LOCAL AND GENERAL

—Old Hats trimmed over at Mrs. Hall's.

—Attend the Democratic speaking at the courthouse tomorrow.

—Overshirts of all colors and sizes at N. E. Hall's.

—Mrs. Rhoda Jamison returned home from a visit to her old home in Indiana, Tuesday.

—Children's sailor hats for 20 cts. at Mrs. Hall's.

—We are told that Castor bottom farmers have lost heavily from the recent high water.

—For first class cigars, go to the barber shop, Lutesville.

—P. D. Sandy has returned to Marble Hill, and will make this place his permanent home.

—Save your dollars by trading with us—King & Revelle.

—Miss May Graham, one of the M. S. A. students, left for her home in Madison county Friday.

—Bring your bacon, wool and lard to Drum's and get the best price.

—Drum sells ladies' good button shoe for only one dollar per pair.

—Crooked Creek has been doing some good and effective electioneering in favor of building bridges.

—Gents' Boys' and Children's summer hats at Drum's by the wholesale.

—The Bollinger County Bank buys county warrants and good notes.

—The mines of the world produce twenty five tons of gold every week, but the precious metal remains as rare as ever.

—If you are going to buy any kind of harvesting machinery, Bohnsack wants to see you.

—Mason Kinder and George Lessley went to Jackson Monday to see a match game of base ball between the Cape and Jackson clubs. Score, Cape 14, Jackson 17.

—Ladies, at Drum's is the place to get a nice shoe and good hose for little money.

—Miss Rosa Fischer has just returned from St. Louis with a nice lot of millinery goods, which she will sell cheap. Call and see them.

—Ladies, Drum's is the place to buy a nice low slipper or Oxford tie, from one dollar up.

—We received a news communication from Scopus last week, but too late for the issue for which it was intended. We hope the writer will not make this his last letter.

—Crooked Creek got on a "high" last week, and as usual, cut us off from the rest of the world for about thirty-five hours. A sudden rise Saturday caught some of our farmers in town. How long are our people going to put up with such inconveniences, anyhow?

—KING & REVELLE.—There is something of interest for all in our magnificent stock of spring and summer goods, consisting of Dry goods, Groceries, Clothing, Shoes, Hats, Furnishing Goods, Notions, etc., in which every particular item was carefully judged as to its relative worth before being purchased—and good judgment in buying and fair prices in selling enables us to be of profitable service to our friends, whose trade, both in cash and produce, we earnestly solicit.
Respectfully,
KING & REVELLE.

—Five pounds of good Rio coffee for one dollar at Drums'.

—Taylor Pierce was thrown while trying to get astride his mule Tuesday, on the court house square, but, fortunately, was only slightly bruised. He traded the animal the same evening.

—Drum's is the place to get a nice chally, lawn or calico dress for only 5 cts. per yard.

—Take your wool to Drum's. He pays the highest prices, and everybody knows that he sells goods the cheapest.

—The investigation recently made of the inhabitants of what are known as the Colorado cliff dwellers have led scientific men to believe that they were occupied by a race of people fully ten thousand years ago.

—A. Bohnsack is agent for all kinds of grain and grass-cutting machinery manufactured by the Milwaukee Harvesting Company.

—While crossing Crooked Creek Monday on that old death-trap crossing two young ladies fell into the water and would likely have drowned had it not been for a factory hand who saw them fall and hurried to the rescue. Shall we build bridges?

—You can purchase from Dr. Jaques, Lutesville, sufficient wall paper to paper a room 15 ft. square and 9 ft. high, as low as $1.50. This includes the border under the ceiling.

—Mulberry wood, an exchange asserts, is the most durable material of which to make fence posts. It tells of a farm fenced with this material ninety-five years ago, the posts being still in good condition. They now support their sixteenth set of rails.

—This paper will not be held in any way responsible for the expressions and utterances of correspondents.

—Ladies, please call and see the beautiful embroidery and flouncing for dresses, at King & Revelle's, Lutesville, Mo. 2t

—The Marble Hill base ball club will go over to Jackson Saturday and engage in a match game with the champion nine of that town. The boys have improved wonderfully since they crossed bats with the Jackson club at this place, and are able to hold the Jackson club a closer game.

Large hats at Mrs. Hall's—5, 10, 15 and 25 cts. Strawberry pickers should call early.

—My! my! What a pile of Drygoods that man Drum has in his big store! I don't see what he does with them! But they say he sells them, because he sells cheaper than anybody else in the county.

—I have one berkshire brood sow, five pigs and six 6-months-old shoats for sale at a bargain. Geo. E. STATLER, Lutesville.

—Doc Shirley fully realizes that the turnpike road to people's hearts lies through their mouth, and he kindly favored us Monday by sending us a box of the largest and most delicious strawberries that we have eaten this season. Misses Lilly and Flora, Jamison and Prof. W. A. Leomler were in the office at the time they were received, and after the printer had asked that the blessings of God might rest upon Mr. Shirley and his, even until the tenth generation, the party proceeded to feast, not forgetting, however, to praise the absent Doctor for his kindness.

—Prof. Graham left Wednesday for Grand Pass, this State, to join his family.

—The Milwaukee Harvesting Co. is in the field with some greatly improved machinery this year. A. Bohnsack is their agent at this place.

—A. C. Stearns of Indiana has been here for several days visiting relatives.

—Oh, my! did you ever see such a large stock of nice dress goods as Drum has got to select from? He has goods to suit everyone. You can get a nice calico dress for only 5 cents per yard.

—Robert Barks killed a rattle snake Monday which measured four and one-half feet in length, and had twelve rattles and a button. Mr. Barks says that he was at least sixty yards from the reptile when his attention was first attracted by its rattling. This is probably the largest snake of the kind ever killed in this "neck o' the woods."

—Ladies, if you want to buy a nice dress, go to King & Revelle's, where you will find a well-selected stock of black satines, black linens, black cashmeres, white goods—in fact, anything and everything for a nice dress. 2t

MONEY SAVED.—Common sense teaches that to buy judiciously means money saved, and in this connection points directly to the store of King & Revelle, where every dollar counts for 100 cents' worth of benefit to you in merit, quality, style and value, and the result of each transaction with them will be as good as gold. 2t

Joseph Chandler died at his home near Gravel Hill on the 17th inst. He had been complaining for two or three days, but no one thought he was seriously ill until he died suddenly about noon on the date above named. We did not learn the cause of his death. He was one of the oldest citizens of the county, and leaves many friends and a number of relatives to mourn their loss.

To the Methodist of Bollinger County.

Please remember that our district conference will be held in Lutesville, commencing Wednesday, May 25. We expect to have about 50 preachers and a large number of delegates with us from ten counties, and besides a number of prominent ministers from our connection.

A large tent, capable of seating 900 people, will be there, and we will have our meetings in it. Now, I want the Methodist of Bollinger County to come out and attend our session and hear good sermons, the discussions and see the business of the church transacted. Bring your whole family, and let them see Southeast Missouri Methodism. Come and stay all day, and come every day.

We also cordially invite our brethren and sisters of other churches to be with us, and our outside friends will receive a warm greeting.

While the Conference proper will not convene before Wednesday, on Monday and Tuesday before, we have our Preachers' Institute, at which time there will be some able discussions by eminent ministers, and all are invited to attend the Institute, too.

Let no one miss the Conference. It will do you good to attend.

JAMES T. KENDALL,
Presiding Elder.
