A CALL FOR 80,000 CENSUS ENUMERATORS

The Director of the Census, Sam L. Rodgers, announces that 80,000 enumerators will be needed to take the next census. The work begins January 2 and will last about two weeks in cities, and a month or more in the rural districts. Rates of pay will vary, depending upon the locality and character of the district to be canvassed. The average pay per enumerator at the census of 1910 was about $70. At this coming census it will probably not be less than $70.

"Active, intelligent, and reliable men and women, not less than 18 years of age, are needed for this task," said Director Rodgers, "and, in a sense, this is a call for volunteers. The importance of a complete and reliable census, especially in these critical times when more than ever before perhaps we need complete data regarding population, conditions, tendencies, and resources, can hardly be over emphasized. The reorganization of the social and economic structures and the readjustment of international relations necessitated by the war must be based on accurate knowledge if we are to act wisely and deal justly with all classes and all interests. It is hoped, therefore, that public-spirited energetic people throughout the country will volunteer to act as census enumerators even though they may not care for the positions so far as the pay is concerned. I should be sorry to think, and I do not believe, that all our patriotism was used up by the war and none left for public service in time of peace."

Wm. C. Johnson, Supervisor of the Census for the 12th District of Missouri, which includes the counties of Douglas, Dunklin, Howell, Mississippi, New Madrid, Oregon, Ozark, Pemiscot, Ripley, Scott, Stoddard, Stone and Taney, states that he will need 218 enumerators for this district. Applications or requests for application forms should be sent to him on or before October 15. His address is Alton, Missouri.

As a test of their fitness for the work applicants will be required to fill out a sample schedule and will be duly notified of the time and place for this test. So far as practicable the place selected will be one which is easily accessible.

Waterworks For Hayti Means

That we have taken a forward step;

That more Insurance Companies will write business here;

That we can get more and CHEAPER insurance;

That people with money to loan will not be afraid to lend on our real estate;

That persons desiring to build homes can get insurance and thus secure help with which to pay for their homes;

That persons willing to invest their money in rent houses will not be afraid to build houses in Hayti;

With more insurance, more people will build houses. This means more houses and more houses means CHEAPER RENT and better homes.

Do not pay any attention to those who oppose Water Works because it means more taxes or because we can not bond for more money to build a larger system. Increased taxes will be met by CHEAPER INSURANCE, and any kind of water works is better than none. We can start with a small system and increase as our property valuation increases.

Remember the date of the election is Friday, October 24th and the polling places are the Grammar School and City Jail.
Polls open at Seven o'clock and close at Sunset.

M. E. SINGLETON MENTIONED FOR D. S. MEDAL AWARD

Marvin E. Singleton, 4468 West Pine boulevard, president of the Missouri State Life Insurance Company and during the war chief of the St. Louis ordnance district of the army, is to be awarded the Distinguished Service Medal in recognition of his work while in charge of the district, it was reported yesterday in Washington.

While the official announcement of the award as yet has not been made, it is understood the recommendation of Major Gen. C. C. Williams will be complied with. Williams has named eight others, all of whom held positions similar to that of Singleton, for the decoration.

The Distinguished Service Medal is a civilian decoration and is the highest one that can be conferred. It differs from the Distinguished Service Cross in that the latter is given for extraordinary heroism in action. —St. Louis Republic.

Mr. Singleton is a heavy land owner to the north of this city, at Netherlands. He is head of the M. E. Singleton Co. of Netherlands were leaders in war work of his township and like his interest in public affairs, is to be given recognition for faithful service rendered.

—Will make you a hat to order. Pretty patterns received every week. Trimmings in stock for you to select from. My prices are very reasonable. Mrs. D. B. Hayes, at Gaither & Stubbs store.

Hayti furnished her proportion of the attendance at the Pemiscot county Fair held at Caruthersville last week. Those attending speak of the many good races, many attractions and with plenty of the usual eating stands and worthless concessions. The weather during the fair week did much to hinder the proper entertainment. The merchants exhibits in the Floral Hall were all very attractive and a good piece of advertising. No doubt the entries of swine was perhaps the greatest attraction and the Swine Building drew its share of the attendance. All in all the fair was a good one, and for the presence of the dismal weather it would have been much better. We regret very much our inability to give the results of the awarding of the premiums.

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE BLAMES LACK OF PRODUCTION

WASHINGTON.—The Council of National Defense, composed of the Secretaries of War, Navy, Interior, Agriculture, Commerce and Labor, today made public its analysis of the causes of the present high prices and recommendations for overcoming the problem. The principal recommendation made is the carrying out of the policy recommended by President Wilson of increased production, rigid economy and saving.

The causes of the present high prices are said by the council to be: That the nation's productive power has not been fully utilized since the armistice.

That too few goods, notably the necessities of life, have been produced and that even some of these goods have been withheld from the market, and therefore from the people.

That the high cost of living is due in part to unavoidable war-waste and increase of money and credit.

That there has been and is considerable profiteering intentional and unintentional.

The council believes that the remedies for the situation are: To produce more goods, and to produce them in the proportion to the needs of the people.

To stamp out profiteering and stop unnecessary hoarding.

To enforce vigorously present laws and promptly to enact such further laws as are necessary to prevent and punish profiteering and needless hoarding.

To bring about better co-operation and methods in distributing and marketing goods.

To keep both producer and consumer fully informed as to what goods are needed and as to what supplies are available, so that production may anticipate the country's demands.

Continuing the council says: Goods and not money are the means of life.

Better standards of living are impossible without producing more goods. Man cannot consume what has not been produced.

At the war's end our allies had desperate need of the essentials of life. We had to share our resources with them, but this drain will gradually lessen. In so far as our shortage of goods is due to this cause we can well afford to be patient.

It is just as essential that we have patience with the economic situation here at home. The process of production requires time. If production is rapidly increased, vastly improved conditions will prevail in America when the result of the present and future labor begin to appear.

Teamwork is imperative. It is just as essential between retailer, wholesaler and producer as it is between employer and employe.

One group of producers cannot wait on another group. The manufacturer, the farmer, the distributor must each immediately assume his part of the burden and enter upon his task. The nation cannot afford curtailment of goods vital to the people.

On American business rests a grave responsibility for efficient co-operation in bringing about full and proportionate production. On American labor rests an equally grave responsibility to attain maximum unit production and maintain uninterrupted distribution of goods if labor itself is not to suffer from further rises in the cost of living.

The entire nation—producer, distributor and consumer alike—should return to the unity that won the war. Group interest and undue personal gain must give way to the good of the whole nation if the situation is to be squarely met.

SUGAR FAMINE IN BLYTHEVILLE

For two weeks this city has been near a sugar famine and now we are in the midst of it. There is no sugar in town in the 78 grocery stores, except the brown kind, and a very little loaf sugar. The dealers give us very little encouragement, as to when the supply will be replenished. It is the sugar trust getting in its work we imagine, though this sort of an excuse would not be permitted by them.—Blytheville Courier.
