Miss Wirsching who has been out for several weeks on account of an operation for appendicitis took up her work Monday as teacher of room 6. We are glad to know that her recovery has been so complete and trust that she may not be detained from her work any more this term.

Be sure to see "Brother Josiah" Thursday night. This is a very strong play, and will be put on in good style by the High School. Encourage them in this effort by your presence at the Dorris Theater on the night of presentation.

Hayti girls added another victory last Thursday night when they gave the strong Senath team their first defeat. Our girls played very hard and we feel that they surely earned the victory which was theirs.

In the girls game no one but forwards can make goals. Our attendance for the month which closed last Friday, was very fine. Keep the children in school there is no better way of obtaining the best which a school can give you.

S. E. JUDEN.

In the proper column in today's issue of The Herald will be found the announcement of S. E. (Ed.) Juden as a candidate for the office of sheriff of Pemiscot county, subject to the will of the voters in the Democratic primary.

Mr. Juden's announcement will not come as a surprise to those familiar with the political situation growing out of and existing since the last election held in this county, and it is safe to say that ninety percent of the voters are acquainted with that affair. It will be remembered that Mr. Juden was the Democratic nominee, the party's choice and candidate, but by gross political connivery and the treachery of supposed friends, was defeated. In the primary, with five other candidates seeking the nomination, Mr. Juden won by a big majority, receiving almost as many votes as all the others, yet his defeat was brought about in the general election from the causes named above, the details of which are too generally known to need further comment here. This condition, if no other, would entitle Mr. Juden to have another chance, but there are other seasons more vital, which we shall name.

First, and mainly, there is not a man in Pemiscot county better qualified to fill the office than Mr. Juden. This assertion is backed by the truth—the truth which Mr. Juden's service has proven of his merit. He is, perhaps, more widely and favorably known than any man in Pemiscot county, and his record is his best recommendation.

He is the present postmaster of Hayti, and has been since shortly after he was defeated for sheriff. The service he has rendered could not have been more efficient. He has been prompt, accurate and courteous in every detail, and under all circumstances, for all of which he is entitled to a vote of thanks from the patrons of the office.

Mr. Juden has had a long and varied experience in serving the public, which, added to his natural qualifications, creates in him predominating characteristics the public cannot fail to recognize and appreciate.

Mr. Juden was educated at the Cape Girardeau Normal, Cape Girardeau, after which he studied law two years under Judge B. F. Davis of that city. He also taught school several years in this State, but finding his business ability and jovial nature commanding a larger wage in commercial lines he became a traveling salesman for a St. Louis wholesale grocery house, and for years covered this territory.

After becoming a citizen of Pemiscot county about fifteen years ago, Mr. Juden has filled several positions of trust, but is known to most of our people as one of the most efficient deputy sheriffs the county ever had. He filled that office from 1908 to 1912, frequently performing the entire duties of high sheriff, as many know who attended the sessions of circuit court during those years, who yet recall his smiling face and courteous treatment. The remark is frequently heard: "Mr. Juden is the same to everybody, all the time. He is the same Ed. Juden wherever you meet him, under all circumstances. He does not know, nor show, any difference between the poor man and rich man—all look alike to him."

Even in defeat Mr. Juden retains his pleasant and courteous demeanor. This, too, is proven by the results of the last election. Defeated by trickery, as he was, would have embittered most men, causing them to indulge in abuse, but Ed. Juden accepted the results without denouncing those who betrayed him, and many persons who voted against him have since assured him they would do all in their power for him, insisting that he offer himself for the office again that they might have that opportunity. In fact, the call for Mr. Juden to enter the race is as broad as the length and breadth of the county.

A prominent and well posted citizen of the upper part of the county a few days ago said: "Ed. Juden is entitled to the office and ought to have it. There should be no other candidate against him, and the party should make his support an aim."

Those remarks certainly sound sensible, knowing the situation as we do. There are plenty of other good men in the county, but unquestionably none of them have the claim upon the office Mr. Juden has, and it being hardly possible for any of them to defeat him in a contest before the people, is sufficient cause not to stir up needless strife.

As said, no citizen of the county can claim to be better qualified to fill the office than Mr. Juden. In his years of service as constable and deputy sheriff he time and again demonstrated that in answering the calls of duty the weather and the roads were never too bad, nor dangers so great as to cause him to hesitate at any hour of the day or night. No writ was ever issued out of any court but what he knew how to handle it as the law directed. He is by nature, education and experience peculiarly fitted to fill the office to which he aspires. He understands all the intricacies connected with the office, and knows how to solve the various hard problems which often confront a sheriff. His service as deputy sheriff proved him to possess great bravery, shorn of rashness. He was noted for his coolness and self possession under circumstances that would have tested the grit of men of iron nerve, yet he was never known to falter or waver. With all this, he is big hearted, noble-minded and sympathetic, which characteristic takes harshness out of all his official acts. His sympathy for erring humanity made a friend for him out of each of the numerous persons which duty required him to arrest and incarcerate. He is a man of strong convictions and great determination, and no influence can swerve him from his official duty, as he sees it.

To sum it up, Ed. Juden is a good man, a good neighbor, a good friend, a good citizen, who, if elected, is competent, and will make Pemiscot county an efficient, intelligent and courageous officer; and the people, if they want as good a sheriff as the county has ever had, can make no mistake in giving him their warm and hearty support.

WOODRUFF-ALLEN.

On Thursday evening of last week, at eight o'clock a very pretty wedding occurred in this city, in which Lee Woodruff of Bethany, Okla., and Miss Eva Allen of this city were the principals. The ceremony being performed in the parlor of the B. F. Allen hotel, amid the immediate family, close relatives and a few intimate friends of the bride.

While a very nice piano selection was being given the marriage ceremony was impressively delivered by Rev. J. B. Ragsdale, pastor of the Baptist church.

After the ceremony all repaired to the dining room where delicious punch and cake was served. Many beautiful presents were received.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Allen, who are pioneers of this county, and is one of the leaders in the religious work at the Baptist church, and numbers her friends by her acquaintances.

The groom is a contractor, of Bethany, Okla., and formerly worked on the Frisco depots at Caruthersville and this city.

They will leave in a few days for their new home, where Mr.

Woodruff has a cottage prepared. The Herald joins their many friends in extending congratulations and well wishes.

Mrs. E. B. Brittin called around at this office Tuesday and now her subscription is marked up for another year.

Remember, we are going to have a first-class trimmer in our millinery department in plenty of time for your Easter hat. Buckley. 12-11

Joe Foust and W. D. (Doss) Hudgens of Foust attended to business in the county seat Monday.

We have added a new line of Men's Ready-to-Wear Pants. Look them over before you buy. Buckley. 12-11

Miss Ada Dowdy and sister of Carleton were shopping Caruthersville Tuesday.

Jim Swing of Stanley was attending to business in this city Monday.
