Braggadocio News

(Too Late for Last Week.)

The Baptist Association held their fifth Sunday meeting here at the Baptist Church, beginning Friday Oct. 27th and closed Sunday, with a splendid sermon by Bro. Bronson.

Mrs. Jane Kersey has been very sick for the past week, but is better now.

Mrs. Binson's mother of Obion, Co, Tenn., spent the past week with her.

Miss Nola Grinstead who is teaching at Carleton spent Saturday and Sunday with home-folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Green spent Saturday night with Mrs. Green's father W. M. Hatley.

There will be a public speaking here Thursday night. The subject, "A creamery for Braggadocio and will it pay."

On Oct. 28, the death angel visited the home of Luther Kersey and claimed as its victim his beloved wife Kate West Kersey. She professed faith in Christ more than a year ago and became a faithful member of the Baptist Church.

She was a loving wife a tender mother and leaves a husband, a little daughter a father and mother and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her departure.

The writer would like to see amendment No. 8, carry on Nov. 7, as it would mean more than words can express in the way of progress and development. For every dollar we receive in the way of revenue from liquor it takes eighteen dollars to clean up after it. The State of Kansas loses the one dollar but saves the eighteen dollars. Missouri can do the same by voting Yes on amendment No. 8.

Bush Items.

Health isn't very good at present in this vicinity.

The levee work is progressing nicely.

Miss Stella Alexander of Hayward is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Richard Alexander.

Rev. K. V. Propst of Hayti made a "temperance lecture" at the Bush school house last Wednesday night, November 1st. The crowd was small but the lecture was reported good.

Miss Viola Patterson accompanied by Miss Stella Alexander, spent Saturday and Sunday in Hayti with Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Patterson.

There is to be a box-supper at the Bush school house next Saturday night, November 11th. Everybody is cordially invited.

SUNBEAM.

Last Saturday morning, three buildings, owned by I. B. Bales, at Pascola, were destroyed by fire. One of the buildings was occupied by the Bales' saloon, another by a restaurant owned by C. L. Bryson and the other by a barber shop belonging to Frank Cook. The fire originated in the restaurant, it is said. There was no insurance on any of the property and the loss is estimated at between seven and eight thousand dollars.—Kennett News.

A big, new line of the newest patterns of wall papers at A. J. Dorris Store. Prices reasonable.

J. S. Marshall, one of the good Frisco boys was telling us an other one Monday. J. S. said that at Blytheville, Ark., his old friend, P. A. Secoy had a turkey hen that was setting and in a few days some little turkeys would hatch. This is some late for turkey setting. Has anyone else ever known of turkeys setting so late.

A new line of Men's Dress Shirts at Buckley's.

Miss Bertha Miller, saleslady at The Quality Store, was visiting relatives and friends in Senath last week.

Birthday Party.

On Saturday, November 11th, 1916, a very nice party was given in honor of the 12th birth anniversary of Miss Thelma Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Robertson.

Of the 60 invitations sent out to her schoolmates and friends 42 were present, and much merry-making was indulged in. Refreshments.

Many pretty and very useful presents were received, among them was a very unique one, it being a beautiful cake lighted with 12 small candles, indicating the age of the recipient.

Mrs. Robertson was assisted in the entertaining for her daughter, by Mrs. Amos Taylor, Misses Naomi Hall and Mercella Birch and Myrtle Robertson.

Those being present were: Ethel Lewis, Carmel Popham, Hettie Patterson, Virginia Morgan, Lois Brown, Juanita Herrell, Fay Wilson, Ethel Fisher, Maud Adams, Allie, Pearl and Georgia Cameron, Lena Streiff, Floella Russell, Maud Fields, Metta Morris, Leonora Crider, Myrtle Lee Hopkins, Thelma Crafton, Martha Welker, Helen Guffy, Lula Kennon and Lois Taylor; Joe Creely, Harold Popham, Berdell Hopkins, John Adams, Melton Osborn, Howard Rouark, Henry Ransburg, Moore Schilling, Buddie Hood, Emerson Ransburgh, Billie Jeffers, Emmons Alexander, Carl Martin, Kos Dorris, Jim T. Dunn, Ernest Lefler, Ernie Vaughn and Pletty Russell.

Postmaster Resigns.

Postmaster S. E. Juden showed us his resignation Wednesday that he was forwarding to Washington, D. C., tendering his resignation as postmaster of Hayti, and asking that his said resignation take effect January 1st, 1917.

Mr. Juden informed the Herald that he intended on resigning about the first of December, but he thought of the enormous holiday business near Christmas and New Year times, and thought it only fair that he hold until after the big holiday rush.

In the tendering of the resignation of Mr. Juden, the Herald can say that he as postmaster has given the office and its patrons complete satisfaction, and of course this was directly from his close attention and of the efficient office force.

As matters now stand we understand there are three or four aspirants for the office, two of them, being Mrs. C. S. York, for several years connected with the Herald office, and S. P. Oates, recently nominated and re-elected constable of Hayti town ship.

Esq. Sam White of Braggadocio was in town Monday with a big Wilson smile. Sam said everything was Democratic at Braggadocio.
