

The Farmers Supply Store

is prepared to sell you all kinds of Merchandise at prices that will please you. Our line of Shoes and Rubber Boots is hard to beat.

We have a complete line of Ladies' Dress Goods, Ladies' Knitted Sweaters and fine Shirt Waists.

Boys' and Men's Clothing, and the price is RIGHT.

Oil Cloths and Lineoleums—the kind you want
We carry a good line of School Supplies, and sell the best brand of Groceries.

Salt . . . $3.00 per barrel

Bring in your Produce. We will pay you the highest price for it.

FARMERS SUPPLY STORE
J. H. Wicecarver, Manager.
Marble Hill, Mo

LOCAL NEWS.

R. L. Richards of Grassy was in town Monday.

No hunting or trespassing will be allowed on our farms. J. A. TAYLOR, W. L. LUTES and H. W. WYNN.

Miss Leota L. Long, Zalma, is one of our new subscribers.

Stop coughing! You rack the lungs and worry the body. Ballard's Horehound Syrup checks irritation, heals the lungs and restores comfortable breathing. Sold by all druggists.

S. C. Squires came from Arkansas last Sunday to visit his family here.

If you need a cloak for yourself or the children this winter you certainly ought to see those at Lutes Merc before you buy.

Evert Johnson of Marquand Route 1, has our thanks for renewal favors.

For Sale—House, eight rooms and basement, good as new, and lot in Marble Hill, convenient to College, good little barn and other out-buildings. For terms call on or address M. F. CHRYSTER, Marble Hill, Mo.

Ed S. Carter of Dexter was in Marble Hill Wednesday on business.

For Sale—10-acre farm with 7-room house and out-buildings at Marble Hill. For particulars write or see Mrs. NELLIE HAWN, 25-4f, Marble Hill, Mo.

Our friend M. S. Stuckey of Oran has our thanks for subscription favors.

For Sale—A few thoroughbred Barred Rock Cockerels and Pullets—bred-to-lay—$1.25 to $2.00 if sold soon. Also one mantle folding bed, good as new. Mrs. A. J. MANNON, at Lutesville Marble Works. 24-4f.

Prof. A. F. Hendricks went to East Prairie last Saturday, returning Monday.

Have you seen those good looking plum, green and wise colored velvet cloaks at Lutes Merc. yet? They are pippins. Every one is well lined and made up in the latest style. Designed for beauty, wear and warmth.

Miss Grace Kinder, who was severely burned some time ago, is able to be up and about, but is still lame.

Neuralgia of the face, shoulder, hands or feet requires a powerful remedy that will penetrate the flesh. Ballard's Snow Liment possesses that power. Rubbed in where the pain is felt is all that is necessary to relieve suffering and restore normal conditions. Sold by all druggists.

Rev. N. B. Henry, pastor of the Lutesville and Glen Allen churches, M. E. Church, South, made this office an appreciated visit Tuesday.

Did the cold snap that soaked up on us Sunday remind you that you needed a new winter coat? If it did let us remind you that Lutes Merc. has a mighty well selected line. Better see their line and get their prices before you buy.

Dr. C. A. Wells came over from Deering and spent a few days visiting with his aunt, Mrs. J. T. Wells, and took in the fair.—Dunklin Democrat.

Easy Money!

Make your loans with the Greenbrier Federal Land Loan Association. Money at 5% per cent on your farm and the time may run from 5 to 40 years. Address or see Lavon Fm, Secretary-Treasurer, Zalma, Mo.

Adolph King and wife of Zalma visited the latter part of the week with his sister, Mrs. T. J. Rigdon, and took in the fair.—Dunklin Democrat.

Wormy children are unhappy, puny and sickly. They can't be otherwise while worms eat away their strength and vitality. A few doses of White's Cream Vermifuge performs a marvelous transformation. Cheerfulness, strength and the rosy bloom of health speedily return. Sold by all druggists.

Lewis Thacker of a couple of miles north of town is reported sick. His nephew came over from Kentucky a few days ago and wants to locate here.

Card of Thanks

We desire to extend our sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors for the kindness shown us and the help rendered during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, David Wilfong.

MOLLIE WILFONG AND DAUGHTER.

Claude Alexander and Luke Kinder went to St. Louis last Friday, returning Sunday, they drove a new Chevrolet home for Alexander Brothers.

Walter S. Hones writes us from Perkins, enclosing his annual dues to THE PRESS, and requests us to change his address from Whitewater to Perkins.

For Sale—A registered Aberdeen Angus bull, three years old. This is the animal that took the blue ribbon at stock show in Marble Hill and weighed 645 pounds at 6 months old. Is of kindly disposition and is not breachy. E. G. LUTES, 25, Marble Hill, Mo.

The following marriage licenses have been issued since August 11: Robert Henson and Lillie Mills, Harrison Anton and Dewey Henson, Dorman Eledge and Bertha Collins, Henry Eftink and Drecka Beussink, Iley E. Wilson and Grace Williams, Daniel Long and Nancy Hanners, Robert Tallent and Mrs. Tora Call, Garnet Hahn and Edith Williams, Venit Whittenburg and Effie Ritchey, Louis W. Cato and Valle Mae Hughes, Wm. Z. Higgins and Mrs. Dovie Cobb, Shellie Roy Irvin and Hattie May Hale, Tom Marsh and Clara Wallace, Henry A. Kirkpatrick and Bertha Henson, Roy Brown and Eula Nanney, Geo. R. Lee and Ella Kirkpatrick, Avery S. Thomason and Kathleen Smith, Marion Cooper and Tina Fowler, Jesse Pulliam and Nealter Louise Crites, Jesse Kirkpatrick and Cora Acup, John W. Davault and Nona Marie Lutes, Jesse Elbert Douglass and Janie Christy, R. N. Hausen and Edna May Mabuca, Henderson Q. Collins and Martha L. Berry, Joseph F. Dierker and Alida Elfrink, Henry F. Pogue and Mellie A. Tinnin, Emery B. Green and Ethel L. Yount.

Married—At the courthouse Monday, October 13, Henderson Q. Collins and Martha L. Berry, Judge R. C. Alexander officiating.

For Sale or Exchange—A Dodge touring car, '17 model, mechanically perfect. Will sell or exchange for a Ford car. DRUM & HASTINGS, Real Estate Dealers, Lutesville, Mo.

Mrs. W. M. Wigger, who was called to the bedside of her father, at Mineral Point a couple of weeks ago, returned home Monday.

Swift's Fertilizer

I have just received a car load of the old reliable Swift Fertilizer—the brand that has stood the test for more than thirty years and is no experiment. You will make no mistake in buying and using Swift Fertilizer. I want to supply your needs, GET MY PRICES.

Jacob A. Taylor,
Marble Hill, Mo.

I Still Want Men and want them all the time. Pay twice a month, from $2 to $5 per day. All kinds of timber contracts. Need carpenters and all kinds of day laborers, teamsters included. 2000 acres for rent next year—good land. Making new and good roads, and school now established. Come to Nash, on the Frisco, 8 miles east of Delta. I. B. GARRNS, 26, Box 165, Foruleft, Mo.

Mrs. Ed N. Barks of a few miles north of town made THE PRESS an appreciated visit on Wednesday of last week and renewed Mr. Barks' subscription.

Roll Call Meeting

Every Baptist in Marble Hill and Lutesville and the country surrounding is urgently invited to attend the Roll Call meeting at Marble Hill Baptist church October 26, fourth Sunday. Basket dinner. A great service is expected. Come and bring your friends.

B. M. SHACKLETTE, PASTOR.

F. E. Fulton of Marble Hill arrived in Kennett last Friday and is making a visit with his brother-in-law, B. C. Douglass, of Caruth.—Dunklin Democrat.

Surgeons agree that in cases of cuts, burns, bruises and wounds, the first treatment is most important. When an efficient antiseptic is applied promptly, there is no danger of infection and the wound begins to heal at once. For use on man or beast, borozone is the ideal antiseptic and healing agent. Buy it now and be ready for an emergency. Sold by all druggists.

Rev. J. R. Kinkaid, the new pastor of the Methodist church here, moved into the parsonage the latter part of last week. It is hoped their stay among us may be pleasant.

Lost, Strayed or Stolen—One brownish red cow about 6 years old, weight about 850 pounds, no white at all, skin of dark brown color, giving milk, five teats, one small teat well up on right side of udder, crop and underbit in right and swallow fork in left ear. Disappeared from the widow Mary Lutes place, 3 miles southwest of Lutesville, August 27. Will pay $10 reward for her recovery. Notify E. F. MILLER, Lutesville, Mo.

Manuel Masters of near Whitewater was in Marble Hill Monday and informed us that he expects to buy property in Cape Girardeau and move there in a short time.

Gay Estes of near town made us an appreciated visit Monday and subscribed for THE PRESS for his sister-in-law, Mrs. E. Whitener, who is now located at Morris, Oklahoma.

Considerable matter intended for this issue of the paper was unavoidably crowded out. Our expenses are so heavy that we are compelled to take the advertising to make ends meet.

Mrs. Emma Kistner and her little daughter, Naida, of near Millerville moved to Marble Hill one day the latter part of last week and are making their home with the Chandler children.

Hon. F. M. Wells of this city came in one day last week and divided cash with the printer. He renewed his own subscription and subscribed for his son Hubert, who is in school at William Jewell college, Liberty, Mo.

Miss Clara Peters, who is teaching school at Rives this year, made a visit with her parents at Glen Allen last Saturday and Sunday, returning home in time to open her school again Monday morning.—Dunklin Democrat.

Mrs. Sophie Cheek left last Friday for Oklahoma City, Okla., to visit her son, Raleigh Underwood, and will probably be gone several weeks. She expected to have gone the week before, but was disappointed.

The stork called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Early Snider the morning of October 11, and left them a son. Mother and babe are doing well, and Early's most intimate friends are beginning to be more hopeful of his recovery.

Ora Hahn, residing a mile and a half east of town on the Leopold road, had the misfortune to lose his horse a short time ago in a very peculiar manner. The animal fell into an old cistern, but was alive when the fact was discovered. But they had a poor way of reaching him, and slow way, too, having to dig in on one side of the cistern, and by the time he was helped out he was more dead than alive and died in a very short time.

For Sale or Exchange

Two Percheron mares, 6 and 7 years old, 1200 pounds each. Will exchange for land or cattle or will sell for cash.

Spring wagon and set of double harness. In splendid condition. Will sell or trade for milk cow.

Sorghum mill and evaporator. Will sell or trade for hogs.

Cook stove, No. 6 "Darling", and a darling it is. Will sell cheap or trade for food.

A pair of mare mules, 9 and 10 years old; one Lin-stroth wagon and harness, all in good condition. A dandy buy for $250.

Address or call on H. H. BARNES, Lutesville, Mo., at Drum & Hastings' office or phone No. 73.

REMEMBER Tuscarora Fertilizers Are Better

Besides they are from $5 to $9 cheaper per ton than last season.

IN STOCK NOW
H. B. COLE
Lutesville, Missouri

WANTED! Hub Timber

WHITE OAK RED OAK POST OAK
Big Prices
See A. ABERNATHY,
Lutesville, Missouri.
The Reuter Hub and Spoke Company,
Dexter, Missouri.

Adam Sitze, the clever merchant and farmer of Grassy, made us a welcome call Wednesday of last week and had his subscription credited up a year. He seemed to be mighty well pleased over the way the road bond election carried.

Sheriff Enoch Underwood went to Pierce City last Saturday, returning Monday, he brought his man, William Wessell, back with him. Wessell is charged with obtaining money under false pretenses. He gave bond and went his way.

We received an appreciated letter from August T. Barrett, Danforth, Ill., containing the amount necessary to square him on our book for another year, and says he enjoys reading THE PRESS and getting the news from his old Missouri home. He says he likes the country over there fine, and that they had reasonably good crops this year and he has 240 acres to cultivate next year.

Judge D. C. Clippard, who had been gone—visiting his son, Will, at Little Rock, Ark., and sons, Al and John, in St. Louis, about six weeks, came home Sunday. He tells us that this is the first vacation of that length he has ever had and it was enjoyed in the superlative degree. Mrs. Clippard has not yet arrived.

Good Roads Meeting

Saturday, October 25, at 2 p. m., at the courthouse.
A delegation from each and every township is requested. Be sure and see that your township is represented. Plans will be outlined for the election of your committeemen who will represent your township in the expenditure of the Road Bond money. COUNTY HIGHWAY COMMISSIONER.

Mrs. L. L. Bridges and little daughter of Scopas was in Marble Hill Monday and made this office a pleasant call, and renewed Asa Stevens' subscription and subscribed for THE PRESS for Mr. Stevens' daughter, Mrs. Jessie De Florio, Memphis, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Drum of Fort Smith, Ark., spent part of Sunday and Monday with his father, Hon. Robert Drum, and the family of his sister, Mrs. C. A. Sander, in Marble Hill. He says he is having good health and getting along fine. He left the price of a year's subscription with the printer with the understanding that THE PRESS must continue its weekly visits to his home another year.

Rev. W. M. Wigger returned from Blodgett Monday where he filled the pulpit for Rev. A. J. Johnson. He attended the Franklin County Baptist association near Coselle last week in the interest of Will Mayfield College and reports prospects good for Victory week, and reports that we may say the same of Blodgett, all of which the friends of the school will be glad to know.

Mrs. C. A. Sander made THE PRESS a pleasant visit Tuesday and left one of the largest onions in our window it has ever been our good fortune to see. The onion was grown in New Mexico and was sent to Miss Emma Barks, of near town and one of the purchasers of the Finney property here, by her brother, who grew it. The onion weighs a pound and fourteen ounces.

"Nature is generous, but she never forgets to avenge her wrongs."

"Wise is the man who doesn't write a truthful story of his own life."