

HE MAY RECOVER.

Sam Bucklew, Who Has Small-Pox, Is Much Better. PINE BLUFF, ARK., March 25.—Sam Bucklew, the Kansas City shirt drummer who has small-pox at Camden, is reported in a much-improved condition this morning, and it is now thought he will recover. The hotel in Camden at which he stopped has been closed, and those persons who came in contact with him are quarantined in the third story of the building. Bucklew was taken to a secluded house outside of the city limits.

Regiment of Iowa Regulars.

"It will not be very long before the 1st United States Cavalry will be composed almost entirely of natives of Iowa," said Samuel Pattison, a citizen-soldier of Burlington. "Over half its men are now 'Hawkeyes,' and none others are being enlisted to fill vacancies in the ranks. The idea was first suggested in a novel way. In 1892 the headquarters of the 1st were, as they are now, at Fort Grant, Ariz., and the regiment was badly in need of men. None could be had from the cavalry depot, so the Colonel got permission to open an enlistment office in Des Moines, in charge of Lieut. Galbraith, who was succeeded by Capt. J. Q. Adams, who is still in charge. It was determined to accept none but Iowa applicants, and this intention was steadily observed. Temporary recruiting offices were opened from time to time in smaller cities of the State, and the experiment was found highly successful. The Iowa boys made good soldiers and excellent horsemen, and were free from the vices that usually beset the men who enlist in large cities and enter the army because circumstances force them to. While general recruiting for the army was generally stopped, the Des Moines office is still open. Many applications are received from other States, but only Iowa men of good antecedents and perfect physical condition are accepted. So the 1st is already being called 'the Iowa regiment,' and we are naturally very proud of it."—Washington Star.

Soldiers in Havana.

The military are an evidence at every turn. At the wharf so many soldiers are pacing to and fro, or lounging listlessly about, that it gives one the impression of having landed at a military post, rather than a commercial seaport of some 250,000 people. It requires some time to get away from this impression. Almost every fifth man one meets wears a military dress of some sort; barracks and fortresses are strewn about the city and its outskirts ad libitum, and bands of marching men and the sounds of martial music are encountered from morning to night.—Lippincott's.

The Toledo Weekly Blade.

Of the now nearly twenty thousand regular publications in the United States, there are but two or three weekly newspapers published for general circulation in every State and Territory, and of these the Toledo Weekly Blade is the best and most popular of them all. It is the oldest, best known, and has the largest circulation. For more than twenty-five years it has been a regular visitor to every portion of the Union, and it is well known at every one of the sixty thousand odd post-offices of the country. It is made especially for family reading. It gives the entire news of the world each week, in such condensed form as will save reading scores of pages of daily papers to get information. Republican in politics, temperance in principle, always on the side of justice and right, it is just the paper for the rising generation, and a great educator for the whole family. Serial stories, wit and humor, short stories, Household department, Question Bureau Farm department, Camp Fire, Sunday School and Young Folks are a few of the many other prominent features of this great paper. A specimen copy will be mailed free to any address on application, and the publishers invite any person to send in a long list of addresses to whom they will mail sample copies. They would be glad to mail a couple of hundred specimens to readers of this country. The Weekly Blade is a very large paper, and the price is only one dollar a year.

Absolutely Free.

Any reader of this paper can get the St. Louis Globe-Democrat absolutely free for three months. Read the offer in this issue and take advantage of it at once. The Weekly Globe-Democrat is issued in Semi-Weekly sections, eight pages each Tuesday and Friday, sixteen every week, making it practically a Semi-Weekly paper, yet the price is only one dollar a year. In politics, it is strictly Republican, but it gives all the news, and is absolutely indispensable to the farmer, merchant, or professional man who has not the time to read a large daily paper, and yet desires to keep promptly and thoroughly posted. Sample Copies will be sent free on application to GLOBE PRINTING CO., St. Louis, Mo.
