfully advertises. He was right, and if our merchants and others can make money without advertising it always appeared to us that they could make more money if they did advertise. The time is coming when our people will have to let the country know what they have or these same county people will go elsewhere to trade. Show windows and boards on fences and trees have their place but they will never take the place of a newspaper. Put this down.

County Correspondence.

CRUMP.
Oct. 14—Most of the wheat here has been sown, but owing to the dry weather there is a great deal that will have to be sown over. There is a worm which is destroying it, mostly the early wheat. It seems to be able to work in where the ground is highest and the moisture is least found.

We learn that our old friend and merchant, J. H. Lancaster, is closing out in order to change places. We are sorry to lose him but hope our loss will be some other peoples' gain. Mr. Lancaster was a good and faithful merchant. We appreciate what he has done for us.

We received a copy of The Good Times, last week, and like the paper very much. Wonder why more people don't take it than do? It and the HERALD only one dollar per year.

W. H. Allmond, who got his ankle sprained some time ago, was unable to commence his school the first of October. We hope he will be able to begin shortly, as he is a good teacher and a fine fellow. We like to see such persons teaching our public schools.

Albert Ford and Lee Devore are occasionally seen going towards Mr. Morgan's. Is Mr. Morgan pretty good company boys?

The rain came in good time to save some of the wheat.

Word reached here Tuesday that burglars had broken into the Lutesville bank safe Monday night but got no money. Blood hounds were immediately put on the track of the burglars but we have not heard the result.

O. B. Looney, an old Cape county boy who is in the banking business at Chaffin, Kan., paid his home county a visit the first of the week. Mr. Looney looks well and says he is doing well in Kansas. He visited the old home farm while here, but it has lost all its charms for him. He likes Kansas the better.

The only son of Walter Burford, of Lutesville, aged about 18 years, met with a serious accident on the railroad one day last week. He was attending to the duties of the regular agent, and in trying to get on the moving train his foot slipped and he was thrown under the car wheels, which so mashed his foot that it had to be amputated.

Green Finney shot Steve Allen, a blacksmith, of Marble Hill, on last Tuesday morning. We hear that Mr. Finney stopped at Mr. Allen's blacksmith shop Tuesday morning and stated that he was going to kill two Methodists that day. Mr. Allen just laughed at him and Finney went on. In a short time Finney came back and told Allen he was ready to kill those Methodists. Allen was across the street and walked toward Finney, and Finney shot him. Allen is expected to die. The officers took Finney in charge and thus prevented him from killing his other man.
