—A newspaper poet demands to know "where are the girls of the past?" Bringing up the girls of the future, don't you think?
—Chas. E. Stokes, editor of the Enterprise-Messenger, was re-elected Mayor of Dexter at the town election, Tuesday of last week.

—Robert Drum's store was broken into a few nights ago and several articles stolen. An entrance was effected by breaking out a glass in the back door.
—The State Board of Equalization reduced the assessment on horses and mules in this county ten per cent. The rest of the assessment stands as made.

—A bald-headed man who had heard that the hairs of a man's head are numbered wants to know if there is not some place where he can obtain the back numbers.
—Each and every number of this paper is properly mailed to each and every subscriber. If any one fails to get an issue, we desire it distinctly understood that it is through no fault of this office.

—Deputy Sheriff Randol of Cape county came over here last week and took Emerson Seabaugh and his brother over to Jackson. They are charged with the burglary of a harness-shop in Oak Ridge, we heard.
—The County Court will set as a Board of Appeals on the 28th, at which time all those who think their assessment has been raised too much can present their grievances to the Board. About one hundred tracts have been either raised or lowered.

—We stop this paper when the time paid for expires (unless satisfactory arrangements are made for its continuance) for the reason that we do not wish to force it upon any one, and this is our means of ascertaining whether its continuance is desirable.
—Sheriff Huskey and Constable Welch went to the western part of the county Saturday and brought in James Rauls, charged with obtaining a note under false pretenses. Rauls pleaded guilty, was fined $25 and sentenced to 20 days in the county holdover. He will work out the punishment.

—Dr. John Shirley, late graduate of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of St. Louis, has located at Brewerville. The Dr. was born and reared in our neighboring county of Bollinger. We wish him success, and believe that he has selected a good location. —[Perryville Sun.]

—A Society called the Ladies Aid Society was organized at the residence of F. M. Wells at this place on Friday evening, April 11th, 1890. The following are the names of parties elected for the ensuing year: Mrs. B. L. Bowman, President; Miss Mirada Mayfield, Vice-President; Mrs. John R. Welch, Secretary, and Mrs. F. M. Wells, Treasurer. Adjourned to meet at Mrs. Swift's residence in Lutesville on Friday evening, April 10th, 1890.

—Mr. Huskey, father of Sheriff Huskey, has moved to town and is farming with the widow Joseph Baker.

—The Southeast Missouri Medical Association will hold its next annual meeting at Charleston, Mo., May 6, 7 and 8.
—Mr. Jacob Lutes, Mr. Fred Eaker and Miss Susie Graves excelled in deportment during the month of March at the M. S. Academy.

—The County Court took no particular action on the payment of the courthouse warrants, but will likely do something at the May term.
—If you find a pencil cross on your paper you may know that your time is about out, and that, without instructions to the contrary, your paper will be discontinued when the time paid for shall have expired.

—Hon. L. H. Davis was in Marble Hill last week. In speaking of Oklahoma and the number of blacks going there, Mr. Davis remarked that he would like to see the negroes become numerous enough in the territory to elect all the officers from their own ranks and see (for experiment) whether or not they are capable of successfully governing themselves. There are many who join Mr. D. in desiring to see the experiment tried.

—At its February term the County Court appointed a purchasing agent for all blanks purchased at the county's expense. Some of our people ignore the order and give drummers orders for blanks the same as if there was nothing of record to the contrary. Of course the County Court will be expected to "foot the bill," at the county's expense, without inquiring whether or not the blanks could have been procured at less expense. All things come right in their season.

—From the report for this month of the State Board of Agriculture it is seen that there has been an increase in all classes of stock, excepting sheep, in the state as a whole. Sheep have decreased in all sections excepting in southeast Missouri, the total decrease for the state being 7 per cent, or 47,072 head. There has been an increase of horses of 5 per cent, or 46,077 head. Mules increased 4 per cent, or 8,852 head. Jack stock increased 91 per cent, or 4,069. Cattle 5 per cent, or 113,434. Hogs have increased 7 per cent, or 437,981. The above denotes the increase in the last year.

—Some four weeks ago Assessor Perkins handed us an abstract of his assessment and which we hereby give our readers.

—H. N. Phillips, Esq., of Malden passed up the road a few days ago. He distributed copies of Jeff Chandler's b-e-a-u-t-i-f-u-l DEMOCRATIC(?????) piece which Jeffie recited on the boards of the Pickwick theatre, St. Louis, to a few hired hearers, on April-Fool's Day.

—The children who "got out the Potosi E gull last week are inhabited by that degree of conception, only, which can conceive no frustration other than that emanating from a jug handle. To diminutive existence can only properly be ascribed diminutive action.

The following is a list of the salaries received by the chief rulers of the various nations: The United States, $50,000,000; a year; Persia, $30,000,000; Russia, $1,000,000; Siam, $10,000,000; Spain, $3,900,000; Italy, $3,000,000; Great Britain, $3,000,000; Egypt, $1,575,000; Portugal, Sweden, and Brazil, each $600,000; France, $200,000; Hayti, $240,000; Switzerland, $3,000; Saxon, $700,000.

Good mutton sheep in 1890 will be higher than they have been before in twenty years. The East is depending largely on the West for their mutton supply. Not a week but what a full train load of corn fatted sheep goes from Chicago to New York and Boston. Missouri can fatten sheep and send them to the Boston market cheaper than the New England farmer can possibly do it. And where mutton is both scarce and dear the beef and pork and poultry markets will exhibit sympathetic responses. —[Rural World.]

Resolutions of Regard.
Whereas, It has been our good fortune to have secured the services of Miss Ida Conrad, of Marble Hill, Mo., for the term of school just closed, and
Whereas, We feel that she has succeeded nobly; we offer the following resolutions:
Resolved, That she is an exemplary teacher, one that well understands her calling, and executes it with zeal and ardor.
Resolved, That she has done her duty in our midst, not only as a teacher of the common school branches, but has advanced her pupils both in literary work and social accomplishments.
Resolved, That we, as the directors of the Grubville School, do recommend her services as well worthy the attention of all with whom she may have business in her profession.
Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be given to Miss Ida Conrad, also a copy to be given, for publication to the "Grubville Journal" and to the two leading papers of the county; also to the Marble Hill Press.

Grubville, Jefferson Co., Mo., March 15, 1890.

OBITUARY.
JOHNSON—Carroll M. Johnson was born in Jackson county, Alabama, in 1822. Emigrated to Bollinger county in 1841, where became a prominent citizen and lived for nearly 50 years. He was married to Miss Susan Massey Nov. 19th, 1843. Died March 19th, 1890.
Brother Johnson was a man of vigorous constitution, and was a prominent factor in the community where he lived; a good citizen, honored by all who knew him; a tender husband and kind father. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn their loss,—but their loss is no doubt his eternal gain.
Bro. Johnson did what a great many are doing, neglected to give his heart to God while young. But as his sickness was of long continuance, God's loving, gentle hand was in it. He sought God and found pardon. I visited him the day before he died, baptised him and received him into the church. He was filled with the Holy Spirit and made to rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory. His death was triumphant.
I will say to the bereaved: Be faithful and you will meet the loved one in a brighter world. S. C. BIFFLE.
