Many Things Worth Reading, Condensed for Busy Readers

We are late this week on account of some changes for advertising coming in on press day. We are willing to do anything to favor our advertisers, but it should be to their interest for the paper to come out on time, as each reader expects to get it and does not like to wait a day. An advertiser can get his copy to us one time as well as another; he knows he has the change to make. Advertising copy should come in Thursday, Friday, Saturday or Monday, but never later than Tuesday 7 a. m.

W. B. Wilson went down to Caruthersville Tuesday to work up a Red Men Tribe.

The latest & best "Set Snug" union suits for ladies. Fine ribbed union suits for men or ladies. J. L. Dorris

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. S. Brown, of Deering, spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks in Hayti.

Good fresh, clean meats, good weights and courteous treatment is the motto at Chas. Morgan's butcher shop. 37f

School will be dismissed Thursday and Friday, on account of Thanksgiving and the Teachers' Association.

Prof. Wm. Bray of Scott county, who is teaching school at Braggadocio, went out Sunday to resume school, which was dismissed for the cotton season. He will move his family to this county soon.

J. R. Huffman of Huffman, Ind., who was in Hayti last week, visiting his daughter, Mrs. B. L. Guffy, bought the entire Pascola Lumber Co., mill lumber, timber, etc., that was sold at U. S. marshal sale. The mill is of 40,000 feet capacity, and the deal was a large one. 7000 or 8000 feet of lumber is on the sticks.

In view of the fact that most people prefer to eat their thanksgiving dinner with home folks, the Ladies Aid decided to abandon the idea of serving on that day, and to have, instead, a special song service at the church in the evening, with an appropriate sermon by the pastor, at which time a "free will offering" will be thankfully received.

Rev. R. T. Milnes, Supt. of the Children's Home Society of Mo., paid our city a visit one day last week, looking after the interests of this most important work. No work is more important than looking after the homeless and neglected children. This society does that, and have received and cared for more than 2,800 of these little fellows. Every body should be interested and help in this enterprise.

After twelve years of married life, a little boy arrived Friday evening to bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Ravenstein, but on Monday night, after a few brief hours in this world of love, laughter and song, sickness, sorrow and death, the Lord had need of the flower and taken it unto Himself. The bereaved parents have the heartfelt sympathy of their many friends.

Don't forget your coal. Winter and cold weather is right on you. Better be prepared. Get your coal now, while we have it, and plenty of time to haul it. Leave orders at Hayti Storage or Chas. Morgan's butcher shop.

The "Brownie Girl," who gave a very enjoyable entertainment, here last year, and one in which every body was pleased, will again be here Dec. 2, under the auspices of the Public School.

If any reader does not want the Herald after their subscription is out, kindly have your postmaster notify us at once. Do not take the paper out of the postoffice unless you expect to pay for it. We want all the subscribers we can get, but we want them to pay for the paper. It costs us money to produce, and is sent to no one free, except a sample, now and then.
