

MARBLE HILL PRESS.

VOL. X.

MARBLE HILL, MO., THURSDAY, MAY 7, 1891.

NO. 52.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

—Wild honeysuckles are in bloom.
—Milliner goods at Mrs. Lutesville.
—Wm. Baker has moved on his farm near Lutesville.
—How few there are who practice what they preach.
—Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Fisher were in Marquand last week.
—F. M. Wells is having an addition built to his residence.
—Considerable job work was "put up" in this office last week.
—B. L. Bowman is building a house for J. H. Lutes of Lutesville.
—Everything in the millinery business is kept by Mrs. Biggs, Lutesville.
—Dr. Witmer is having a new fence put around his residence.
—Examine and try the bisseled chilled plow sold by J. B. Thompson, Lutesville.
—A number of citizens of this place attended church at Gravel Hill Sunday.
—When you get off the train at Lutesville always take the big hack—Baker's.
—Noah Burk, a former student of the M. S. Academy, has returned from Texas.
—Girls, if you want millinery goods, Mrs. Lutes, Lutesville, has just what you want.
—Go to A. & E. Miller's for your groceries. They sell as cheap as anybody. Lutesville.
—Everything that the poor man uses except sugar is high, and the tariff has been taken off of it.
—Mrs. Biggs has the finest stock of Ribbons and Flowers that was ever kept in Lutesville.
—Some ninety wagon loads of gravel have been used in repairing the roads in this district.
—Mrs. Biggs buyers and sells for cash, which enables her to sell cheaper than ever before. Lutesville.
—Remember that there will be preaching in the Christian church next Saturday night and Sunday.
—An interesting communication to strawberry growers is crowded out this week, but will appear next week. Watch for it.
—All novelty shaped Hats and bonnets of the latest style kept constantly on hand at Mrs. Biggs, Lutesville.
—The bill prohibiting the wearing of tight on the stage by female actors was defeated in the last hours of the Minnesota Legislature.
—In the absence of Mrs. Lutes, the Lutesville milliner, a competent lady will have charge of her store.
—Remember A. & E. Miller has a large stock of glass and queensware which they are selling cheap. Lutesville.
—The case of Ezra Cummins of Alaka, Tenn., is a novel one. He left his wife, and assigned for a reason that she was too good for him.
—Jesse H. Lutes of Lutesville will keep good, solid northern ice for sale during the hot weather. $1 a hundred [10-51 8m
—It is always necessary to remember that it is not the quantity of food that an animal consumes, but the quantity that it assimilates that counts.
—The latest styles of spring millinery goods can be got at the store of Mrs. Lutes, Lutesville, at reasonable prices.
—W. F. Kinder went to Jefferson City Sunday. He is a witness in the case of the State vs. ex Treasurer Ed. T. Noland, whose trial is set for this week.
—Mrs. Lutes of Lutesville has just returned from the city and now has, at her store, the largest stock of millinery goods ever brought to Lutesville.
—"Saddled and booted, eh?" Well, if you want a good saddle, a cheap saddle and a nice saddle you should not buy until you have examined J. H. Lutes' stock and prices.
—The farmer who judiciously pastures sheep over his land a number of seasons will have the finest and most productive lands known to agriculture. In this respect a further and more staple source of profit may be secured than from any other class of stock. Sheep requires frequent change of pasturage and a good range for them is always compensated for by an increase of vigor and growth.

—If you want the best of accommodations in the hack and buggy service, G. W. Baker will furnish you with same.
—Through the kindness of Louis Hartle the editor hereof and family were enabled to enjoy the first strawberries of the season Tuesday at supper. Thanks, Louis.
—Mrs. Biggs of Lutesville is prepared to give cheaper and better bargains this spring than ever before in millinery goods.
—J. M. Poe, the insurance agent of Lutesville, desires it understood that the report being circulated in some parts of the county that he intends to leave this county is false. 52 St
—When in Lutesville call and examine Mrs. Biggs' elegant stock of hats and Millinery goods, whether you buy or not.
—While the government keeps several hundred millions locked up in idleness the treasury is in no danger of bankruptcy. It would do no harm to let most of the money in the treasury out.
—If the bisseled plow does not work to your satisfaction just send notice to the dealer from whom you bought. Buy from J. B. Thompson of Lutesville.
—This paper and the "twice-a-week" Republic for $1.70 a year. Cash in advance. Money should be sent to this office only.
—The bright girl's composition on the cow stated she had four legs on the under side of her; that her tail and ears wiggled on hinges; that she was made smaller than an elephant, and that black cows gave white milk.
—If you wish your paper continued after the time paid for expires, pay up, send us a card, or send us word to continue it, and if we have found you faithful, it will continue.
—Letters from United States Senators and Congressmen from the Western States are pouring into the headquarters of the Commercial Congress in Denver, Colorado. The meeting on May 19 will be the largest gathering of Western men of wide reputation ever known.
—A generous soil awaits the tilling to return a fruitful abundance. The thrifty farmer will not fail to examine the bisseled chilled plow. For sale by J. B. Thompson, Lutesville.
—The ladies of Mine La Motte, says the Fredericktown Argus, are organizing a Law and Order Society. They propose to give prosecuting officers all the assistance in their power to secure the punishment of those who violate the moral and criminal laws of the State.
—The bisseled plow is warranted to run as light as any plow made; scour and perform its work in the best manner, and to be made of the best material. Sold by J. B. Thompson.
—Reports received at Denver, Colo., from the Southern Ute agency are to the effect that the Indians have lost nearly all their stock by the recent heavy snowstorms. The snow covered the ground a depth of four feet and horses and cattle by the thousand starved to death.
—When will the world come to an end? Don't know; but if you want to see an endless world of milliner goods you only have to go to the store of Mrs. Lutes, Lutesville, Mo.
—Doc Shirley brought four teen ripe strawberries to this office Tuesday. When asked what kind they were he said they were "Shirley's best." Doc never forgets the printer man. It hasn't been so very long since he brought us a snake. He's always looking after our appetite.
—J. B. Thompson of Lutesville takes this method of informing those who admire good stock that he has a full-blooded Berkshire male, and several full-blooded shoats to sell cheap.
—Wm. J. Haines who now lives in St. Louis was born Dec. 25, 1786, and it is said he was able to do a hard days work up to his 100th birthday. Capt. Jack Haines, as he is called, enlisted in 1814 in the "Tennessee Rifles" and was at the battle of New Orleans Jan. 8, 1815. He again enlisted as an engineer at the outbreak of the Mexican war and served to the close. In 1861 he enlisted in the navy as engineer of the U. S. Man-of-war Sampson, in which he served until the fall of Vicksburg. He is now 103 years old and a veteran of three American wars.

—Each and every number of this paper is properly mailed to each and every subscriber. If any one fails to get an issue, we desire it distinctly understood that it is through no fault of this office.
—There is talk of having the strawberries of this section shipped in refrigerator cars this year, but talk is as far as the movement has gone to date. It seems to us that this would be advantageous to growers, even should more be demanded for transportation. However, we suppose the growers know their business.
—Horses in our large towns are often saved from colic by being allowed to drink frequently at the public troughs and fountains. By doing this the horse becomes a good judge of the quantity he requires. If a horse comes home from a hard journey, perspiring freely, do not allow him to drink his fill of cold water. Let him stand in the stable until he has cooled somewhat and is made comfortable.
—There is a man in our town and he is wondrous wise, whenever he writes the printer man he dotteth all his i's. And when he's dotted all of them with great sang froid and ease, he punctuates each paragraph and crosses all his t's. Upon one side alone he writes, and never rolls his leaves, and from the man of ink a smile, and mark "insert" receives. And when a question he doth ask (taught wisely he hath been), he doth the goodly penny stamp, for postage back, put in.
—The time of a number of our subscribers will expire with next issue, Vol. X, No. 52, and if not otherwise notified all thus expiring will be dropped from our books. We are always willing to give men whom we have found to be fair and honest reasonable time, but we have no means of knowing whether a subscriber wants his paper continued or not unless we are notified, and we will not force it upon any one. A postal card costs only one cent. Our rule is inflexible.
—Beginning May 1 the special tax on leaf and manufactured tobacco and cigars ceased. This will prove a saving of $6 per annum to manufacturers and $2.50 to dealers, and the sum is so inappreciable that it is not likely to affect the price of plug and cigars in the tobacco shops. Manufacturers and dealers in tobacco, however, have to register their business with the Collector of Internal Revenue of the district in which they do business, and will be issued certificates which they will be required to conspicuously display in their place of business as they were required to exhibit their former receipts.
—There was a meeting in Marquand last Saturday of the heirs of a certain Bollinger who lived some 200 years ago in Switzerland and who, it is said, was honored and the possessor of an immense fortune. The object of this meeting was to devise means whereby this fortune could be brought into the possession of the heirs of its original owner. As our information goes, when the above mentioned Bollinger died his estate of seventeen million dollars went into the hands of the Swedish government and has been on interest for two hundred years. We understand that arrangements have been made to send an agent to Switzerland to investigate the Bollinger claim. Many of those interested live hereabouts.
—Southern Reynolds county can boast of the greatest freak of nature that it has ever been our good fortune to see. It is a calf with a most curiously developed double head, having four seemingly perfect eyes, (two of which are now out) one on either side of the head a little further back than common and two in front, occupying the same socket, protected by the same arch and closed by the same eye-lid. It is also the possessor of two months which from the eyes down are as complete as though they were made to supply two distinct bodies. Dr. J. H. Moore who has given considerable attention to it says that it can take nourishment through either month and that its eyes seem to be governed by the same nerves. The calf is now a week old and can be seen at any time by calling at Rev. Louis Allen's farm near Barnesville.—Current Local.

LUTESVILLE LOCALS.

W. W. Sample went to St. Louis the first of the week.
Mr. and Mrs. Miller of Doe Run are here on a visit to their sons.
Mrs. Eli Lutes left the first of the week on a business trip south.
Mrs. J. Q. Ramsey, who has been visiting in Jackson, returned home the first of the week.
J. M. Poe and son, who have been visiting relatives in Dehlstadt, returned home last week.
Mrs. Wolf, who has been quite sick for the past ten days, is, we are glad to say, recovering.
Jesse H. Lutes, Lutesville is selling better and cheaper horses than can be found elsewhere.
Mrs. Will Waldow and family of St. Louis arrived here last week. They will spend the summer here.
Farmers, go to Jesse H. Lutes, Lutesville, if you want real and not imaginary bargains in harness or saddles.
Miss Jennie Lutes, who has been visiting in Alto Pass, Ill., for the past two months, returned home last week.
Davie Steele, who has been on a visit to friends here for the past two weeks, has returned to his home in Central City, Ky.
The School Board met here last week and employed Mr. W. A. Leffler as principal and Miss Melvina Lutes as assistant teacher.
Died, on the 30th ult., at the age of 82 years, "Uncle" Miles Francis, at his residence 1-2 miles southwest of this place, of old age. "Uncle" Miles Francis was one of the old pioneer citizens and loved and respected by all who knew him. He leaves several loving children and a host of friends to mourn his death. He was buried in the Shell graveyard.

Bollinger Mills.

BY "JIM CROW".
The doctors report considerable sickness throughout the county.
Fine weather for farming at present and farmers are improving their time.
The prospects for good crops of wheat, oats, grass and fruit are very flattering.
W. N. James departed last Sunday for Brownwood where he has accepted a position on the section.
Business, so say our merchants, is somewhat dull at present, owing to the fine farming weather.
Quite a number of fish have been caught here—especially by Dr. G. R. Talley. Dr. is the champion fisherman.
Miss Harriet James, who has been living in Brownwood, was in Zalma last week the guest of her father, Mr. R. James, and family.
Dr. Cubbage's office is near completion and when done will be quite commodious and add much to the appearance of our village.
Our restaurant man, William Tuck, who lost his wife a few days ago, is himself lying very low with pneumonia. Dr. Buck is in attendance.
Chas. King and S. J. McMinn attended the commencement exercises at Gravelton school. They returned last Saturday and report a pleasant time.
Wm. Gudger, formerly miller for W. A. McMinn of this place, but at present of Fredricktown, is visiting here, guest of S. J. McMinn and others.
Pros. Attorney C. P. Caldwell was in Zalma on legal business. Mr. Caldwell is a very pleasant gentleman and is holding the position which he occupies right down.
Our genial teacher, Mr. Thos. Rigdon gave a spelling at the schoolhouse in this place last Thursday night, which was a grand success. The pupils acquitted themselves nobly, thus reflecting credit on themselves and their teacher.
The boys met last Saturday and played quite an interesting game of base ball. After the game was over they organized a regular team with J. B. McKee as captain. They say they will be ready for business in earnest in a few days and only wait an invitation to "do up" any nine that may want doing up. A committee, of which Thos. Rigdon is chairman, was appointed to prepare the grounds on which to play
