Reunion of Bowman Family. The Bowman family reunion at the home of Rev. and Mrs. B. L. Bowman did not take place until Sunday—two days later than the appointed time—on account of the washouts and delay of trains; nor would they have reached here then had they not gone to Jackson where they employed livery rigs in which they came across the country.

Counting the families of his sons and daughters there are 48, and of that number 43 were present. Of their own children who are living, only one was absent, Maple who is in Louisiana.

To say that the old folks enjoyed the reunion would be putting the matter lightly. They have reared their sons and daughters, who have all left them sometime ago to take the responsibilities of life; and are now living alone, active and well preserved for their age.

Rev. B. L. Bowman is 68 and Mrs. Bowman is 65, and they have spent nearly 49 years of wedded life. Most of them returned to their homes Monday. Wm. and Wilbur Bowman and families to Sikeston.
