Security For Your Live Stock
of every kind, and for your fields of growing crops, is what you want, and what you have a right to expect, when you buy fence. A fence that will break through or break down is not worth paying for. You want weight in the fence you buy, weight enough to turn the heaviest Percheron or stop a "dread" wagon. Now, it is a fact—and you should know it—that, per running rod, you obtain the most weight in wire that is given in any fence, in the celebrated
AMERICAN FENCE
It is made on purpose to be the heaviest, most durable and lasting of any fence at any price. It is made and sold in larger quantities than any other fence in the world, and by its merits.
The makers of AMERICAN FENCE own and operate their own mines and furnaces, their own wire mills and six immense fence factories. Their product is the acknowledged
STANDARD OF THE WORLD
We can show you this fence in our stock and explain its merits and superiority, not only in the field, but in the field. Come and see to see get our prices.

Central Business College Items
Secalia, Mo.
Central Business College has enrolled 19 new pupils the past week, a remarkable enrollment for this time of year. Many pupils have been placed in first-class positions.

Miss Estella Detweiler has accepted a position with the Webb-Fryer Mercantile company as stenographer.

C. L. Williams has a position as telegraph operator and station agent on the Union Pacific at Dorraney, Kansas, at $90 per month.

Charles Edison is receiving $85 per month now with W. B. Knight, assistant freight traffic manager Missouri Pacific railroad, Kansas City.

C. L. Rogers is telegraph operator at O'wego, Kansas, at a salary of $85 per month.

Miss D. L. Miller has accepted a position as stenographer with the St. Louis Paper Home.

F. E. Dempster has been placed in a graphic position, San Francisco, California.

Several of our pupils have been placed in good positions but for want of space we omit their names and addresses here.

The Central Business College has ball teams has played eight games with some of the best college teams in the state and one game with the league team, winning 6 out of the 8 games. The games played are as follows: State University freshmen team, 8 to 2; favor of C. B. C. The game by the University of North Carolina, 10 to 0; favor of C. B. C. The double header being played at Columbus. The return game with the Columbia Normal Academy, 11 to 4; favor of C. B. C. Kenner Military Academy, 15 to 1; in favor of C. B. C. West of the Military Academy, 16 to 5; favor of C. B. C. Warrensburg, 10 to 0; in the four game C. B. C. 4 to 0; favor of C. B. C. 7 to 5. The Missouri Valley League team defeated C. B. C. 11 to 6. This is a good strategic victory, considering the fact that Central Business College has played its best teams, playing only with the best teams in the state.

We understand that Agnes Young has made very little improvement.

N. J. Wiercaver is making preparations to erect a new residence on his farm near his home.

The success of the Kansas City Post is remarkable. No new daily in the west ever got to the front so fast. Its telegraphic service and market reports, along with its comic section and magazine features are up to the best given in any of the old dailies. It now seems to be a settled fact that the democracy of the Missouri valley is sure of a newspaper that will stand for its principles and support its nominees. The Post is only $2.50 a year. Democrats in this section will show their good faith by sending to their names along with the cash 6 Mr. B. J. Sheridan, the Editor and Manager of what is beyond doubt the strongest and best democratic daily between St. Louis and Denver.
