NO. 12.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

—Optical goods and perfumery at Erich O. Sander's store.

—Illinois now pays two cents apiece for killing English sparrows.

—For plain and fancy stationery go to Erich Sander's notion store.

—A second hand heating stove for sale. Inquire at this office.

—Renew promptly when your time is out. You can't afford to miss an issue.

—The people of Chili are, and have been for sometime, engaged in a civil war.

—Kentucky leaf tobacco for sale by the pound at the store of O. J. Snider & Co.

—Chris McCans, who has been at Piedmont for sometime, is spending a few days at home.

—"Man wants but little here below, but he usually keeps up a fearful kicking unless he gets it."

—There will be two thousand people at the A. O. U. W. picnic on the 29th.

—Don't fail to see the finely illuminated grounds (at the picnic) on the night of the 29th inst.

—It is bad enough, in all conscience, to swear at a horse, but it is a good deal worse to swear at a boy.

—Send us the cash or a card if you wish your paper continued after the time paid for expires.

—Come and see the largest parade you ever saw, at the A. O. U. W. picnic and reunion on the 29th.

—Prof. W. A. Loeffler was in Charleston Wednesday week attending the S. E. Mo. teacher's meeting.

—Don't forget the A. O. U. W. reunion and picnic on the 29th inst. between Lutesville and Marble Hill.

—Rev. W. E. Boggs of Bellevue Collegiate Institute will preach at the Presbyterian Church next Sunday night.

—Everybody will be at the picnic and reunion on the 29th with well-filled basket and enjoy the day with their friends.

—"The chap who tries to win a miss by appealing to her reason, is much less like to gain his bliss than he who ventures on a kiss, combined with gentle squeezes."

—No more applications for the allowance of war claims for horses will be admitted; the statute of limitation debaring them.

—You can get the Press and the "twice-a-week" Republic for $1.75 a year. Cash in advance. Subscription received at this office only.

—Large draughts of cold water, small draughts of whisky, and plenty of fat pork will do up even a robust stomach in hot weather.

—Erich Sander has the necessary tools for doing first-class repairing on watches. Call on him when your watch is in need of repairs.

—The man who swears about every third word that he speaks is wearing out his throat, to say nothing of his manhood, very uselessly.

—Sam Jones remarked a few days ago in a sermon that since his return from Texas he knows a good egg when it comes his way.

—Go to Dr. A. R. Jaques at Lutesville, for your school books; he has just received a new stock of the kind used in our public schools.

—Irae German (to stranger who stepped on his foot)—"Mine front, I know mine feet was meant to be walked on, but dot privilege belongs to me."—Ex.

—A light head is very apt to contain a very limber tongue. The most loquacious are usually not the most brainy people. A monkey can chatter for hours.

—An Evangelist by the name of Burnett closed a very successful meeting at Bonham Tex. About 200 conversions reported and 175 accessions to the various denominations.

—The F. and L. U. of Iron county demanded the repeal of the new Institute law at the next session of the legislature, and so instruct their Representative and Senator.—Sentinel.

—A tree near Firth, in Randolph county, was found to contain twelve ground hogs, ten skunks, two swarms of bees and a lot of fine honey. It takes a great soil to produce that kind of timber.—Ex.

—The celebrated Mayfield, Ky., James and James pants for sale at O. J. Snider & Co.

—Erich Sander has clocks, watches, scarf pins, and other jewelry, at reasonable prices.

—In fact, advertising is as necessary to the successful businessman as ink is to a printing-office.

—The procession will be two miles long on the 29th at the A. O. U. W. reunion and picnic.

—Brandy, lemon, seltzer sugar, ice and an egg mixed make a drink called "dimp-gilder."

—If you want this paper and the "twice-a-week" Republic, of St. Louis, send us $1.75.

—"We little dream of the conflict fought in each human soul; And earth knows not her heroes Upon God's honor roll."

—Thus far an aggregate of $2,005,000 has been appropriated by twenty-nine states for representation at the World's Fair.

—Memphis is reported to be flooded with counterfeit money. The spurious coin bears the date of 1889 and the stars are dull-pointed.

—The advertisement of the Missouri School of Mines, Rolla, appears elsewhere in today's Press. It is a good school. Read the ad.

—There are three artesian wells in DeSoto and the fourth is being bored. An artesian well in Marble Hill or Lutesville, or both, would be very convenient, indeed.

—If you wish your paper continued after the time paid for expires, pay up, send us a card, or send us word to continue it, and if we have found you faithful, it will continue.

—Eighty citizens (not the very best, of course) of Poplar Bluff were arrested recently for "crap shooting," and about $1,000 in fines were added to Butler county's school funds.

—The Cape is progressing, as it now has six printing offices, and seven papers, with a probability of the eighth. Perhaps there is room for all, and we hope there is.—Cultivator.

—People of all classes that need help are looking about for intelligent, industrious, well-behaved, gentlemanly boys. A boy of that kind is laying a good foundation for success in life.

—Many a careless father and mother, as they sit beside the little grave, would give worlds, did they possess them, had they been gentler toward the boy or girl who sleeps beneath the mound.

—A lunar rainbow was seen in the northwestern heavens last Thursday night at about 8:15 o'clock by some of our citizens. The moon being just above the horizon caused it to form in a semi circle.

—A Texas man whose crop had suffered from the ravages of chinch bugs, sent to Prof. Snow of the Kansas University for some diseased bugs. He put a lot of Texas bugs into a box with the sick ones and then scattered them in his field. The result is said to be magical. In a few days the ground was covered with dead bugs.

—Thursday of last week Daniel Cato, who lives on Castor River, went to church near his home, leaving his family apparently well. While he was away a heavy thunder and rain storm came up, which lasted for sometime. On reaching home after the storm Mr. Cato was horrified to find the body of his dead wife lying on the floor of their home with his two small children still in the arms of his lifeless wife. Although the cause of her death is unknown, it is thought she was either frightened to death or was struck by lightning. The children were not injured at all.

—A Boston and Maine passenger conductor says that in a quarter of a century he has traveled 1,039,160 miles. This statement has brought out several other records. Conductor Joseph H. Messimer, of the Reading, has covered 186 miles daily since 1868, and for two years he made 211 miles daily. This credits him with 1,597,730 miles. Conductor S. G. Boone, who recently left the Reading service, lays claim to 2,847,000 miles. Tip layton, a sleeping car superintendent at Indianapolis, has kept a record of his journeying up and down the face of the earth since 1868. It foots up 2,388,246 miles.

—Picnic next Saturday.

—Advertise in this paper—the Press.

—Iron county is said to be in need of school teachers.

—The Southeast Normal school, Cape Girardeau, will commence next Tuesday.

—We will publish the report of the Missouri school Book Commission in our next issue.

—Judge Frymire and his daughter, Miss Flora, returned from Enfield, Illinois, Tuesday.

—A score or so of citizens of Marble Hill and Lutesville attended the picnic at Delta last Thursday.

—The trial of Mrs. Gray, who was charged with poisoning her husband, resulted in a verdict of "not guilty," in the Madison county circuit court.

—Our friends, (nor enemies, either, if we have any) need not think that because we have ceased to publish the names of new subscribers that they have quit coming this way. Far from it.

—The annual camping meeting of the M. E. Church (South) is in progress now at the old Ebenezer camp ground. It is reported that twelve preachers are present and much interest is being manifested.

—F. M. Wells, Treasurer of the association at this place, reports $54 contributed to the ex-Confederat Home located at Higginville, Mo., which has been sent to the treasurer of the association in the 14th Congressional district.

—Rev. Wm. P. Shirley writes us that he has been engaged in a protracted meeting at the Gregory schoolhouse, resulting in thirteen additions to the General Baptist Church, nine of whom were baptized last Sunday by Mr. Shirley.

—Mrs. McCans and her sister, Mrs. McClelland of New York City, called at the Press office last Thursday to see our large Adam's printing press at work.

—Mrs. McClelland left Tuesday for Fredericktown, where she will spend a few days with relatives and then go to her eastern home.

—Some valuable gold and silver deposits have been discovered near Bloomdale, Ste. Genevieve county. The Farmington News says that a company has bought the ground on which it was found, paying therefor $56,500—$11,000 down and the remainder in twelve months.

—Of the entire human race, 500,000,000 are well clothed, that is, they wear garments of some kind; 250,000,000 habitually go naked, and 700,000,000 only cover parts of the body; 500,000,000 live in houses, 700,000,000 in huts and caves, and 250,000,000 virtually have no shelter.—Scientific American.

—The sensible and enterprising farm boy (says the Western Rural) will not copy the habits of his ancestors without knowing the why and the wherefore. That is the reason why so many bright boys leave the farm. It is not satisfactory to hear an old stupidity defended on the ground that "that is the way I was taught."

—James Killian has been arrested, charged with stealing the horses of Messrs. Shell and Revelle, as reported last week. He has not yet had his preliminary examination. He "gave away" information which will lead to the arrest of two citizens of the southern part of the county, who, he says, are deeper in the "horse business" than he is.

—The Cape Girardeau Daily and weekly Era are now printed under a tent. Since its last burn-out (the third time) property owners of the Cape have refused to let the office be placed in their buildings, whereupon the Cash-Book remarks that the cow that gives the milk of human kindness seems to have gone dry down at the Cape. It looks that way to us.

—Circuit Clerk Smith has issued the following marriage license since we last published them: Moses Penturf to Mary C. Winters; A. T. Ray to Polly A. Pickett; G. W. Sylcox to Peggy E. Adams; J. R. Sizet to Cora M. Whitener; H. D. Formway to Nellie Hartle; L. N. Limbaugh to Dora Burns; John W. Null to Bertha C. Borders; Henry C. Myrick to Maggie Cutts; Moses Pittman to Rosella C.
