It is stated that his contributions to charitable purposes amounted to $100,000 annually. In religion he was a Methodist. He died at the age of 82 years.

RUTS

The walking sick, what a crowd of them there are! Persons who are thin and weak but not sick enough to go to bed.

"Chronic cases" that's what the doctors call them, which in common English means—long sickness.

To stop the continued loss of flesh they need Scott's Emulsion. For the feeling of weakness they need Scott's Emulsion.

It makes new flesh and gives new life to the weak system.

Scott's Emulsion gets thin and weak persons out of the rut. It makes new, rich blood, strengthens the nerves and gives appetite for ordinary food.

Scott's Emulsion can be taken as long as sickness lasts and do good all the time.

There's new strength and flesh in every dose.

We will be glad to send you a few doses free.

Be sure that this picture in the form of a label is on the wrapper of every bottle of Emulsion you buy.

Married, at the Presbyterian church yesterday evening, William Joseph Hunter Byrd and Miss Emma Evangeline Howard, Rev. Emory, of West Plains, officiating. The church was handsomely decorated, and at the appointed time, as the organ gave forth the melodious strains of the wedding march, the bride and groom, with their attendants, came up the aisle and stood at the altar where, in a very appropriate and impressive manner, the happy couple were pronounced man and wife. The audience at the church was composed of invited guests. After the ceremony at the church the bridal party repaired to the residence of Ed Howard where a sumptuous supper was served and a most delightful time was had. Such an evening was enjoyed as only those of wealth and affluence can enjoy. The HERALD extends congratulations.
