The Mozart Music Club met with Miss Maude Bair Nov. 15. All the members, with two exceptions, were present and the parts assigned were well rendered, awakening much interest and a further desire to study Mozart, the great teacher and composer.

Each member answered roll call with a musical term and definition, after which the club was entertained with interesting papers on Mozart—as teacher, composer and pianist—which were very interesting.

Miss Ethel Sligo then entertained the club with pretty musical sayings she had prepared and which were very laughable.

Miss Sarah Dickey favored the club with a well-rendered recitation, on which she was highly complimented.

Miss Audrey Jamison followed with a vocal solo of unusual sweetness. She is recognized as one of our most talented vocalists.

Miss Bair had artistically decorated the club parlor with beautiful ferns and the cler colors, which seemed to add everyone in rendering their part of the program.

After all business of the club had been transacted a fruit menu was served by Miss Maude Bair, Helen Davault and Marie Wills.

The club adjourned to meet with Miss Kate Butler Dec. 7.
