LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Hunters are numerous.
—It was a Democratic victory.
—Great aches from little toe-corns spring.
—An "Off year" for Republicans. Wasn't it?
—The first snow of the season fell the 16th and 17th.
—Columbus Baker arrived here on Tuesday's train.
—Johnson Shell's pension has been increased recently.
—John Hillemann was in Marble Hill the first of the week.
—The breweries of St. Louis are controlled by English gold.
—It is impossible to sow seeds of malice and reap friendship.
—W. K. Chandler will please accept our thanks for an item of news.
—The attendance at County and Probate Courts last week were small.
—W. P. McCans come up from Charleston Sunday, and returned Monday.
—For 5 cents you can get 4 Havana cigars at the New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo.
—Collector Seabaugh has moved into the Rogers property, lately occupied by D. Clippard.
—Wheeler and Alliance goods are going at Wheeler and Alliance prices at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—A black 'possum was killed in Mississippi county a short time ago, so say the Charleston Democrat.
—Fall is here, and so is the largest stock of men's Boots and Shoes for Fall wear, at W. S. King's.
—The "blind tiger" at Independence, Mo., was raided and demolished by about twenty ladies week before last.
—Albums in endless variety at the New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo., call and see them.
—Judge Hill left three ears of corn at this office last week which is hard to beat for "ridge corn."
—On the 11th inst. President Harrison issued a proclamation declaring Washington territory to be a State of the Union.
—Fine Perfumery, a large and elegant stock of all kinds, by the bottle or ounce at Dr. Jaques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.
—The "Daily Democrat" is the name of an evening paper which was recently started in Cape Girardeau. It is a 5-column folio. Success to it.
—For $1.75 cents you can get a handsome nickel alarm clock worth $2.50. Where?—Of course, the only place is Dr. Jaques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.
—A dispatch from New Orleans, La., under date of Nov. 17 states that Jefferson Davis, ex-President of the Southern Confederacy, was lying dangerously ill in that city.
—Ever and anon there transpires something new under the sun. The latest thing is the crushing bargains in Ladies Wrappers at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—O Gorge, she murmured I know you are strong and will protect me, yet even now as we recline in this swinging hammock, I am surrounded by fear. Fear my darling! said George. What fear can surround you? Atmosphere she chuckled, and the hammock broke down to punish her.—[Ex.]
—The chilly blasts of Winter will soon be howling round your door. It's a chilly fact to all competition that THE ONE PLACE in Bollinger county where you can buy the best Winter Boots and Shoes for the least money is at W. S. King's Lutesville.
—S. J. Morse says a few days ago he was up in Hardin county canvassing for the Singer sewing machine, and, calling at a little farm house, he asked the lady where her husband was. She said "He is up there," motioning over her shoulder. Mr. Morse said he looked up the chimney of a fire place and saw the husband plowing on the hill above the house.—[Goldsboro Herald Enterprise.]

—One week from to-day will be Thanksgiving.
—Andy Masters, who lives on the Scholl farm is sick.
—Only 27 more days until the U. S. Congress convenes.
—"Uncle" Stuffle Master has moved to the north part of the county.
—Mr. Buckner has bought James Clingsmith's Luffin property.
—Mrs. Jamison, who has been sick for several weeks, is improving in health.
—C. Lloyd has moved to the southern part of this county. He hails from Indiana.
—We are anxious to know where our Thanksgiving turkey is going to come from.
—J. T. Wells returned last week from a business trip through Southeast counties.
—Miss Rosa Stewart of Fredericktown was visiting Miss Cora Drum the first of last week.
—Geo. E. Conrad went to St. Louis Tuesday. He shipped a car load of hogs the same day.
—J. T. Wells has 150 sheep, which he is fattening and getting ready for the Christmas market.
Two of New Madrid county's citizens have swapped wives, one giving a cow "to boot," says the Potomac Eagle.
—Mrs. Eva DeShay, of Madison county, was visiting relatives in this county last week. Mrs. DeShay is 104 years old.
—W. M. Sheets, who come to this county, from Indiana, a few years ago, returned to the "Hoosier" State Friday.
—Mr. Schoble has left his country home and took up his abode in the dwelling recently vacated by Wm. Morgan.
—The funeral of Miss Mary Snider, deceased, was preached to a large congregation, at Hahn's Chapel, on the 3rd. inst.
—An elegant line of China goods such as Dolls, Vases, Cups and Saucers, Mugs and etc. at Dr. Jaques & Son's Lutesville, Mo.
—The citizens of Wabash county, Indiana, have lost $300,000 worth of hogs in the last six weeks. Cholera killed the hogs.
—Don't forget that Dr. Jaques & Son, Lutesville, Mo., have a most tempting array of Christmas, New Year and Birthday cards at half price.
—See the handsome walnut cased clocks, at Dr. Jaques & Son's. Prices very low, also a complete line of watches, cases, jewelry and spectacles which they are selling at unheard of low prices.
—A few days ago D. S. Pater of Liberty Township, this county, was arrested on a warrant for disturbing the peace of one Smith Oaks, of Stoddard county, and on Saturday last was tried by a jury before D. K. Westenhause, J. P., and acquitted.
—Hellow Yourself!—Look out for the grandest stock of Holiday goods you have ever seen, at Dr. Jaques & Son's New Brick Drug Store, Lutesville, Mo. Now we are the acknowledged headquarters for every thing in this line. New goods every day.
—A brutal husband in Cincinnati has been torturing his wife by compelling her to sleep with a human skeleton every night for a month. After the expiration of thirty nights the wife brought suit to obtain a divorce.
—Grand Guessing scheme free. You may be entitled to one or more of the elegant prizes offered by Dr. Jaques & Son, Lutesville, Mo., in their annual prize distribution call on them and get particulars, it costs you nothing to try it and all have the same chance for the handsome prizes.
—Mrs. J. T. Well, in company with Dr. Witmer, went to Jackson Friday. The former to have a surgical operation performed on a very sore eye, and the latter to consult with an eye-surgeon and assist in the performance. But after consulting it was found that the operation was not necessary; hence was not done.
—Miss Cora Robins died on the 8th instant. She was a daughter of A. Robins of the Flat Woods. Death was caused by consumption. To the friends and relatives of the deceased we extend our sympathy: "In each heart some rain must fall, Some days must be dark and dreary."

LOOKOUT—For cold weather! Also lookout for the unprecedented bargains in Ladies Cloaks at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—James R. Stepp's house and contents were destroyed by fire on the 8th inst. No insurance. Mr. Stepp is a citizen of Wayne Township.
—Marriage license was issued on the 6th inst. to Flurnoy Dairl and Miss Mary A. Berry. The Press wishes them a long and happy life.
—John A. Criddle and Miss Idora V. L. Fox were married at the residence of Dr. Talley on the 12th. The contracting parties are of Buchanan, Mo.
—Instead of papering your tins for cake baking, which is a great deal of work, grease them well and dredge them with flour, shaking out all that does not adhere.
—To be hoodwinked is very unpleasant to any lady; but to be well and nicely hoodwinked is a pleasure to all of them—hence, go to King's, Lutesville, ladies, for your hoods.
—The Keely Brewing Company, of Chicago, proposes to punish Iowa and Kansas for their prohibitory legislation by refusing to buy barley grown in either of those States.
—Rev. Love of Farmington preached a farewell sermon to his brethren of the Christian church of this place Thursday night of last week. Mr. Love will move to Kansas in a short time.
—The dusky Australian pugilist, Peter Jackson, and Jim Smith, champion prize fighter of England, fought in London last week. The "nigger" was victorious.
—A few short moons and our hill sides will be spotted with the folks tobogganing; But even right now Toboggans cannot be bought anywhere as cheap as they can at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—Numbers were fascinated by the St. Louis Fair and Exposition. And numbers there are who are fascinated by the fine Fascinators and their low prices at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—P. Baldwin and A. Pool of Illinois spent a few days of last week in the southern part of this county looking after land which they own. Mr. Baldwin has recently returned to the U. S. from a tour around the world, giving balloon performances in many countries.
—Jesse R. Talley and Miss Ida Zimmerman were united in wedlock, at the residence of the bride's parents, Nov. 17th. Mr. Talley is a son of Dr. W. C. Talley, and Miss Zimmerman (now Mrs. Talley) is a daughter of Bollinger county's present representative, Mr. J. M. Zimmerman. May the young couple's wedded life be a long and happy one.
—I wish to say to the public that I have closed out of the boarding-house business and will be found in the Family Groceries and Restaurant business in the old corner stand in front of the west door of the courthouse. I respectfully solicit a liberal patronage of all my friends. Call and see me.
SAMUEL J. LESSLEY.
—The grand jury of Howell county has indicted Hon. A. H. Livingston for murder in the second degree. The South-Missourian says that "he will have no trouble in proving himself innocent." It will be remembered by our readers that Mr. Livingston shot and killed a man in West Plains a few months ago; of which the Press informed its readers at the time.
—For presents of any kind or description Jaques & Son's is the place. We have everything in the fancy goods and holiday line. It is impossible to numerate articles but a visit to our New Brick Drug Store will convince you that we have what you want. See the little folks delight a handsome Christmas tree with Santa Claus near it in our show window. We also still offer big bargains in albums and ladies Pocket Books also a superb line of fine confectionery. See Holiday Circulars.
