Dankel & Young.

Here is an order that would cause "Foxy Grandpa" to have a dozen fits in a like number of seconds, if the county court of Dunklin county should act accordingly. The court orders all public notices and statements required by law to be published in one newspaper, be published in each of the three newspapers published in Perryville, at one legal rate to be divided equally among said three papers.—Perry County Sun.

ANOTHER GOOD BUSINESS MAN

Over twenty years ago a young man came to Jackson from the Cape and after looking over the situation concluded to remain here and go into business. He was a mere boy, and had just learned the saddle and harness business. He had little of this world's goods, but he went to work labored hard, early and late, stayed close to business and everything seemed to come his way. He married in due course of time, built himself a fine brick business house, graduated three apprentices, and is doing well. The young man, we say young, for he is not yet forty years old, is one of the moneyed men of our town. He is still in the harness business, is director in one of our banks, and a large stockholder in the Schumer Springs Realty Company. He knows the secret of making money and keeping it.

Let the young men of our town who want to get rich (not quick) honestly and steadily, consult C. H. Wolters.

EASTER SERVICES

The Easter services at the Methodist church were fine. The church was arrayed with the choicest of house plants and flowers. A very interesting program by the Sunday School pupils was carried out and the audience was highly pleased with the entire program. Rev. M. T. Haw preached a most interesting sermon at eleven o'clock from the text, "Now has Christ arisen from the dead because the first fruits of them that slept."

-COUPLE FROM CAPE WEB HERE

They still marry. On last Saturday our city was visited by a young couple from the Cape who presented themselves to Rev. C. W. Browning of this place and indicated their desire to be united for life, for better or worse. The contracting parties were Glenn Vandivort and Cora Reif. Mr. Vandivort is the son of Mrs. Lizzie Vandivort of this city. The young couple returned to the Cape after the ceremony, where they will make their future home. The Herald extends to them its best wishes for success and happiness.

Some one says that success does not consist in never failing, but in rising every time you do. They say all things come to him who waits and Longfellow adds "The waiting time my brother is the hardest time of all." Longfellow is not far wrong.

Gospel Temperance Meeting

Last Sunday afternoon the Baptist church was crowded to witness the Gospel Temperance Union exercises. The members of the different churches united their efforts and made this a crowded occasion. The program which was gotten up by the good ladies of the W. C. T. U. was an excellent one. The young people and children did justice to their parts. The singing was done by the boys and girls, this is a slight departure from the general custom but it was appreciated and the little folks sang well. The cold water song by 24 small boys preached a fine sermon to the person who thinks. If those boys will stick to the sentiment of that song they will make men of influence and worth. The oration by Emil Penzel was well spoken and showed thought and preparation. The closing remarks by Prof. Macom, Rev. Browning and Rev. Haw were all good and full of thought and sound advice.

MOVED TO NEW QUARTERS

E. G. Sibley has moved his barber shop to the Schmucke building near the post office. He has three experienced barbers employed and will arrange to give you hot and cold baths any time you want them. The shop is fitted up in the best of style, is located in the most business part of town, on the main street that leads from the new court house (when we get it finished) and the public who want to see an up to date shop are invited to call at Sibley's new shop. You can get a first class shave or hair cut at popular prices.

BREEDERS ATTENTION.

Two good horses and an excellent Jack will make the season of 1907 at our farm, six miles west of Jackson. One draft horse and an ideal Percheron, color black and four years old. One combination saddle and harness horse, 16 hands high, mahogany bay, three years old. One good Jack, and as a breeder he has no superior in this part of the country. Come and see our stock and be convinced. A. J. McGhee.

A representative of the Twentieth Century Clock company of Battle Creek, Mich., has been in correspondence with some of our citizens in regard to the locating of a clock factory in Jackson. This representative may come here in a few days. We believe our Commercial Club should take the matter up and see what these clock people have to offer. Such a factory ought to help our town.

FROM CAPE CREEK

On Friday, March 23, 1907, at 1:30 p. m., the Cape Creek school closed with a very appropriate program prepared by the teacher of the school, Miss Odessa Ates. A large crowd of the patrons of the school were present. Each pupil performed their part well. This showed the interest and drill given them by their teacher. No pains had been spared to make the exercises a success. After the exercises the premiums of the A and B classes were awarded. The winners were Clarence Loenneke and Norman Davis. Short talks of praise and commendation of the school were made by Messrs. Linder Miller, J. A. Nevins, F. A. Mier and Greer R. Davis. Miss Ates by her amiable disposition and good management has won the confidence and good will of the community and we wish her much happiness and success in the future. An Interested One.

A new departure has been instituted in a neighboring town, says an exchange. "The laying on of hands" for certain complaints, especially in children, is now taking the place of mind cure. A mother cured her boy of cigarette smoking with one dose. She laid her left hand on the boy's neck, her right on a substantial slipper, and laid the slipper on where it would do the most good. It effected a cure and a relapse is not looked for. The foregoing treatment applied properly at the right time instead of being considered "cute" and "smart" would cure many other boys which the law cannot cure.
