C. F. HOPKINS DEPT. STORE
Ladies Coat and Suit Department Our ladies coat suits and crests are here and selling fast. The first shipment was closed up in two days our fourth shipment of Ladies coat suits are now on the way and when they arrive our sizes will run 36 to 44. Our prices are cheaper than any mail order house quotes them. Space does not permit us to give you a description on all the line, but here is one we hope you will compare.

An all wool Serge silk lined suit for $32.00. We know you cannot buy it any where else without shaking loose considerably more change.

We have Tricelines, Heaters and other and other found all at prices that mean a saving to you.

Millinery Department
Just arrived a fresh shipment of ladies hats of latest styles they are certainly snappy, you'll have to pay more money, or take cheaper quality if you don't buy here.

Men's & Boys' Clothing Dept.
We have a complete line of suits, over coats, mackinaws, rain coats, slickers and Leatherettes, all are going at real money saving prices.

Grocery Department
Sugar per lb. 18c.
Santos Pea Berry Coffee 33c-5c.
Fancy Rio Coffee 18c.
White Navy Beans 11c.
Whole head rice 15c.
No 1 Chum Salmon 20c.
E. J. Peas 16c.
Twist Tobacco 5c.
Layton baking powder 6c.

Shoe Department
We carry the largest and most up-to-date line of shoes in the county.

Men's English Walker, chocolate color at $4.50.
Men's scout shoes going at $2.75.
Men's White buck going at $3.50

We carry Endicott Johnson's complete line of school shoes, they cost you less per day's wear than any other.

Carpet & Rug Department
This department like all others, is chuck full of bargains. Just think, a 4 yard wide lenolium on burlap base going at $5.40 per running yard, only 5c more than Chicago's leading mail order house has on same grade, and by the way it cost 15c per yard freight out of St. Louis. We don't know what it would cost to freight it from Chicago, but we do know it will cost more. The only people we fail to sell are those who will not investigate our prices before they buy some merchants despise the "bargain hunter," we love them and welcome them to our place of business because they are the heaviest buyers.

annual meeting of the shareholders of the Bank of Patton will be held at the banking house at Patton, Bollinger county, Mo., on Monday, October 4, 1920, being the first Monday in said month, as provided by the by-laws of said bank, between the hours of nine o'clock a. m. and four o'clock p. m., for the selection of five directors for the ensuing year and for the transaction of any other business that may be properly proposed before said meeting.

Trustee Sale By Sheriff

By virtue of a deed of trust executed by Stephen E. Buehler and Mollie M. Buehler, his wife, dated the 30th day of March, 1914, and recorded in the record book 68, at page 157, one of the land records of Bollinger county, Missouri, made to secure the payment of one certain promissory note therein described, which note is past due and unpaid, and whereas the trustee of said deed of trust refuses to act I, Enoch Underwood, sheriff of Bollinger county at the request of the legal holder of said note, will on SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1920 at the north door of the courthouse in the town of Marble Hill, Bollinger county, Missouri, between the hours of 9 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, the real estate in said deed of trust described, to-wit:

The north half of the southwest quarter of section twenty-five (25) in township thirty-one (31) north of range nine (9) east, and containing eighty acres more or less, Bollinger county, Missouri, to satisfy said deed of trust.

ENOCH UNDERWOOD,
Sheriff of Bollinger County, Acting Trustee.

Through some sort of an oversight, which we cannot account for, The Press overlooked mentioning the death of the little base of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Roe-of near town, of something like a month old, on September 11.
The funeral was conducted at the Hahn chapel cemetery by the pastor, Rev. J. R. Kincaid, where the interment took place in the presence of a number of sympathizing relatives and friends on Sunday, the 12th.
