-If you have ten dollars to spend," said Barnum, "spend one for the article and the other nine in advertising it." The old man knew a thing or two when it came to advertising. The man who can stick type and talk next morning to thousands of people while I'm talking to one is the only man I'm afraid of. I want him for my friend." -Luke Sharp, in city exchange.

James P. West, who was aiming to move to Texas this spring, has concluded to stay in Missouri. Jim says he cant bear the idea of leaving his Democratic neighbors.

Some Harrison imp has been shooting off his radicalism through that LITTLE Republican Banner. He writes from Fillmore Township. The Democracy of Fillmore can take care of itself. We Democrats out here know how to vote the ticket, and, by the grace of God, we always vote it STRAIGHT.

Quite a sensation occurred in this locality a short time ago over the location of a church-house, the river being the division point, and causing the riot. In order that the reader may have an idea of this vicinity we think it necessary to give a short description of "Old Liberty," the present church that is maintained by a congregation worth $50,000. It is built out of hewed logs, is 30 ft. long, 20 ft. wide and 10 ft. high. It is covered with clayboards, and was built about the time Thos. H. Benton was sent to the U. S. Senate. One side of the house has been recovered, and in case of a rain occurring in time of church the member all rush for the "dry side," while torrents of rain pour through the other side. The old stove was bought in the time of Buchanan's administration. In this old house the members will congregate once every month and sing:

"Rock of Ages cleft for me,
Let me hide myself in thee."

Well, a short time ago the people thought they would build another house if they could agree upon a location. So a meeting was called for the purpose of settling the matter by a vote-one half wanting it on one side of the river and one half on the other. Brother Contrary lives on the west side of the river and Brother So-and-so on the east side. So the meeting was called. Brother Contrary was there in pugilistic array. Brother So-and-so was also there, and did not propose to yield to the west side. So the Brethren commenced disputing and the meeting broke up in riot and confusion, without voting. Just as they were leaving there was a voice heard from the firmament (supposed to be that of St. Peter) exclaiming: "Cussed are they that build such mansions unto the Lord."

Well, Mr. Editor, I hope to live till November, so I can vote the Democratic ticket, and when life is over I will receive the greeting, "Well done thou good and faithful servant, enter into the joys of thy Master."
TEXAS JACK.
