TRUSTEE'S SALE.
Whereas, George W. Woodfin and Marth M. A. Woodfin, his wife, by their certain deed of trust dated the twenty-seventh day of February, 1891, and recorded in the recorder's office of Bollinger County, Missouri, the 13th day of March, 1891, in book 21, at page 402, conveyed to Charles A. Sander, trustee, the following described real estate, lying and being in the county of Bollinger and State of Missouri, to secure the payment of the debt in the said deed of trust described, to-wit:

That is to say, all his right, title and interest as heir and devisee in the lands belonging to the estate of his uncle, James G. Woodfin, deceased, and particularly described as follows, viz: The southwest quarter of the southeast quarter, and a part of the southeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section twenty, and the west half of the northeast quarter, and a part of the northeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-nine, township twenty-nine, north of range ten east, containing one hundred and eighty-nine & 60-100 acres.—And for a more perfect description see deed from George Row and wife to James G. Woodfin, dated March 8th, 1860, and recorded at pages 323 and 330, book "C" of deed records, Bollinger County, Missouri.—Also the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of said section twenty-nine, township and range aforesaid. Also the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-six and the south half of the northeast quarter and the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter of section twenty-seven, in township twenty-nine, north of range ten east, containing one hundred and sixty acres.

Whereas, it is provided in said deed of trust that in case of failure or refusal of said parties of the first part to pay said debt or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, when the same shall become due and payable according to the true tenor, date and effect of said note, then the whole shall become due and payable, and

Whereas, said debt has become due and payable according to the true tenor, date and effect of said note and remaining unpaid, now

Therefore, I, the undersigned trustee, at the request of the legal holder of said note and by the power in me vested, will, on

Saturday, June 18, 1892, between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of that day, at the courthouse door in the town of Marble Hill, proceed to sell the above described real estate to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy said deed of trust, together with the cost and expense of executing this deed of trust. 12-1

CHARLES A. SANDEL, Trustee

LOCAL AND GENERAL
—Dr. Witmer was in St. Louis this week.
—Old Hats trimmed over at Mrs. Hall's.
—Overshirts of all colors and sizes at N. E. Hall's.
—Jacob J. Conrad returned from a business trip to Texas yesterday.
—Children's sailor hats for 20 cts. at Mrs. Hall's.
—For first-class cigars, go to the barber shop, Lutesville.
—The voting booths were received here last week.
—A good baking powder at Drum's for only ten cts. lb.
—Benj. Masters is assisting Circuit Clerk Smith.
—Bring your bacon, wool and lard to Drum's and get the best price.
—The Bollinger County Bank buys county warrants and good notes.
—John Hatcher is visiting his mother and sister of this place.
—Gents', Boys' and Children's summer hats at Drum's by the wholesale.
—Slightly overripe strawberries sold at $1 a crate, on our streets, Tuesday.
—Five pounds of good Rio coffee for one dollar at Drum's.
—Boys, young men and old men, Drum's is the place to get your summer hats.
—The Justice courts of the county are keeping Prosecuting Attorney Caldwell busy these days.
—Large hats at Mrs. Hall's—5, 10, 15 and 25 cts. Strawberry pickers should call early.
—Rev. W. H. Roberts will preach in the Presbyterian Church on the subject of sanctification next Sunday.
—If you want to buy cheap goods Drum has them, but he has better also, and can suit everyone.
—The base ball game Saturday, on the grounds here, between the Luffin and Marble Hill clubs, resulted in the defeat of the Luffin boys.
—Gentlemen, Drum's is the place to buy your summer coats and vests. He has just received a large supply.
—The fact that Mrs. Hall sold fifty hats in one day is proof that she is still in the lead with large sales and cheap goods.
—Henry Elfrank has sold his teams, hacks, good will, etc., to F. G. Clippard and A. P. Ehrlicher, who will conduct the business from now on. Their advertisement appears in to-day's Press.
—Black lawns, white lawns, figured lawns, white dress goods, black and fancy colored satins, all at Drum's at prices to suit everyone.
—The National Republican Convention meets at Menasha next Tuesday. At present it is impossible to form an idea, with any degree of accuracy, as to who will be the nominee should Harrison's enemies get the better of him, which seems extremely probable.
—The Milwaukee Harvesting Co. is in the field with some greatly improved machinery this year. A. Bohnsack is their agent at this place.
—Those lovely millinery goods which Miss Rosa Fischer is disposing of at such low prices are the talk of the town—the sensation of the season. Go and see them.
—The conference of the M. E. Church, South, finished its business and adjourned Monday morning. There was a large attendance of Ministers and lay delegates. The tent, which, it is said, will seat 900 people, was filled to overflowing at almost every service, and great interest was manifested. A protracted meeting still continues at the tent.
—Ladies, we cordially invite you to examine our large stock of summer millinery. Prices surprisingly low for this month. Come along with the many who are daily profiting by this great sale. We positively mean to save you money. S. V. JAQUES.

—F. M. Wells, W. A. Dunn, John F. Sander and J. T. Wells went to Framingham Tuesday to attend the Judicial Convention of this circuit, which met at that place yesterday. Madison, Ste. Genevieve, St. Francois and Bollinger—all the counties in the circuit except Perry—elected delegates favorable to Hon. James D. Fox, who, it is safe to say, was nominated unanimously.

—You can purchase from Dr. Jaques, Lutesville, sufficient wall paper to paper a room 15 ft. square and 9 ft. high, as low as $1.50. This includes the border under the ceiling.

—Ex-Judge Ezekiah Estes, who was reported as having received a stroke of paralysis some weeks ago, is, we are informed by Dr. C. M. Witmer, the attending physician, rapidly recovering, his ailment having been a severe case of rheumatism. We are glad to learn of the Judge's recovery, and hope that he may soon rise from his bed, and live to spend many happy days yet. He is still in the race for Treasurer.

—Oh, my! did you ever see such a large stock of nice dress goods as Drum has got to select from? He has goods to suit everyone. You can get a nice calico dress for only 5 cents per yard.

—A. Bohnsack is agent for all kinds of grain and grass cutting machinery manufactured by the Milwaukee Harvesting Company.

—The ice cream supper given by the ladies of the Christian Church, was well attended the church realizing about $21. The following was handed us with a request to publish it: "The Ladies Aid Society of the Christian Church take this method of offering their grateful thanks to the public who so generously patronized their festival, and to the ladies of the town who so kindly presented them with cakes, milk, &c. The old church will now be handsomely repainted."

—Mrs. Jaques, Lutesville, will give away a nice present with every $2.50 hat bought of her before July 4. New goods arriving constantly. call and be convinced of the good bargains she has for you.

—To-day we announce J. M. Shukard for re-election to the office of Constable of Lorraine Township, subject to the action of the Democratic voters at the primary election.

Mr. Shukard is now serving his first term as Constable, and so far as we know his work has been highly satisfactory. It is useless for us to undertake to say anything that would better introduce him to the people of the township, as he is personally acquainted with almost every voter in it. Examine his record as an officer and cast your vote accordingly.

—My! my! What a pile of Drygoods that man Drum has in his big store! I don't see what he does with them! But they say he sells them, because he sells cheaper than anybody else in the county.

—Ladies and Gentlemen, you can get shoes at Drum's for less money than at any other place in Bollinger Co.—Why? Because he carries the largest and best selected stock in the county, he pays cash for all his goods, which enables him to undersell anybody else.

—Memorial Day dawned gloomy and with rain falling, but soon the clouds were dispelled. Old Sol made his appearance and by 9 o'clock the indications were all favorable for a lovely day. The procession formed at 10:30 o'clock on Broadway, with the S. of V. in uniform and armed in front, followed by the local Grand Army Post. These were joined by the two Sunday Schools of the town. On the way to the cemetery the procession was joined by many citizens. Arriving at the burial ground near the Baptist Church ranks were broken and the graves were decorated, after which the post re-formed and the impressive ceremonies of the G. A. R. were given over the grave of a comrade, the Marble Hill choir ably assisting. This ended the program for the morning. At 1:30 p. m. the Grand Army and choir proceeded to the Lutesville Cemetery, where memorial services were again held.

The service on Sunday at the Presbyterian Church was well attended and the sermon delivered by Rev. E. Ritterman able and impressive, both on the occasion.
