Gay Bungalow Caps

Here is something new in breakfast caps. It is made of gay cretonne and is buttoned up the back so that it may be easily washed and ironed. It is bound with a plain color in chambray and has a narrow band of this material about it. The brim portion may be turned up or down and is shown here turned up at one side and down on the other.

—Say: do you know that we have some phonographs at our store that get a better tone from the records than other makes? Well, we have; and we should be glad to have you call and hear a demonstration. Turnbaugh's Jewelry Store, Caruthersville.

Julius Kohn of the Kohn Store at Kennett, was here visiting his parents Sunday.

—For Rent—Two, nice, large unfurnished rooms, suitable for light housekeeping. Apply to Mrs. D. E. Dorris, Hayti, Mo. 41f

C. OF C. MEETINGS

The Chamber of Commerce held their regular weekly meeting on Monday night, also the election of officers for the next six months.

A communication was received and read from E. S. Fuller, hotel man, in regard to the hotel proposition, and the secretary was instructed to write him that the subject was being agitated, altho nothing definite as yet has been done. Several enthusiastic remarks were made by members present in regard to getting the hotel project under way.

The Chamber endorsed the appointment of Chas. S. Reynolds as district engineer for Southeast Missouri and instructed the secretary to so advise the state authorities through L. D. Thompson.

The Chamber then elected the following officers for the next six months, as follows:

President, Dr. J. W. Johnson
1st. Vice-President, Willard Ray
2nd. Vice-President, Blair Buckley

Secretary, O. E. Hooker.
Treasurer, I. Kohn.
Auditing Committee, Joe Kohn and H. J. Reinhard.

The retiring president, J. T. Buckley, thanked the members for their co-operation during his term and made several recommendations for the new officers. Dr. J. W. Johnson the new president, also addressed the Chamber and urged that each member endeavor to increase the attendance, which has not been very large of late. After the meeting had adjourned the members present repaired to the Chilton restaurant for a light lunch.

ELITE CLUB NOTES

The Elite Club held a very interesting meeting on Friday, Dec. 2, and were entertained at the home of Mrs. Pat Galligan. The program of the evening consisted of Five Hundred, and the following members were present:

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Brasher, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Byars, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dorris, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Teaster, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Trainor, Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Oates, Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Limbaugh, Mesdames Fred Larson, Dorris, Misses Hattie Gaither, Sadie Mitchell, Thelma Robertson and Roy Harper.

The first prize was won by Mrs. Ward Dorris, a cut glass napper. The consolation prize was won by Mrs. Fred Larson, a bunch of crysanthemums.

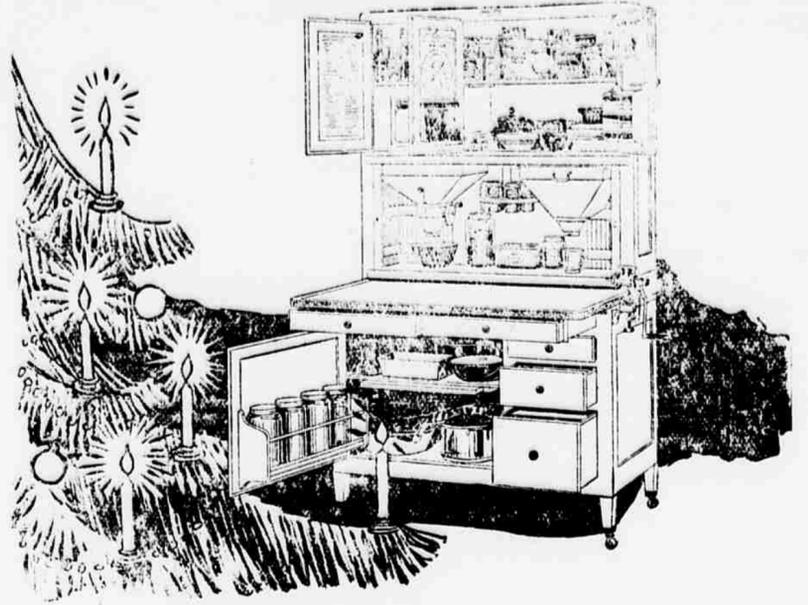

The hostess served a most delightful luncheon consisting of oyster cocktail, sandwiches, fruit salad with whipped cream on angel food cake. A very enjoyable evening was spent and all voted Mr. and Mrs. Galligan splendid hosts.

Edis Burke of Blytheville, Ark., has been spending a goodly part of the week visiting Mrs. Mollie Trautmann and Miss Bess Lutes, who is also visiting Mrs. Trautmann.

Miss Viola Patterson, teacher at Braggadocio, was in attendance at the County Teachers' Association at Caruthersville.

—New price on Non-Skid Firestone casings, 30x3 for $9.95, at Wells Drug Co.

A HOOSIER Makes Christmas Joy Last the Whole Year.

Most Christmas Gifts soon wear out their welcome. Even those that are of permanent construction are often shoved to one side and are enjoyed only at infrequent intervals.

But the Hoosier is used several times a day—every day in the year. And every time it is used it adds materially to the joy of life. For the Hoosier

- SAVES STEPS
- SAVES WORK
- SAVES TIME
- SAVES WORRY

—SAVES FOOD

—Saves the strength and spirit of the housewife so that she can really enjoy her evenings with her family.

If you want to make your wife happy—every day in the year—you will give her a Hoosier for Christmas.
