Bill Nye at Lafin.

In the issue of the Press, before the last there appeared an article from Farmer Jones. I am not acquainted with Farmer Jones, but he explained the situation in a nut shell. The little dude who attempted to reply in the Banner as a Republican boy certainly knows that he is beneath the consideration of any decent Democrat or Populist. He has been asked to explain why he is a Republican but was unable to do so. We are personally acquainted with his father's people and know them to be O.K. It would have been better had the little Chatterbox never been born than that he disgraced his family as he has. His only consolation is when he pulls himself together and goes down on the Cotton Belt.

We do not know Farmer Jones but we do know that he can prove every assertion he has made, by good and reputable people. Now, Kid when you want to assail any Populist or Democrats please state truths and not falsehoods as you did in your last and when you get enough brains in your cranium to tell what a Republican is come around and do so. We know that there is nothing in you, but wind and your cranium is certainly very empty. So goodbye, Slush. BILL NYE.

They Were Acquitted.

The case against Arthur McCans charged with taking apples from Mrs. Baker's orchard, was tried before Justice Bowman, last Monday by a jury and the defendant was acquitted. The cases against the other four young men were dismissed.

Run Over by a Wagon.

A four year old daughter of David Wilfong, was run over by a heavy loaded wagon at her home 4 miles from Scopus last Thursday, and fatally injured dying in a half hour. With her mother she had returned from Esau McCormack's home riding on a load of sacked oats on a wagon driven by Kyle Cole. As the wagon was driven into the barn yard the little girl slipped from the sacks, and fell under the wheel.

New Postoffice.

A new postoffice has just been established six miles north of Marble Hill. It is called Hurricane. It will be supplied from Marble Hill. J. M. Shrum received his commission as postmaster of the new postoffice on June 27, and the office is now open for business, receiving mail on Wednesday and Saturday.

A Statement.

Messrs Philip Reilly and Avery Watts of Glen Allen wish to state that the news article in this paper in regard to Mrs. Baker's apple orchard several days ago and for which they were arrested on a warrants worn out by J. R. Thompson was incorrect. They state that they were coming from Glen Allen and stopped near the orchard to fix their cart which had been injured. Hearing voices in the orchard they entered for the purpose of buying apples. They were met by Thompson and informed that it was to late to sell apples and were asked their name and gave them and proceeded to church the tent.

Crop Bulletin.

The week ending last Saturday was very unfavorable to agricultural interest. There was no rain, until toward the close of the week, the sunshine was very great and temperature high. In the northern counties the heat was a few degrees above normal, in the southern a few degrees below. There is considerable report of a scarcity of water. In many counties ground was too hard to plow. In most of the northern counties corn will be almost a total loss, and much of it is being cut by the stalk, for feed. With good rains about two-thirds of a crop is assured. In the west central counties corn is a good crop. In the southern counties corn is reported with good prospects of a full crop if sufficient rain falls. In many of these counties indications are that the crop will be the best for several years. On the 28th and 29th day of July good rains fell in many of the counties.

Poultry Paper Free.

To every reader of the Press who will pay his subscription one year in advance by August 15, 1894, or to every new subscriber paid one year by that date, we will send the American Poultryman free for six months. This is a good paper for the farmers, and a chance to get it free. Remember by August 15, 94.

The tax books of Marble Hill are now ready, and in the city collector's hands. You can pay your taxes at any time.

Sunday School Convention.

The Twenty-ninth annual Sunday school convention of Missouri will meet at Chillicothe commencing next Wednesday and lasting three days. An interesting program has been prepared and good attendance is assured. The railroads have given a 1-3 fare rate.

Something Must Pop.

B. Rosenblum means business in his Big Clearing Sale at the Leader. Those goods must be sold. The prices say so. See his big ad and profit thereby. If you need anything don't want for it any longer. You don't need to. The crowds are growing daily. Be in the push and keep pushing. That's what The Leader is doing on prices.

Please Pay Promptly.

We have made several calls on our subscribers to pay up arrears, and have been well rewarded. We know that times are hard but you can pay the small amount of $1 without inconvenience. We need money because times are hard and we must pay our bills. If you are behind please settle.

A Good Institute.

Tomorrow closes the second week of the teachers institute of this county, with Conductor Myers and Instructor Leoffer in charge. The enrollment is now 66. The pupils are doing hard work, and the standard will be high.

Mr. and Mrs. Remm Snider of Litchfield, Ills., are here visiting H. W. Boss, the latter's father.
