LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—J. B. Tucker is still very sick.
—Quinn Collins has been granted a pension.
—Miss Emma Black of Bismarck is visiting here.
—A full stock of the finest laces has just been received at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—Quit paying high prices for Coal Oil, and go to W. S. King's, Lutesville, where you can purchase the best for only fifteen cents a gallon.
—All parties wanting new hats or trimming for old hats, will do well to call on Mrs. Biggs, Lutesville, as she is prepared to suit the taste of any lady.
—The candidates in Mississippi county are announcing at the rate of two to three a week. The crop is earlier there than here. That is a more southern latitude than this.
—A mistake occurred in our local columns last week in which it was stated that S. A. Campbell had been sentenced to six weeks imprisonment for bigamy. It should have read six months.
—In a litter of pigs dropped near Poplar Bluff a few days ago one of them had two heads, three eyes, two mouths and six legs. Charles Worshaw owns the sow that dropped this strange freak.
—The party who holds the courthouse warrants came down Monday. He wants the County Court to make some arrangements about paying off the warrants. It is not known at this writing what will be done.
—The Zalma branch of the C. G. & S. W. Ry was so badly damaged by the recent rains that the people who receive their mail at that place have been ten days without any, but they expect mail this week.
—A meteoric stone, weighing several hundred pounds, fell near Gainville, Texas, on the 18th ult. Its descent was accompanied by a roaring sound like distant thunder. Striking the earth it exploded with a report like a cannon.
—The best coffee ever sold in Bollinger county is McLaughlin's four ex (XXXX) Roast Coffee. There is only one place where you can buy this coffee, at twenty five cents per pound, and that is at W. King's, Lutesville. Try it and be convinced.
—The voters of Stoddard county will decide at the ensuing November election whether the county seat shall remain at Dexter. The latter place is on the railroad, but the former is seven miles from it—at Dexter.
—We insert the directory again this week. If there are any mistakes in it we will take it as a favor to be informed of the same. Some of the lodges have probably changed officers since our last information as shown in the directory elsewhere.
—Report says that the Farmington agent (August Thompson) of the Klansmann Brewery Company, after the crusaders had destroyed the beer, telegraphed the Company asking advice what to do. The Company answered by telling him to catch the prettiest of the ladies and kiss her.
—Lookout for your curs. A gentleman bought some ammunition at Bohnsack's last Thursday and said that he was going to shoot the dogs that barked about his premises at a night. That is right. A dog that will gallop and bark around the neighborhood of a night ought to be shot. Pepper ours if they trouble you.
—The tornado of the 27th ult, blew down several barns, much fencing and trees by the hundred in the northern part of Cape county. The dwelling of a colored man by the name of James was blown down and the old man received injuries which resulted in his death. An appeal has been made for aid.
—The darkeys of Cape Girardeau gave the whites of that place a good scare on Tuesday last week. Two school directors were to elect, but the whites were taking but little interest. The negroes, observing this, quietly set about to elect the two directors from their own ranks, and had a good round majority before the movement was, in any way, discovered by the white Republican brethren. The polls had not closed, however, and white voters were unceremoniously hustled to the voting places and saved the day, but it was a close call.

—"Uncle Stuffie" Masters has moved back to town.
—The gardens of our town were dotted with workers Monday.
—Fifty-five or sixty bushels of corn can be disposed of by calling at this office.
—Rev. A. T. Ray of the General Baptist Church has been preaching at the Christian Church for several nights.
—Rev. C. P. Brewer of Cape Girardeau preached in Lutesville Sunday at 11 o'clock, and at Hahn's Chapel at night.
—Elmer Bair has put a new fence around his property.
—There will be a one-third fruit crop in Butler county.
—Our vicinity has been treated to "March winds" in April recently.
—Ladies, go to King's for your white goods, if you want bargains.
—Mrs. J. T. Wells has been very sick for several days of la grippe.
—Several of our people attended Easter services at Vine-mont Sunday.
—Wm. Angel died at his home in German township on the 28th ultimo.
—There were 446 votes polled at the city election in Poplar Bluff last week.
—The work of putting in the posts for the court yard fence goes slowly on.
—School Supervision was defeated in Ripley county by a vote of eight to one.
—When no length of time is specified pay locals will remain in until ordered out.
—The Newsboy says that the real and chattel mortgages of Scott county amount to $234,505.
—Ladies, a beautiful line of embroideries is being sold cheap at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—Some of our strawberry raisers say that present prospects promise about an average crop.
—William Berry, jr., was elected overseer in the road district immediately north of Marble Hill.
—A local paper says that that there are already ten candidates for Assessor in Mississippi county.
—A woman looks lovely under a lovely Hat, and the place to purchase such is at W. S. King's, Lutesville.
—Hon. L. H. Davis has been delivering addresses to the F. & L. Unions in some of the counties south of this.
—The contract for building a railroad from Malden, through Scott county, to Memphis, will be let on the 25th.
—Mrs. Biggs, will have in a few days, the best selected and finest stock of Millinery ever brought to Lutesville.
—Philip Barks was elected roadoverseer in the road district east of town. J. B. Welch was his closest competitor.
—It is said that there are now 3,070,047 Baptists in the United States, being an increase of 72,453 in the last twelve months.
—Sowing the Seeds of Kindness.—That is what W. S. King is doing in offering such unprecedented bargains in Ladies' Hats.
—Carter county will vote at the next general election on the question of moving the county seat from Van Buren to Chilton which is on the railroad.
—The Catholic Church at Hamburg, Scott county, received three large bells last week. The largest weighs 3285 pounds. The next 1,435 and the smallest 815 pounds.
—Otto Osborn has gone to Dakota to trade his farm here for property there. If he consummates the transaction he will remain there and his family will move thence.
—The fact that paper collars are being imported to Lutesville has nothing to do with the McLaughlin's XXXX coffee at W. S. King's, Lutesville. Only 25c. per pound.
—J. V. Slinkard, J. W. Dixon, Dr. Cabbage, Esq. Wells and others came up from Bollinger Mills last Friday to attend the Masonic Lodge in Lutesville at night.
—This is no April Fool! There is no place in Bollinger County where Ladies can so completely satisfy themselves in the Hat line as at W. S. King's, Lutesville.

LUTESVILLE LOCALS.

Mr. Turner and son left Sunday for Delta.
Gordon Statter came home from Oak Ridge last week.
W. W. Sample has the foundation laid for his new dwelling.
Rev. Jones of Dexter was in our town Saturday on business.
Grandpa Hunt is very sick, with but little hopes of recovery.
Rev. Nobles and family moved into the Robertson property last week.
Mr. Kinder of Whitewater was visiting friends here last week.
Mrs. Enoch Cox was visiting at Whitewater the first of this week.
Miss Laura Caveness was visiting in Bessville the first of the week.
W. H. Price, our section foreman, has removed his headquarters to this place.
T. M. Jones has moved his butcher-shop in to the back part of Dr. Mayfield's drug-store.
John Gordon and family left last week for Champaign, Illinois, where they contemplate making their future home.
Rev. Ketterman of St. Louis arrived here Saturday. He will take charge of the circuit formerly occupied by Rev. Bortz.
J. W. Minner and E. W. Galetson of Sikeston came here Sunday and will work for W. A. Phelps, in the bed-spring business.
W. F. Cobb and wife, H. A. Clark and Miss Maradie Mayfield, and Erich Sander and Miss Minnie Ramsey went to Jackson Sunday.
Mr. Vanning arrived here last week and will take charge of the telegraph office for a short time. Mr. Dickey will take a rest and visit relatives.
L. O. Buckingham, who has been visiting his uncle, W. B. Burkett, for the past 6 months, returned to his home in Pottersville, Kentucky, Sunday.

Bollinger Mills.

The measles is raging in this part.
G. W. Meyers is teaching a good school.
We are having plenty of rain and high water.
Wm. Thurston died on the 14th of March, aged 37 years.
Born, to the wife of R. T. Baker, a boy, on March the 6th.
The wife of Wm. Looney died on the 29th of March, of measles.
Hauling rails out of drifts and building fence is the order of the day.
The farmers are behind with their work on account of wet weather.
Died, three miles southwest of this place, at his residence, W. H. West, aged 62 years.
A smokehouse of Joe Baker caught fire a few days ago and came very near burning up.
Thomas Henley of Marble Hill visited his son, Dr. B. W. Henley, several days last week.
We had a very hard storm on the 27th of March; it blew down the porch of Judge McMinn's house at this place.
J. T. Wells of Marble Hill was down in in this part last week and bought a car load of hogs from B. H. Bollinger and Charley King.
Dr. Green K. Talley, who has been attending college at Louisville, Ky., since last November, has graduated as an M. D. and returned to this place. The Dr. is well liked and is kept very busy riding.
