

What They Will Wear for Easter

There is such a diversity of styles offered in the realm of millinery that no one will be unable to find a hat to suit her face and her type. For once the individual may set forth in quest of Easter headwear with the expectation of finding a real expression in millinery of her own ideas of fitness and beauty.

It is to be hoped that the colorless personality will conceal that fact with a hat that will lead her tone. For this is not a season of meager ideas. Hats are shapely, they are intricately made, they are gay in themselves, bright with flowers and small fruit, ribbons, and all sorts of odd and ingenious trimmings. They seem all to be designed for women with ideas. They are full of feminine allure, and made for people who wear clothes instead of merely carrying them about.

Here are three, in a group which embraces the simpler designs in good examples. There is the turban at the center, the pretty and picturesque shepherdess shape at the left, and the flaring-brimmed sailor at the right. These are types to be found in every collection of new millinery, and they are rather more plain and less trimmed than the mode demands.

The small turban, of soft hemp braid, has a plain crown set in of crepe Georgette. A crepe-covered cord extends about the coronet, and a wreath of bright cherries set in their leaves hangs enticingly over the braid. The body of the hat is a linen color.

The shepherdess shape shows the same combination of braid brim and crepe crown. A band of velvet ribbon extends about the crown, with hanging streamers tied in a long loop and ends at the back. At the front is a rather tight cluster of small fruit and a large pink rose and foliage. The sailor at the right is a pressed shape faced smoothly with silk. A ribbon band about the crown, a smart rosette of plaited ribbon with a long, stiff quill thrust through it, trim it most appropriately.

Needles and Thread.

An experienced needle woman suggests a list (which gives the various numbers of needles and cotton) to follow when sewing by hand. She advises a No. 9 needle for 70 and 80 cotton, when hemming and tacking; a No. 8 needle for 50 and 60 cotton for plain sewing, overhauling and overcasting; a No. 7 needle for 40 and 60 thread gathering. When gathering or working buttonholes rub the thread over with a piece of beeswax. This will keep it from knotting and also help it to resist strain.

Dark Serge and Plaid.

A combination of dark blue serge and wool plaid makes a good scheme for a new gown or a made-over one. The underskirt and waist are of the plaid, with sleeves, shoulder straps, tunic, and wide corselet belt of serge, adorned with tiny black velvet buttons.

Cosmetic Used by African Women.
Women of the Portuguese province of Mozambique, in Africa, make a white cosmetic by grinding a certain kind of wood in water. They assert it removes wrinkles and prevents eruptive blemishes.

Easily Made Bloomers and Night Robes

As a substitute for the underpetticoat, to be worn for additional warmth or for freedom in walking, bloomers of crepe de chine, or other wash silks prove acceptable to women. They are sensible and they are also dainty and attractive looking, a combination that spells success for them.

What are called "bike skirts," for walking, made of fairly heavy suitings, are made up with a plain pair of pants of the same material as the skirt, to be worn with them instead of a petticoat. These skirts usually are open down the front and provided with buttons and buttonholes which fasten them. When mountain climbing is to be undertaken, or a long tramp, this combination proves its merit.

But for warm weather, the pants of suiting material are too heavy. Bloomers of silk, worn with the short full skirts that are fashionable, promise to displace long underpetticoats with all skirts made of suitings.

Combinations of bloomers or short pants and corset cover, made of crepe de chine, and lace trimmed, are worn in the same way as the bloomers and separate corset covers—that is, they replace the underpetticoat when the outside skirt is a not too thin fabric. A pair of these bloomers is shown in the picture. The fullness at the waist and knees is taken up on an elastic band run through a narrow hem. There is no trimming on them except a little rosette of narrow satin ribbon sewed at the outside seam of each leg.

A pretty design for a nightgown of either batiste or wash silk is shown at the right of the picture. Its new feature is the sleeve of elbow length terminating in a double ruffle of lace, gathered into a band of wide beading. There is a group of fine tucks at the front, and the round neck is decorated with rows of dainty insertion and beading into which narrow satin ribbon is run.

The body and sleeves appear to be cut in one but are in reality set together with a strip of lace insertion. And a second strip is let in the body of the gown, following the curves made by joining the sleeves to the gown. It is a simple and pretty model. Those who sew at home will find these bits of new lingerie easy to make.

To Set Stencil Colors.

If you will press a hot flatiron over a pattern that has been stenciled, you will find that it will make the color fast so that it cannot be washed out when the fabric is laundered. If you have mixed too much oil with the paints and smeared the fabric, place a blotter over the smear and press with a hot flatiron. The oil will have been absorbed when the blotter is lifted so that it is not noticeable.

"CASCARETS" FOR SLUGGISH BOWELS

No sick headache, sour stomach, biliousness or constipation by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now. Turn the rascals out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out to-night and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken. Adv.

The Reason.

"Why did you critics roast that piece?"
"Because it was so raw."

DRINK LOTS OF WATER TO FLUSH THE KIDNEYS

"Did you take particular cognizance in that saloon?"
"No, sir; I took a drink!"

DRINK LOTS OF WATER TO FLUSH THE KIDNEYS
Eat Less Meat and Take Salts for Backache or Bladder Trouble—Neutralize Acids.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

FARMERS WHO SUCCEEDED IN WESTERN CANADA

Those Who Exercise Thrift, Practice Due Economy, and Adopt Reasonable Methods Are Sure to Prosper.

Those who are interested in developing the agricultural resources of Western Canada in bringing to the notice of those whom they desire to take part in this development present only the facts. There has never been given the impression that farming in Western Canada could be carried on without effort or labor, but it has been successfully stated that better results can be secured with less outlay of capital, either in money or labor, than anywhere else on the continent. This has been proven time and time again. Hundreds of cases could be cited where men have taken up farms, either a homestead, or purchased from railways or land companies, and with little capital at the start have acquired a competence, have established good homes for themselves, and provided a sure future. They have comfortable homes and all their surroundings are comfortable, speak of the reward that their thrift has accomplished.

Carl Dickan, of Russian Poland lived in Pittsburgh, Pa., for fourteen years, and saved up $900. In 1903 he took the $900 with him to Alberta. His own story is that he bought a quarter section, for which he agreed to pay $1,200. "In 1904 I had thirty acres of crop, threshed 900 bushels. In 1909 I bought another quarter. I now have one hundred acres under cultivation, and have never had a crop failure. Have threshed forty-seven bushels of wheat per acre, but the average has been about forty. My oats for the eleven years that I have been here averaged forty-seven bushels to the acre. I now have 9 horses, 47 head of cattle, 33 hogs, which I consider worth $3,600. I have a thousand dollars worth of farm implements and my land is worth $8,000. This is all clear of debt. I have every reason to consider this a first-class mixed farming, dairying and poultry raising country, as I think that it is apparent that I have had some success. The only help that I had was my oldest boy, who was 8 years old when I arrived in Alberta."

About fifty miles west of Wetaskiwin there is a partially timbered district lying between Buck Lake and Pigeon Lake. All this land is ready for homesteading, and judging from a letter received by a resident there, this would seem to be an ideal place for a farmer who desired such surroundings. This settler lives on the shore of Buck Lake, his land is willow brush, which is easy to clear. Some of the lumber is good saw timber, and lots of good logs for buildings can be had, as well as rails for fencing. For wheat growing the soil is excellent. Water is easily secured, fishing is good and plentiful and game is anything but scarce. The settlers are mostly from the United States and Canada.—Advertisement.

Advice With Motive.
"I am much bothered," he said, "I can't marry a wealthy widow whom I don't love or a poor girl that I love intensely. What shall I do?"
"Listen to your heart," advised his companion, "and marry the one you love."
You are right, my friend. I shall marry the girl.
"Then you can give me the widow's address?"
Up and Down.
"Do you believe that truth crushed to earth will rise again?"
"I do—to be feared the next minute."

Some Going.
Mrs. Styles, from the tonneau of her automobile—I wish you wouldn't go so fast over the rough places, Jenkins; you nearly pitched me out a minute ago.
Jenkins—Why don't you hold on to my husband, ma'am?
"My husband? Goodness! He went out ten minutes ago, Jenkins!"

SAGE TEA DARKENS GRAY HAIR TO ANY SHADE. TRY IT!
Keep Your Locks Youthful, Dark, Glossy and Thick With Garden Sage and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.
Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger. Adv.

It takes a quick-witted man to know when to say nothing.

Put Off Old Age

Some old folks are bent and shaky. Others are straight and strong. It can't be mere "oldness" that works such havoc. No—it's too often uric acid. Fight off this life sapping poison. Help the kidneys take it from the blood. To aid them, live carefully and stimulate their action with the old reliable medicine, Doan's Kidney Pills.

A Missouri Case

"My Picture Tells a Story" Mrs. E. D. Clegg, 806 Eagle St., Springfield, Mo., says: "I would be in the grave were it not for Doan's Kidney Pills. My body bloated until I couldn't sleep. I tickled up anything and the doctors said there was no hope for me. My kidneys were in awful shape. Today I am cured and I can sleep at night without suffering. Doan's Kidney Pills are responsible for this cure."
