

HOME NOTES

After all the free advertising, talking and boosting a newspaper does for a cause, it is not fair to expect the paper to dig down in its pocket for cash. Any newspaper will gladly put up its part of the cash for every public enterprise, church and charitable purpose, if it could charge for the labor, expense and time it devotes to such things and for which it does not ask and would not accept one penny. Many people seem to be entirely un-mindful of the great amount of work a newspaper is constantly doing for the public, and that every word you read represents just so much labor and money to produce.

Rev. A. D. Rankin, pastor of the Cottonwood circuit, will preach for Pastor T. G. Fallin at the Methodist church in Hayti next Sunday at 11 a. m. and at night. Rev. Fallin requests everybody to come out and hear the young man.

People should be careful about making donations. We frequently notice the names of people signed to various kinds of donation lists who could better apply the money donated to paying what they owe.

Babe Huffstatter was called to Memphis Tuesday evening, on account of his wife being hurt in a wreck. We could not learn the particulars. Dr. Crider accompanied him.

Mrs. Samuels, mother of Frank and Jesse James, aged 84, ekes out a living by charging sight-seers, who visit her home, near Kearney, Mo., 25 cents each.

Dr. Mayes was called over to Gayoso Monday, to attend the six-year old son of Bob Whitener, who was severely cut by falling from a log wagon.

Judge Harris and wife of Union City, Tenn., are now in St. Louis. The Judge was threatened so much by the night riders that it seemed best for him to leave.

What if the "Old Man of the News" did get called before the grand jury, wouldn't he have to obey a legal summons, just the same as other people.

Will Horner has a nice young orchard, and Friday brought in a sample from the first year's bearing of his peach trees that were very nice.

J. R. Bramley left Thursday night for Hoxie, Ark., where he has a job on a short run. He expects to move his family there soon.

Just received, a new lot of "Silver" Collars, the only collar with the lin-cord eyelet. They wont tear out. J. L. Dorris.

Ernest Dunmire Lefler wrote back from Hot Springs to his father that he had a pile of rock and was building a mountain of his own.

Gum and maple boxing $12.50 a 1,000, 16ft. cypress fencing $14 a 1,000. Everything else in proportion. C. W. Frick. 111f

Mrs. Jessie Dorris is visiting in Cairo and Cape Girardeau.

BIRDSSELL WAGONS

Buy a wagon—a "Birdsell Wagon"—because they are made to run and not to play with. This is the best wagon made, and I have just received a shipment direct from the factory at South Bend, Ind. Don't fail to see me. Sell for Cash or time.
