The Only Recognized Straight Democratic Newspaper in the County.

There is no need of arguing LEGAL technicalities in respect to the county printing, for the people in the county are not interested in such SPLITTING HAIRS. We have placed the law upon the subject before our readers and they may now advise themselves fully upon the matter without being forced to believe any of the silly twaddle which is being poured out by the column in the Hayti paper. —Caruthersville Argus.

So the Argus admits that the Hayti Herald was right. Surely if the Herald was not right—if the Herald was in error, the Argus would say so. No newspaper was ever known to give up a controversy when it was in the right. The Argus says there is no use in "splitting" hairs, when it comes to law and telling the truth, which is equivalent to saying, "if you can fool the people, fool them," as he has tried to do. The Herald quoted the law, quoted not only the sections, but the articles and their subjects and purposes; the Herald went further and showed the opinion of Attorney-General Major, our governor-elect, and the opinion of another eminent attorney, yet the Argus brands this as "silly twaddle." This is a very clear indication that the Argus regards the people as foolish and incompetent to judge the truth for themselves. Very well; the people think different, and they are with the Herald.

For the benefit of certain parties, who have a few curves in their spine on account of what we said about the defeat of Ed Juden, perhaps we know more than we have said, and we can make our remarks a little more pointed, if necessary. One of the causes leading in part to his defeat was too much talk on the part of one or more of his friends. On election day, these parties tried to spread the news that certain Hayti and Caruthersville people were knifing Brown and trying to elect Henderson, when there was no foundation for any such talk. As a result of this talk, however, and the persistency of one party in spreading it, the telephone was used to the north end of the county, carrying this report, as a result of which the people in the north end of the county, feeling that if their candidate was to be scratched, then they would retaliate by scratching Juden.

Last week we received the initial number of the Pemiscot Democrat, published by Jas. W. Smith, at Steele, in the south end of the county, and his paper makes a very credible showing for him. Jim is an old newspaper man and we have known him for many years, and we know that if Steele will do her part, he will do his, and there will be no kick coming. Now, you people of Steele, all get busy, give your newspaper the support it deserves, and when you die and need a nice obituary, Mr. Smith can write same without cussing under his breath. It is an awful hard task to write a nice, juicy obituary for some old cuss who never spent a dime with the newspaper in his life, and the extra copies his family ask for to send to their relatives falls quite heavy on the publisher.

Now and then some man meets us on the street and says: "Send the paper to me—just put my name on the list, and when I get home I will send you a dollar." In such cases we usually send about one issue, and failing to get the dollar, quit. Only this week we had a man to "jump" us about failing to send the paper to him, when the fact is, he has been in town several times since ordering the paper and has spent enough money for booze to pay for several years' subscription. Experience has taught us that the "cash in advance plan" is the best, and in at least nine cases out of ten a man has the money in his pocket to pay for the paper, if he would do so.

Being a democrat should not mean in this county that a member of the party is forced to stand for any nominee, however corrupt, who may be placed upon the ticket through bad influences. —Caruthersville Argus.

People of Pemiscot county: The Argus says the candidates you nominated by your votes at the primary, August 6, were nominated by bad influences. This assertion is impeaching your franchise as a citizen and voter. You went to the polls of the primary and nominated your choice, and now the Argus says you are corrupt, a fool, and did not have sense enough to vote as you should have voted. Isn't that the limit for gull?

Ed. A. Wright, owner of the New Madrid Missourian, gave notice last week that he published his last issue in New Madrid, and that he would remove to Portageville, where the paper would be continued. This may be a wise move on the part of Mr. Wright, and then again it may not. We have had some experience in the newspaper business, and we have learned that it is usually best to let well enough alone. Of course Portageville is a good town and needs a newspaper, and we hope brother Wright will meet with success, which he undoubtedly will, but he will find matters quite different from being in the county seat.

Now that the "hobo" season is approaching, we will suggest to the city authorities, that the city hall is not a cattle pen, and should not be converted into a rendezvous for nasty, stinking tramps, town boozers and town loafers. Let the doors be locked at night, and out of respect to the citizens who own and use the city hall, and those who rent offices in same, let all trespassers be summarily ousted.

Isn't it good to have all that politics out of the way and nothing to worry about save Bill York and the cost of turkey and Christmas presents. —Caruthersville Democrat.

Don't worry about us, Bill. Your political attitude through the recent campaign is enough to worry you, and it will forever pursue you, like Tam O'Shanter's witch.

The democrats can win in this county by nominating good men for office. —Caruthersville Argus.

How about the people? This county had a primary, in which all the people participated. The people, by their votes, made the nominations the Argus sought so hard to defeat.

Wonder if Cornelius Roach will again list the Hayti Herald "independent?" We are awfully sorry that Roach had no democratic opponent in the primary, and we hope to see the day when he shall have to contest with democrats for some office.

The Hayti paper evidently has a legal expert on its staff. —Caruthersville Argus.

It is better to have a legal expert on the staff of a newspaper than to attempt to fool and mislead the people. The people are entitled to know the truth.

We are sorry to see the Argus claiming all the honor for having the county's books audited, when the fact is, the honor chiefly belongs to the Democrat.

My Doctor Said

"Try Cardui," writes Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Hayne, N. C. "I was in a very low state of health, and was not able to be up and tend to my duties. I did try Cardui, and soon began to feel better. I got able to be up and help do my housework. I continued to take the medicine, and now I am able to do my housework and to care for my children, and I feel as though I could never praise Cardui enough for the benefits I have received."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

Cardui is successful, because it is made especially for women, and acts specifically on the womanly constitution. Cardui does one thing, and does it well. That explains the great success which it has had, during the past 50 years, in helping thousands of weak and ailing women back to health and happiness.

If you are a woman, feel tired, dull, and are nervous, cross and irritable, it's because you need a tonic. Why not try Cardui? Cardui builds, strengthens, restores, and acts in every way as a special, tonic remedy for women. Test it for yourself. Your druggist sells Cardui. Ask him.
