Get Posted on What Produces Champions and Farm Profits

Pointers From Hanes' Farm Results 1915

From regular corn field, acre yield - - - 75.0 bu.
From his brothers' Ohio Corn Contest Acre 123.0 bu.
From Dewey Hanes' Ohio Corn Contest Acre 153.7 bu.

Used 500 lbs. Fertilizer (not Swift's) containing only Phosphoric Acid and Potash

Used 100 lbs. Swift's Fertilizer containing Ammonia, Phosphoric Acid and Potash

The difference in the yield of the two boys was due entirely to the kind and brand of fertilizer used. Stop buying phosphoric acid and potash and straight acid phosphate because they are cheap. Use a well-balanced fertilizer containing ammonia, phosphoric acid and potash and get maximum yields and profits.

Still More Proof

Norris McHenry, Indiana State Champion, 1914, had two 3-acre plots. Note the results:
One plot 112.1 bushels per acre. Used Swift's Fertilizer.
One plot 93.1 bushels per acre. Used fertilizer, but not Swift's.
The kind of fertilizer used is alone responsible for the difference in yields.
Further arguments are unnecessary. Swift's Fertilizers make the farmer the most net profit.
Order Swift's Fertilizer from your local dealer today. If unable to obtain it ask us for prices, terms and literature. We want live agents in unoccupied territory.

Elmer Seabaugh to Miss Marzella Brown. Success to you, Elmer, is the best wish of the community.
Geo. L. Smith and wife visited Mrs. Smith's father Sunday.
D. R. Seabaugh and wife visited at W. T. Seabaugh's Sunday eve.
Jacob Cook visited at J. M. Propst's Sunday eve. There is quite an attraction there for Jacob.
D. R. Seabaugh and brothers-in-law, David Seabaugh and Mitchell Propst motored over to Cape Girardeau Saturday to look after the estate of Mrs. M. C. Stearns. Deceased was a sister of D. R.
Dewey Seabaugh, who is attending school at Marble Hill, visited home folks Saturday night and Sunday. SEDGEWICKVILLE, ILL.

Obituary
The sad news was brought to this community of the death of our beloved husband and father, John Henry Filer, at Jackson, Mo., on Sunday, March 12, 1915.
Deceased was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, February 4, 1859. In 1885 he married Miss Sophie Dieckroeder at Richmond, Ind., and to this union ten children were born, nine of whom are living, four sons, Henry, Fred, Walter and Charles and five daughters, Mrs. Frank Leadbetter and Misses Flora, Mae, Alice and Bertie. Besides his wife and children he leaves a mother, three brothers and one sister.
Shortly after their marriage they moved to Bollinger county and settled on a farm north of Marble Hill, where the family now resides.
His sickness was of short duration, being sick only seven days. He suffered intensely and looked with an eye of faith to the "Great Beyond." He was a member of the Lutheran church and the funeral services were conducted by a Lutheran minister at Jackson. He was laid to rest in the Jackson cemetery at his own request.
The bereaved wife and children, mother and other relatives have the sincere sympathy of the entire community. Although 'tis hard to say, "Thy will be done," may He comfort their saddened hearts as only He can. WIFE AND CHILDREN.

Gone, But Not Forgotten
Died—At the home of her son, Wesley E. Baker, of Oak Ridge, of pneumonia, March 5, 1915, at 4 p. m., Malinda T. Baker, born February 14, 1840, aged 76 years and 19 days.
She leaves to mourn her loss three sons and one daughter, Henry Mayfield of Morehouse, Morris Baker of Lutesville, Wesley E. Baker of Oak Ridge and Mrs. Shabaz L. Turner of Millerville. She also leaves twenty-three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.
Aunt Malinda, as she was usually called, had been a member of the General Baptist church for about twenty-eight years and lived a Christian life until her death. She was very kind and was loved by all who knew her.
Our body in the tomb may lie, but our soul shall never die. Jesus comes with tender love and takes us to his home above. "He knoweth best who loveth best."
So, children, do not weep, for well we know she is at rest upon the loving Savior's breast. The mother is not dead, but sleeping, she is watching for the loved ones she left behind.
"A link is broken in our household band, but the chain is forming in a better land."
A precious one from us is gone.
A voice we loved is still:
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Her remains were laid to rest in the Arthur Limbaugh cemetery near Millerville March 6, 1915.

There is quite an excitement over the Mexican trouble. They arrest all suspicious Mexicans and hold them for examination. Most of the soldiers left here for the front and others took their place here.

Newspaper men are mortal creatures like all the rest of mankind, but we don't believe they are as narrow as many other business men. Any editor who amounts to a tinker's bow-wow will express his opinions and stand for things which will be opposed by some of his readers. These readers, however, are given the same privilege of expressing their opinions as an editor has, providing they sign their articles. When they decline to do this, and as is sometimes the case, stop their paper and pull what business they can away from it, the editor isn't perceptibly hurt by their bullying while they advertise themselves as narrow citizens or small potatoes.—Louisiana News.

Obituary
Lovie Lustine Ford (nee Grimsley) was born September 15, 1884; died March 5, 1915, aged 31 years, 5 months and 17 days.
She was married to Dr. Edward Ford June 17, 1907, and to this union seven children were born, four of whom preceded her to the great beyond. She is survived by her husband and three children, father, one brother, two sisters and a number of relatives and friends.
She professed faith in God at the age of nine years and united with the M. E. Church, South, at Abernathy chapel, and remained faithful until God called her to her reward. All who knew her loved her and realized that she lived a true, Christian life.
Her remains were laid to rest in the family cemetery three miles south of Zalma, immediately after the funeral service, which was conducted by the writer. She died a victorious death. May God's richest blessing rest upon Dr. Ford and the surviving children. She is not dead, but sleeping. REV. J. F. MICHAEL.
