

Announcements

We are authorized to announce W. A. Loeffler of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Collector of the Revenue of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce Arnold W. Zimmerman of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Collector of the Revenue of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce L. T. Kinder of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Collector of the Revenue of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce D. C. Clifford of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Collector of the Revenue of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce Dr. C. E. Fyessell of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Collector of the Revenue of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce W. F. Wells of Union township a candidate for the democratic nomination for County Clerk of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce Oscar W. Yount of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for County Clerk of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce J. W. Chandler of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk and Recorder of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce W. A. Dunn of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk and Recorder of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce A. R. Pierce of German township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk and Recorder of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce James M. Treeters of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Circuit Clerk and Recorder of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce J. H. Check of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Judge of the Probate Court of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce William C. Cole of German township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Judge of the Probate Court of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

We are authorized to announce W. C. Morgan of Lorraine township a candidate for the democratic nomination for Prosecuting Attorney of Bollinger county, subject to the primary election, August 4.

Hon. M. R. SMITH, minister to Haiti, came home a short time ago on leave of absence, and has since resigned his post. The country there has been in a revolution and is bankrupt which makes the post Mr. Smith occupied a very unpleasant one. It is reported by Washington correspondents that Mr. Smith will be appointed minister to Persia.

Our Correspondents.

Zalma

Weather is fine now and farmers are busy planting corn.

Obay Garrison of Lutesville was in Zalma a few days ago on business. Mr. Garrison sold his farm near Zalma to J. D. Cato.

There was a large crowd on our streets Saturday. The attraction seemed to be Comeouter preachers that the writer did not know.

The ex-sheriff of Wayne county, who purchased the old Bennett farm near Zalma, is having him a well drilled.

Charley Bollinger, son of B. H. Bollinger, and Miss Lottie James, daughter of Henry James, the barber here, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony last Thursday evening, May 7, Rev. T. J. Gaither officiating. The writer wishes them a long and happy life, that they may be prosperous and their happiness extend for all time to come. JAKE

Castor

Health is reasonably good. Corn planting is the order of the Wait for Me!

I am coming to Lutesville soon with a big, new, up-to-date line of General Merchandise.

A. D. WARONKER

day. Farmers in this vicinity are very busy getting in their crops.

Rev. Bailey filled his regular appointment at Miller chapel Saturday and Sunday—dinner on the ground. A large congregation was present, and there was dinner for everybody.

Uncle Noah Bollinger, who has been sick for quite a while, improves very slowly.

Harry Whitener says he has the three champion boys on Castor.

Miss Beale Haynes looked lonesome Sunday. Wonder why!

W. A. Frewington of Saco visited N. B. Haynes's Sunday night and transacted business at Marble Hill Monday.

Rev. Kennard will preach at Miller chapel next Sunday.

Eutha Bollinger and father drove to Marble Hill, too, for treatment for her father by Dr. C. M. Witmer, who has been treating him for quite a while.

Our r f d mail carrier is always on time and it makes us smile when we see him approaching.

Come on, "Black Eyes" with your items. Let's have mail for our r f d man. TOMMY

Lodge

Our farmers are busy planting corn.

Elder T. J. Gaither filled his regular appointment at New Trace Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Ethel Barker visited Miss Myrtle Minter Saturday.

Elder J. W. Bailey's baby is quite sick.

Charles Lawrence visited Will Mouser Sunday.

Miss Josie Bailey visited Mrs. Adeline Underwood Sunday.

Denver Hawn visited Willie Charles Sunday evening.

Will Goodson called on his best girl Sunday afternoon.

Messrs. Joe Denmer, Melburn Shell, Chas Lawrence, Claude Vance and Misses Floe, Minnie and Ivy Stilts and Mary Mouser visited Josie, Ethel and Will Mouser Sunday.

Joda Goodson and family, Henry Miller and family visited Franklin Miller's Sunday.

Henry Hawn and family visited Robert Moyers Sunday.

John F. Willis of Grassy attended prayer meeting at Old Trace Sunday night.

Walter Sitze and family visited at Lee Sitze's Sunday.

Walter Sitze and son made a business trip to Glen Allen Saturday.

Harris Murry made a business trip to Glen Allen Saturday.

Well, as news is scarce and time too, I will close. T. C.

Greenwood

Health is very good here.

Farmers are all busy planting corn. We are having some windy weather.

Nathan Crites came to Mr. Virgin's Sunday and his grandmother, Mrs. Davis, accompanied him home. Grandma Davis had been visiting Grandma Virgin the last week. It is quite interesting to hear these old people talk. Mrs. Davis is 82 and Mrs. Virgin 81 years old.

Rev. R. L. Baker filled his appointment at Lone Grove Saturday night and Sunday.

Rev. T. J. Gaither filled his appointment at Trace creek Saturday night and Sunday.

Rev. S. G. Virgin filled his appointment at Union Hill Saturday night and Sunday.

There will be services at R. L. Baker's Sunday night. All are invited.

Miss Maude Reitmon and Lillie Palmer and Verna Cooper attended church at Union Hill Saturday night and Sunday.

Miss Nora Gaither visited Miss Ethel Virgin Wednesday night and attended the singing at John Speer's and had some good music.

Thomas Baker attended the singing at Schlaitz Saturday.

Rev. S. G. Virgin, who has been in poor health some time, is slowly improving.

Sunday school at James's Sunday was well attended.

Charley Bollinger of Zalma and Miss Lottie James were united in marriage at Rev. T. J. Gaither's Thursday evening. The writer wishes them a long, happy and prosperous journey.

Miss Ethel Virgin is talking about leaving us for the summer. We are sorry to see her go. PAF'S GAL

Grassy

Health is about as common.

Chasing wolves is the order of the day. John R. Ren was the lucky fellow to find a den of young wolves the other day. I believe there were four of the young animals found in a tree top. He took them home and has them yet. Several have called to see them.

Mrs. Chas. Scaggs is reported better again.

Mrs. Ned Scott is suffering from neuralgia.

David Shell was at Cooper & Haynes's Thursday, taking a few pictures for the people.

Miss Mit Kinder, Jr., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hughes, this week.

Miss Lunda and Oma Sitze were callers at Mrs. J. E. Haynes's Friday afternoon.

Monroe Cooper and little son Claude, made a trip to Glen Allen Friday.

James E. Haynes is painting his dwelling.

Adolphus Haynes was shopping at Cooper & Haynes's the first of the week.

Monroe Cooper and family were welcome visitors at Rev. F. A. Morris's Tuesday of last week.

Rev. J. A. Headrick preached an interesting sermon at old Friendship church last Sunday to a large congregation.

We are sorry to know of the death of our friend and brother, Samuel Barr, who departed this life May 9, tho this is a debt we all have to pay sooner or later. Weep not dear companion for the loved one that has gone for he is waiting at the savior's portals for the coming of his loved ones. The bereaved family has our sincere sympathy. A FRIEND.

Mayfield

Health is very good.

Farmers are busy planting corn.

Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Seabaugh visited at J. F. Mayfield's last Sunday.

John Bollinger and Gertie and Mae Mayfield attended church at Bollinger's last Sunday.

B. C. Douglas and family, E. R. Mayfield and family visited R. A. Mayfield last Sunday.

We are having as fine a Sunday school here as we have had for some time. Over 100 scholars are enrolled.

Miss Maggie Davenport has been re-elected to teach our school the coming year.

Rev. P. M. Robins will preach here on Sunday night May 17.

Our merchant is crowded during the wool season.

J. W. Cook and E. R. Mayfield purchased them a new corn planter each this spring.

E. E. Greene and wife had business at Lutesville a few days ago.

Miss Maude Barks and Estella Mayfield visited at T. A. Fulton's last Sunday.

T. A. Fulton is teaching a singing school at Cole's chapel. The people at that place made a good selection when they got him, for Mr. Fulton knows what he's doing when he picks up a song book.

Jake Long made a trip to Daisy last Monday for our merchant, W. D. Mayfield.

Henry Mayfield and son had business at Marble Hill last Friday.

Johnnie and Robert Bollinger still hitch at the same old place of Sunday evenings.

The people of this vicinity began to think for a while that they would have to lay down the shovel and the hoe and start on down to Mexico.

MAYFIELDIKE

Patton

Farmers in this part of the country are going to be late getting their crops planted, on account of the abundance of rain, but it is fine on the oats.

Zenus Yount had a fine horse killed by lightning Monday night.

Miss Lydia Bollinger of near Fredericktown visited Mrs. Sarah Bollinger here last Saturday and Sunday.

John Shirley is working for John Hittman this spring.

Our women folks in this vicinity are having fine luck getting young chickens, but they die with gaps almost as fast as they are hatched. Only a few are successful in raising the broods.

William Shell is on the puny list at this writing.

Miss Cordelia Murray of this place returned home last Wednesday from visiting relatives in Perry county. She reports that she had a nice time and that all are well.

John Doggett's daughter of Zalma is visiting relatives near Patton.

Mrs. Joshua Starkey was in town Wednesday of last week, shopping.

Zenus Yount and wife were here Wednesday transacting business with our merchants.

H. W. Bennett's new house is still being improved and he will have a splendid house when it is completed.

Mrs. Fletcher Smith was here doing some shopping Wednesday.

The candidates are beginning to come up. I guess the wet weather will bring them up thick, so we can have some thinning to do.

Columbus Seabaugh and wife were in town Wednesday, boosting.

A. J. Smith was at R. Myers's Wednesday night.

Ed Dennis went to Perryville last Thursday on business.

A. J. Smith went to Glen Allen Thursday.

R. A. Smith's little boy fell out of bed one night last week and broke his collar bone.

Mr. Corgan, our road boss, has commenced grading the Perryville road last Saturday. It will be all O. K. when he gets thru with it.

Henry Knowles and Joseph Shirley bought them a new hack last Thursday and are going into the washing machine business to a finish.

Some of our road bosses are talking of cutting down the shade trees the farmers left standing along the public roads. I think that is or ought to be a violation of the law and the trees ought to be let alone, for they are a source of comfort for the traveler in the hot weather.

Dr. H. O'Kelley went north in his motor car the other day, but I don't know where. He has been going out that way for several days.

Marion Hahn is building a new barn.

R. Woodridge is working for Z. A. O'Kelley now.

This is a fine day and the farmers are all busy but me and I guess I had better stop this and start something else. B.A.D.

Glen Allen News

We had a fine rain Monday and crops look fine.

M. B. Minter and Mrs. M. J. Wallace of Lodge were in town Monday.

Adam Baker came home Saturday and visited his family until Monday.

Mrs. Sarah Kechn of St. Louis is visiting her sister, Mrs. Robt Berryman, near town.

O. W. Yount has resigned his position with J. A. Berry and will devote his time from now on to politics. John Chronister took Mr. Yount's place. John is a good salesman—congenial and well met.

Peter Miller and father transacted business in town Monday.

Lee Story of St. Louis is visiting

CHARLES KING, PRES B. H. BOLLINGER, VICE-PRES
DANIEL FISH, CASHIER HIRAM D. SLINKARD, ASSISTANT CASHIER

BANK OF ZALMA.

ZALMA, MISSOURI.

Capital - - - $17,000.00
Surplus - - - $5,450.00

DIRECTORS -

B. H. Bollinger, Chas. King, D. F. Myers, Leo Slinkard and C. H. Pope.

Funds secured by Burglar insurance and National Safe & Lock Co. Screw Door Safe with Sargent & Greenleaf double time lock. Interest paid on Time Deposits. Your Business Solicited.

C. M. WITMER, Pres't F. M. WELLS, Cashier

CHAS. O. HOBBS and S. E. CHANDLER, Assistant Cashiers
ROBERT DRUM, SR., and J. J. CHANDLER, Vice-Presidents

Bollinger County Bank

Lutesville, - - - Missouri.

CAPITAL $36,500.00 SURPLUS $20,000.00

DIRECTORS

F. M. Wells, C. M. Witmer, J. J. Chandler, Sam J. McMin, Robert Drum, Sr. interest paid on time deposits. Your Business Solicited.

Z. A. O'Kelley, President H. W. Bennett, Vice President
W. F. Wells, Cashier Johnson Smith, Assistant Cashier

Bank of Patton
Patton, Missouri

DIRECTORS

Z. A. O'Kelley H. W. Bennett, C. H. Kuhlman, F. M. Wells, W. F. Hahn

We pay 4 per cent interest on Time Deposits

To Our Friends and Customers

When in need of hardware give us a call. We can save you money on:

P. & O. Check Rowers and Corn Drills, all kinds of Garden Tools, Farm Machinery, Wire Fencing, Sash and Doors, Paints and Oils Etc. Make your home new by using Mound City Paints. They are guaranteed. We have a full line of Screen Doors and Wire. We have just received a car load of Lime and Cement.

See our line of Graniteware—every piece guaranteed. We have the New Perfection Oil Stove—the latest and best thing in the Stove line.

The Lang Farm Wagon can't be beat for the money. Our line of Buggies are selling like hot cakes. The prices we make on them are selling them. Before you buy a Cream Separator see the De-Laval—the world's standard—sold and demonstrated by

Estes Brothers, Marble Hill, Mo

Both Phones. Advance No. 21

friends in Glen Allen and looking after business matters.

Pomp McGregor, a hustling farmer of the Flatwoods, was in town Monday.

Tuesday Messrs. M. F. Winters, Arthur Winters, C. E. Rhodes, H. E. Richards, R. Smith, Jul Rhodes, Henry Ossig and Mrs. Robt Rhodes had their hogs vaccinated with cholera serum, with several other farmers to vaccinate next week. Every one should join in this movement. Vaccinate, disinfect the premises and bury or burn all dead animals, and the plague would soon be stopped. Hogs are money—don't take the risk of waiting until your herd is infected.

A. J. Miller and mother of Lodge were transacting business in town Wednesday.

A. T. Whitener of Castor was in town Tuesday. The r f d route from here has closed his postoffice.

Joel Goodson of Lodge was transacting business in town Tuesday.

Dr. Davault reports a fine girl born to Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Newell.

Sam Barr is dangerously ill, but hopes are entertained for his speedy recovery.

Mrs. Jessie Agger's friends gave her a pleasant surprise birthday party Tuesday night.

Mrs. Robert Rhodes's friends gave her a pleasant birthday party Wednesday night and reported a good time at both places.

Lonzo Lawrence has taken Bollinger county north of the railroad and will represent Rawleigh Medicine company in that territory.

M. B. Minter, merchant, and W.

L. Wallace of Lodge transacted business in town Thursday.

Robt Shetley and Frank Burk, good farmers of Castor were in town Friday.

Rev. Elijah Smith preached a good sermon Sunday morning at the Methodist church here. Mr. Smith was born and reared here and was back visiting his kinsman, J. O. Stevens and family. Mr. Smith is now in the Texas conference.

Rev. Linus Eaker of Lutesville passed thru town Wednesday with a nice Jersey cow that he secured from J. H. Zimmerman.

Ernest Stevens made a business trip to Cape Girardeau Friday.

Chas. Gibbs of Gipsy spent Saturday and Sunday with home folks.

Merchant R. Smith and wife visited friends in the Flatwoods Sunday.

Chas. O. Hobbs and son, Master Charles, of Lutesville made a pleasure trip to our town Sunday.

T. R. Barker of Benton, Ky., is visiting his sister, Mrs. M. J. Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Schwering gave a reception Saturday night in honor of their son William's birthday, with good music, games, plenty to eat and lots of fun. Everybody had a most enjoyable time.

Ebery Zimmerman

Notary Public and Conveyancer
Insurance Bonds and Real Estate
Office in Bank of Glen Allen

Money to Loan at
THE BANK OF GLEN ALLEN
the accommodating Bank
On the corner, on the square