

PEMISCOT COUNTY'S NEW MAP.

Through this column we are extending our thanks to the citizens and institutions who supported the making of a high-grade, photolithographic map in colors, mounted on cloth, of Pemiscot County. These progressive people made it possible, by the signing of a contract with us for one or more maps, for the county to be proud of and enjoy such a high-class map, which very few counties in the Mississippi River Delta possess. Without the support and assistance of these people the map could not have been made. Very few realize the great value and convenience of this up-to-date map. Many school districts subscribed because they know that the children should begin their geography with their county and know how to interpret this map. This map will contain all topographical features, with the names of landowners.

And in the end we only hope we will get credit for having faith in our work and not being afraid of making this map, not having the full support of many others whose duty it is to support it, because this map is an absolute necessity and will be the finest advertisement for the county and the saving of much time to those who need it.

We are far behind with the subscriptions and we would be glad to hear from those whom we did not reach and who wish to subscribe now and save money. By June 15th we will close our subscriptions and will publish the names of new subscribers.

STANLEY NEWS.

(Crowded out last week.) Crops in this community are looking fine since the last rain.

Sunday was Rev. Holland's appointment at Stanley. There were several good songs rendered by the class, and dinner on the ground. The afternoon was spent in singing and Sunday school. Everybody seemed to enjoy themselves fine.

Christine Lumeart spent Sunday with Miss Ethel Maclin.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Garner are the proud parents of a fine baby boy

Miss Beulah Garner was the guest of Miss Annie Henrey Sunday.

Albert Smith and W. L. Maclin made a trip to Pascola Saturday on business. They say the farmers will soon have their planting almost done

Doyle Gaines and Oscar Hartwell from Ingram Ridge were over in this neighborhood Saturday night.

Everybody is invited to attend singing at Stanley every Sunday afternoon. —SUNFLOWER.

CANDY RECIPE.

The following is the recipe for molasses candy: 2 cups Porto Rico molasses, 2/3 cup sugar, 3 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon vinegar. An iron kettle with a rounding bottom (Scotch kettle) or copper kettle is best for candy making. Put butter in kettle, place over fire, and when melted add the molasses and sugar. Stir until the sugar is dissolved. During the first of the boiling stirring is unnecessary, but when nearly cooked, it should be constantly stirred. Boil until, when tried in cold water mixture will become brittle. Add vinegar just before taking from the fire. Pour into well buttered tin. When cool enough to handle, pull until porous and light colored, allowing the candy to come in contact with the tips of the fingers and thumbs, not to be squeezed in the hand. Cut in small pieces, using large shears or a sharp knife, and then arrange on slightly buttered plates to cool.

ORIGIN OF THE ROBBERS PROTECTIVE TARIFF.

(From a speech by Representative Marvin Jones (Dem.) Tex.)

"In the early part of the eighth century a band of marauders under a leader by the name of Tarif crossed the straits of Africa and landed on the southern shores of Spain. His band was held together by the spoils of conquest. The horde consisted of and a few Arabs, all bent on plunder. They were Mohammedans, and were in a sense the vanguard of the followers of Islam in their westward swing, but cared less for their religion than their booty. Tarif plundered the country and established a little seaport town, Tarifa, which, with its old Moorish walls, to this day perpetuates the name and memory of the leader of this motley aggregation of robbers and conquerors. Tarif, later reinforced by his superior, Tarik, and his chief, Musa, overran a great deal of Spain. This baron lived in a chateau that was feudal in its magnificence, and in plundering fashion levied certain duties on all commerce that came through or approached the town of Tarifa. He made all the people who tolled pay tribute to him as a sort of robber ruler. The gleaming sword was his collecting agency and he would hold up ship or caravan in piratical fashion and make them pay tribute to sustain his conquest and luxury.

From that town Tarifa, which was named after the princely Tarif, the English word "tariff" is taken. The name arose in heathenism. It meant forced contribution of the many to the few. How fitting that a policy which finds its consummation in this bill should have had such an origin.

For centuries the Moors remained in charge of the Provinces of Cadiz and Andalusia, and the seaport town of Tarifa, and levied their toll upon commerce. Much was the wealth and many the trophies they sent to the Caliph. Their chiefs increased in wealth and insolent power. They lived in regal splendor, but they were riding to their fall. In 1292 the Christians, under Guademus, reclaimed these Provinces, and although the Moors tried repeatedly to recapture Tarifa and these rich Provinces and to regain their power to live from the fruits of other men's toil, they could not succeed. Two centuries later they were driven out of Spain.

The privileged classes in this country have grown rich behind the tariff wall. They have overrun the country and levied tribute from all to enrich the few. They have built their "castles in Spain" and their summer homes in Florida. Emboldened by their success, they are endeavoring to get behind the highest protective rates in all history. But, like the Moors of the centuries that are gone, they are riding to their fall. The great heart of America is just and the people will again assert their rights and reclaim their land, and democratic equality shall again flourish in this great free country.
