IS NOW HIS BRIDE.

A QUIET AND PLEASANT MORNING WEDDING.
 Rev. Charles H. Bruce and Miss Elizabeth Graves Wedded.
 Once more Cupid with his unerring arrow has pierced two hearts, and, threading them on the silver cord of love, has twined them with tender hands and radiant eyes about the matrimonial altar. And in so doing he has robbed Marble Hill of one of its brightest stars to adorn a Kansas City home.
 Miss Elizabeth Graves was married to Rev. Charles H. Bruce, pastor of the Fifth Presbyterian church of Kansas City, at her father's residence, Forest Home, near Marble Hill at 10 o'clock yesterday. Rev. B. L. Bowman, pastor of the First Baptist church of Marble Hill conducted the ceremony.
 The wedding was a quiet one only a few relatives and intimate friends being present. The parlor and dining room were tastefully decorated with roses and other beautiful flowers. Wesley Hunter and Miss Graves were the attendants. After the ceremony a delicate dinner was served. Mrs. Bruce wore a pretty traveling costume.
 Accompanied by Wesley Hunter they left on the noon train for St. Louis, from whence they will go to the lakes to spend a few days, and then to the World's Fair. They will go to their home in Kansas City. Those present were, Mrs. H. C. Ramsey, Kansas City; Mrs. William Graves, Wesley Hunter and Dave Graves of St. Louis; Rev. B. L. Bowman and wife, F. M. Wells and wife, J. W. Revelle and wife, Mason Kinder and William Drum.

He has Resigned.
 C. H. Lane showed the editor a letter to the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General yesterday, under date of June 14 in which he says: "Having served four years as postmaster at Marble Hill, I hereby tender my resignation of said office." Mr. Lane has made an excellent postmaster, and no person has a word to say against him, but he shows the true man, and the true principle in declining office under an administration whose policy and principles do not meet his views.

Dancing School.
 Master Joseph Weisner will open a dancing school in Mayer's hall, Marble Hill next Tuesday evening. Two lessons per week. Good Music. All persons invited to visit the school.

THEIR NEW TEACHERS.

Lutesville School Has Instructors For Next Year.
 The work of Prof. W. A. Leoffler and Miss Della Caldwell in the Lutesville school last session has been nobly indorsed by the board of education. They have been unanimously re-elected as teachers for the coming session. There were several applications for the principalship, but with true regard for Prof. Leoffler's masterly work, they were disregarded and he was employed.
 Miss Caldwell did not make application for the primary department, but in the face of several applications from able young ladies, she was solicited and urged by the board to accept the place and she did so. This fact, and the fact that her salary was raised $10 per month is a glowing tribute to her marked success as a primary teacher.

They were Wedded.
 Lee Brantley, living six miles from Puxico, in Wayne county, and Miss Jennie Stratman were married at the residence of A. Mayer in Marble Hill at noon on Tuesday of last week. Rev. Beatty performed the ceremony. Miss Stratman is a sister to Mrs. Mayer. But a few relatives were present.
