See those ladies' fine all wool button front sweaters or blouses, worth $3.50 at $1.68 at Bruening & Kerstner D. G. Co.

Our old friend J. O. Belmar did valiant service during the burning of Jacob Doyle's house last Saturday. He was passing the house in his buggy when he discovered it was on fire. He raised the fire yell and in a short time several neighbors were on the ground and with his assistance a great deal of the household goods were saved.

McAtee & Buerkle have just received a car of fancy Northern Black Seed Oats. They can also furnish you white oats, red oats, and mixed oats.

On last Friday night the residence of Ben H. Adams at the Cape caught fire and burned to the ground, house and contents were entirely destroyed. Ben has our regrets, and if a subscription list is started we shall give him of our little to help him rebuild. We learn that Mr. Adams carried $2,000 insurance on his property and furniture. "That helps some." See!

Remember the Jackson Store Co. has a special low price on all furniture until April 1. Here are some of the many bargains: $3.25 Rocker reduced to $2.25. $4.00 Rocker reduced to $3.25. $5.00 Rocker reduced to $3.95. $16.50 Bed-room suites, $13.95. $22.50 Bed-room suites, $18.95. $21.00 China closet, $17.85. Every article of furniture will be reduced until April 1.

The state superintendent has our thanks for a copy of the 55th report of public schools for 1905. The report lays much stress upon the proper supervision of rural schools, on training of teachers and on change in text-books, (pp. 18 to 27). The plan for inspecting and classifying high schools is carefully set out and the high schools listed. On account of lack of sufficient help, the superintendent has not made a general classification of these schools (pp. 33 to 37). There are about 30 first class high schools, 80 second class, 140 third class and 100 others that will soon place themselves in some one of these classes.

J. H. Howard and family have all had the grip. They are getting better.

Finest line of infants' shoes in at Bruening & Kerstner D. G. Co. Mrs. J. W. Taylor and Miss Dollie Taylor left Tuesday for Greenfield, Ind., on a visit to relatives.

Walter Goza, son of Wiley Goza of near Jackson, is visiting relatives and friends in this county for a few days. Mr. Goza is working for the Fairbanks Morse Scale Co.

Flannelettes at 8 1/2c a yard, all 10c grades, nothing excepted, at Bruening & Kerstner D. G. Co.

D. M. Scivally, constable of Cape township, brought three prisoners to Jackson Monday and put them in jail—two white men and one colored. They had been stealing.

15 cents will buy enough Japanese at the Jackson Store Co. to take all the scratches off of your furniture.

On the return of Albert Mueller and wife from Fredericktown last Friday, they were met at the depot by a number of their young friends and treated to a rice shower.

Big line of fine shirting and percale (we handle only the best 10c grade in percale) at Bruening & Kerstner D. G. Co.

Fred E. Kies, our representative, came home last Friday, returning to Jefferson City Sunday. Mr. Kies says it will take about five weeks yet to wind up the business in the general assembly.

Have you seen the new grocery department at the Jackson Store Co? They have changed it to another part of their store and increased their stock.

The residence of A. B. Lessley of Gravel and all its contents burned last Friday night, leaving Mr. Lessley and family without a thing in the house, not even a change of clothes. Now is the time to help him out.

Any of our customers that have any of the following coupons will please bring them in and get their premiums: Buff, No. 98; lemon yellow, No. 106 and T. 845; orange yellow, No. 59; light blue, No. T. 1556; mandrine No. T. 1343.

BRUENING & KERSTNER D. G. Co.

On last Saturday the residence of Jacob Doyle caught fire and burned. Many of the things were gotten out but a great many were burned up. Mr. Doyle was in Jackson that day and his house caught fire and burned before he got home. This is the third fire that occurred last week. We hope all the parties carried insurance.

Wanted—Girls to make shirts, nice comfortable place to work. If you are not experienced in the work, we will teach you and pay you while learning. Board and room or rooms for light house-keeping can be had at reasonable prices. Address or apply in person to E. & W. Mig. Co., Cape Girardeau, Mo.

An old lady once said, "I never saw a February that did not have a pretty spell in it and I suppose I have seen a thousand." This is the old lady's pretty spell.

Headquarters for fencing, barb and smooth wire.

SANDER BROS.

Henry Brakebusch of Dutch-town was in Jackson yesterday. He said that the Cape county Mutual Insurance Co. would soon adjust the claim of $350 on the late residence of Jacob Doyle.

Back bands 10c and up; hames 40c and up; chains 35c and up, at Klein's.

Don't forget to hear Ed. Crowe of Murry, Ky., at the court house in Jackson on March 2nd. Mr. Crowe has the reputation of telling you something that will interest, instruct and amuse. Hear him.

Embroidery, Gingham and India Linons at way down prices at Jackson Store Co.

Why was not the public school flag floating over the building on Washington's birthday? The school has a flag unless some one has appropriated it. The pupils of the different rooms with our assistance purchased a twenty-foot flag, that cost about $20. This flag was bought about twelve years ago. It may be worn out. Suppose our school board look the matter up.

The undersigned will have a sale of his personal property consisting of stock, farm implements, household and kitchen furniture and various other articles, at his farm near New Wells on Saturday March 4th, 1905.

BEN MCLANE.

Henry Taylor and John Heuschel will start a business for Jackson in a short time that will be of untold good for the town and county. They will put up a rock crusher and a machine to make concrete building stones. Their object will be to make crushed rock, building rock and concrete material. They will be ready for business about March 15.

The people of this county are now offered a Chicago daily for $1 a year. The Chicago Daily Review is sent to subscribers for $1 a year, 75 cents for six months, 50 cents for three months, and stopped when the time is out. The Daily Review is a delightful daily with all the news of the day condensed into four pages, hence the low price. It is printed in large, clear type, easily read by young and old, and publishes a brilliant magazine feature by a popular author every day, besides much good poetry and interesting departments devoted to science and invention, art, literature, music, education, hygiene, home management, fashions, humor, sports and recreations, travels, matters of interest to women and children, etc. It is a clean family paper and admits nothing to its reading and advertising columns which cannot be read aloud in the family circle. Daily Review has subscribers in every state in the union and every county and township in this and surrounding states. It is just the daily paper for busy farmers and business men, professional men and their families. Subscribe for the Daily Review today. Send one dollar to Chicago Review Co., Room 49, No. 122 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. and receive this fine paper every day except Sunday for a whole year.
