HAYTI, MISSOURI, THURSDAY, JULY 6, 1916.

NO. 34.

MISSOURI MILITIA.

By Herald Correspondent.

July 1.—Perhaps the people of Pemiscot county would be glad to hear that Co. "B" of the 4th Regiment will leave for the border soon. The Company took an other vaccination for small pox today, which leave two more vaccinations yet to take. The boys are all well and seem to be anxious to move.

The 1st Regiment left out last night, Battery B leaving today. The Company is being equipped today with shoes and clothing.

Owing to the vaccinations the Company has not been drilling the last few days. All have sore arms now.

Company "B" will be represented on the mounted scouts by Privates John L. Shepard, J. W. Terrell and R. L. Jones, they being transferred to that command.

The boys put in the morning reading the Argus and a letter appearing in same from Nevada. It stated to the people at home that we had nothing to eat. The writer of that letter had her information from some raw recruits that thought a soldier should be fed like a $3 a day house would feed them. We get plenty of good, solid food. The trouble was that the Quartermaster Sergeant drew rations for a certain number of men, then the new recruits came in, that causing a shortage of rations. But only a few kicked at that. Caruthersville came across with $50, so the boys will have some extras for a while. The boys certainly appreciated the donation, too.

July 3.—Company "B" and the 4th Regiment entrains today, the third, for the border, after several days work. The Regiment is ready to go, the officers being busy preparing. Every member of the Company are anxious to move.

As to the boys rejected, they will return home. Owing to the situation they seem worried as to which way they would like to go. Sergeant Gamble and Private Oscar Dickson were discharged owing to the expiration of term but will enlist after the second examination. Capt. Reeves and Lieut. Malloure passed. The company fell short at roll call they being Private James Wilson and Claudie Clay, as that is the talk in camp.

The Company is well equipped and ranks among the best of the 4th Regiment.

The boys send their best regard to the people of Pemiscot county, and are hoping they will return some day. While the parents, sisters and sweethearts are spending the 4th in enjoyment, the boys will be speeding for the Mexican border.

It is not exactly known just where the Regiment will be sent, although it is thought to Laredo, Texas.

ON THE ROAD, July 4, Parsons, Kans.—It is now three o'clock in the afternoon and the 4th Missouri Regiment is entrained for some point on the Mexican border over the M. K. & T., with 21 cars carrying 1043 men, the 4th Regiment being the largest regiment of the Missouri Guard. Everyone seem happy after laying all day in the sun at Nevada waiting for the cars to move us, it being a very disagreeable fourth for our regiment.

While we were in readiness to move the mail was being delivered, every person who received a communication feeling the happiest. After the reading of letters everything was very quite for a while. Later the boys would often mention the 4th of July celebration at home and how we are now doing our celebrating, but with a slight remark that there was another time.

The rejected boys left yesterday for their homes in dear old Pemiscot county and other points in Missouri.

Capt. Reeves has received much praise from the head officers for holding up the flag in Southeast Missouri. After the rejects of Co. "B" left the Company has 69 men, with 2 deserters. Several of the company has been on the sick list, Lieut. W. B. Hitchcock and Privates Newberry and Evans.

As we are speeding along the farmers in this country are working in the wheat fields.

We hope the lady that wrote to Pemiscot county that we were starving will learn better some time. The second vaccination is taking hold and the boys of the company are complaining of the soreness of arms. Those rejected boys were hurt, as some of them wanted to follow the command, while others were glad to get loose on the second examination.

HAYTI SCHOOL HAS SAVINGS BANK.

Sitting—George Sigler, director, Isaiah Faris, president; Nat Buckley, vice-president.

The pupils of the Hayti Public School have for three years had a savings bank. The officers are elected annually by the students. Deposits are allowed from a penny up. One hour, from 9 to 10 a. m. each day is banking time. The bank then closes for business at the school and the cashier takes the funds, properly credited, goes to the Bank of Hayti and makes deposit. The plan has proven a grand success, having not only taught the smaller children to save, but the older ones also. The deposits run higher each year and increase in number. At the end of the year depositors may receive their money, and the savings of many pupils run up to magnificent sums. The cashier and deputies alternate weekly in rendering their service.

P. C. Blankenship, one of the good farmers of our neighborhood, was in town Monday and brought a nice sample of strawberries to this office. It was of the Everbearing variety and has blooms, green and ripe berries on the vine. Mr. Blankenship told us that he has had three crops from his berries this year, and that they will continue to bear until frost.

Miss Verna Welborn of Cape Girardeau, came down Friday and spent that night in this city. She left Saturday morning for Senath, where she is one of the teachers in the schools in that city. Miss Welborn has taught in the Hayti schools for the past three years, and she made good. She is a thorough and efficient teacher, and one that the Senath schools may be proud of.

Andrew B. Dorris is showing quite a talent for making pictures. Andrew is the son of A. J. and Mrs. Dixie Dorris. He only makes pictures for sport and uses a small kodak, and the finished pictures show up like professional work. If Andrew had some professional training in some good photographic school we are sure he would make a success.

Dan F. Stanfill, a former citizen of this city, but who is now of Louisiana, passed through town Monday morning on his way to the north. Dan is in fine health.

WIFE SHOTS HUSBAND.

An almost fatal tragedy occurred just south of this city Thursday night of last week, when W. W. Parks, a wealthy farmer, who had, it is understood, spent the day in this city, and during the time had drunk considerably, afterwards returning home. Upon his return home a quarrel ensued between himself and wife and in which it is said he abused or struck his wife.

Several reports have circulated, but the most authentic is that he had threatened her life, that she broke away and barricaded herself in a room. He then tried to go in at a window and she opened fire on him with a 32 calibre revolver, firing one shot that took serious effect just below the left lung, passing entirely through his body.

After the tragedy Mr. Parks was taken to Caruthersville to the home of his mother, and in the morning to a hospital in Memphis, Tenn.

At the request of his wife, who did the shooting, he accompanied by Dr. Geo. Phipps and O. R. Cole, left on the accommodation train for Memphis. We understand that Mr. Parks has exonerated his wife, stating that he "made her do it," and we hope that he may soon return from the hospital a well man, however, the doctors at first reported a very slight chance for recovery.

At the time of going to press we understand that he is resting very well and that if no complications set about he has a chance for recovery.

TEXAS FORGER CAUGHT.

Bennie Chaney, alias Harry Hall, Harry Mayes, and probably other names, of Colo, Texas, was captured in this city Thursday night of last week by City Marshal Robertson.

It is said by authorities that Chaney is an ex-convict, and had escaped. He was wanted by the state of Texas for forgery, and was serving a two year term in the Texas penitentiary.

Several days ago Mr. Robertson received a card stating that it was believed that this party was in Hayti. He replied asking that a description of the man wanted be sent him. Mr. Robertson states that as soon as the description was received he knew exactly who was who, and immediately lodged the victim.

After the arrest the young man acknowledged that he was the wanted person and that his name was Bennie Chaney, but that at first he had almost forgotten his real name, that he had gone under the alias names so long. He had been in this city several months and was a neat dresser and was supposed to be a gambler.

He was lodged in the city jail the night of the arrest and a guard placed near for safe keeping. During the night some of the citizens(?) of this city attempted to aid him to escape, though it was prevented.

The proper authorities were notified and they came and took him away Saturday.

Thus, Mr. Robertson is now $25 better off, this being the reward offered.

Cornelius Roach, secretary of state, was in this city Friday shaking hands with the voters. He is now a candidate for Governor.

BUCKLEY'S

Work Dress Tennis SHOES SHOES SHOES

It has no doubt been apparent to you for more than a year past that the price of all articles of merchandise through this country has had a rising tendency. It is unnecessary to search for the reason why this is true, or to attempt to speculate upon how long such a condition may last. The fact is that costs in the great basic industries of manufacture have had an almost startling rise. This has perhaps been more apparent in the leather and shoe trades than in any other line. More than a fourth of the leather used in the manufacture of medium price and cheap shoes has gone abroad and costs have advanced from 90 per cent to 100 per cent. Our Company are large purchasers of leather, large manufacturers, and can and will maintain our unheard of low prices. Come and investigate.

Look for more leather news next week.
