WALKING BACKWARD.
Ed P. Crowe, in discussing the newspaper situation at Hayti, says:

"Bill York tells Hayti in his last issue that Chas. N.
Walker would run a whiskey paper. There has been no secret in Walker's advocating saloons and aiding them when it came to a fight pro or con. We have never known him to be on any other side."

Then after reading us a lecture about carrying saloon ads, etc., Brother Crowe proceeds:

"But it does not improve the moral situation of Hayti to swap off Bill York for Walker, in fact, to us, it looks like walking backward."—Dexter Statesman.

No man can conduct a newspaper without bread and meat.
It may be news to the public that an editor and his wife and babies have to eat, wear clothes, have doctors and medicine and shelter just the same as other people. We find that everybody, the preacher, teacher, lawyer, doctor, merchant, all accept the saloon man's money. Therefore we accept the saloon advertising purely as a business proposition in order to make a living, and no paper can live in Hayti without the support of the saloons. If the good, christian people of Hayti will give us a living support they may be spared the painful necessity of seeing saloon ads in the Herald.

But the question is, when one paper cannot live in Hayti without the saloon business, then, as Brother Crowe says, why do the good, christian people of Hayti—the church and temperance people—want to import another paper into the town, and one that has always lined up on the whiskey side?

Crowe says "it looks like walking backward." Crowe knows you, he knows Walker and he knows us, and he knows that a mistake is being made.

SPITTING BLUE FLAMES.

Brother H. C. Lawhorn of the Herald-News, Blytheville, Ark., admires the Hayti Herald, but looks at the business end of it.
He says:

"Bill York of the Hayti Herald, has been spitting blue flames at some of the citizens of his town, charging them with combining in an effort to put him out of business. In fact so drastic has York been in his fight against these men, that they have gone to work and prevailed upon C. N. Walker, SOCIALIST, to agree to move his paper from Anderson, Ind., to Hayti, which means that Bill is going to have competition.

"There is nothing mean about Bill York, and we admire him in many ways * * * He is a good writer and a hustler. * * * Fact is, York thinks the people have mistreated him and the people think he has mistreated them.

"There are a handful of fellows in every town who are sure to stab the fellow who has the courage to express his convictions. * * *" Herald News, Blytheville, Ark.

When, in the course of human events, it becomes necessary for us to deny the truth, shirk our duty or hide from an enemy, we prefer to perish. As long as we live we expect to be arrayed on the side of truth, right and justice and honor among men, and if for this we must be crushed, then we will leave it to those who come after us, when we can no longer battle for the betterment of earthly things, to place up on our grave whatever flowers that should have been strewn along our pathway while living.

THEIR MONEY'S WORTH.

Barnhardt Brothers & Spindler of St. Louis, known to many as the St. Louis Printers Supply Company, who have branch houses in Chicago, New York, Washington, Dallas, Kansas City, Omaha, St. Paul, Seattle, and who know what a country paper should be, write us as follows:

St. Louis Mo., July 25, 1913.
Mr. William York, Editor,
The Hayti Herald,
Hayti, Mo.

Dear Sir:

We acknowledge receipt of copy of the Hayti Herald, and thank you for it.

We congratulate you on the quality of the paper which you are giving your readers. We notice your subscription price is $1.00 per year. They certainly get their money's worth.

Wishing you continued success, we are,

Yours truly,
Barnhardt Brothers & Spindler, Per E. A. Tracy, Mgr.

Now that the fight in Hayti is over and our enemies have spent their force and their money, we hope to share with the people the good effects that are to come after. The fight has been entirely a political one, and in connection with the county fight that has just been closed, we may look for quite a change in future elections. The eyes of the people have been opened, and when they are sure to get right. In concluding their fight against us our enemies could have paid us no greater compliment than having imported a red-hot, rampant, riparious SOCIALIST to put in a newspaper against us. Our arch enemies in Hayti are the Secretary of the County Democratic Central Committee and the Democratic Central Committeeman from this township, both being men who we exposed last election as being disloyal to the Democratic party, and now, by their own acts, they have proved our statements to be correct. Besides, through the instrumentality of a Deacon in a church and Superintendent of a Sunday school, many church people have been turned against us, and when he is the chief instigating in bringing a new paper to town that is soaked and steeped in whiskey he still further brands his hypocrisy, and vindic-ates our fight against him. Surely the people see and realize these things, and realizing them, they will profit by our courage in daring to tell the truth and standing by it no matter what the cost might be to us.

It is hardly to be presumed that the good democrats of Pemiscot county are going to go back on the Hayti Herald, the paper that stayed with them so loyally through the past campaign, and the only paper in the county to remain loyal to the party ticket as nominated by the democratic voters at the primary. The Socialist paper that is being brought to Hayti will very evidently find itself in the wrong pew. Its editor, may, of course, attempt to hide his socialism and throw the cloak of some other party over his shoulders, but he cannot fool the people. His career at Portageville, when he claimed to be a democrat and at the same time supported republican candidates, is still fresh in the minds of the people. We were first to make the discovery that he was a socialist, and months before he made the announcement and went over to the socialist party, we openly accused him in these columns, and he did not deny it.
Yet he was posing as a democrat.
Surely no good democrat can support a man of this kind, and we do not see what love the Republicans can have for him.

We appreciate our good, substantial friends among the better element of the Frisco employees, and, while they have remained silent during all this long wrangle, we knew they were with us in our labors for better religious, moral, social and political conditions. Watch now for the good effects, when our citizenship will be amply repaid for all the unpleasantness that has occurred. Every good move requires some one to make sacrifices to accomplish, and we are glad that it fell to our lot to make this sacrifice for the people of Hayti.

We believe in honesty in politics, just the same as in anything else, and we like to see a man get out in the open and be what he is. We believe the people should know. We have nothing but honor for any man who is honest in his convictions and is open to the public, not seeking to deceive, or turn hypocrisy into coin. Whenever it becomes necessary for us to be dishonest with the public, we prefer to fall out of line and seek our livelihood in private life.

When a man advertises, he wants and must have circulation.
Otherwise, his money is worse than thrown away. The price paid for advertising must be based entirely upon circulation.
When we started the Herald, five years ago, Hayti had no newspaper, and it was easy to build up a circulation, which we still have, and it is growing with the age of the paper. We give advertisers their money's worth.

Whiskers has been associated with several newspaper failures in Hayti and has been a source of much worry and bother to the town. For more than a year he has been agitating against the Herald. But the Herald will live to publish his obituary.

It will take more than $700.00 invested in a Socialist paper to put the Herald out of business.

Bad Spells

"I suffered, during girlhood, from womanly weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of Walnut, N. C. "At last, I was almost bed-ridden, and had to give up. We had three doctors. All the time, I was getting worse. I had bad spells, that lasted from 7 to 28 days. In one week, after I gave Cardui a trial, I could eat, sleep, and joke, as well as anybody. In 8 weeks, I was well. I had been an invalid for 5 weary years! Cardui relieved me, when everything else failed."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean, to you, to recover as quickly as Mrs. Navy did. For more than 50 years, this purely vegetable, tonic remedy, for women, has been used by thousands of weak and ailing sufferers.
They found it of real value in relieving their aches and pains. Why suffer longer? A remedy that has relieved and helped so many, is ready, at the nearest drug store, for use, at once, by you. Try it, today.
