

MIXED UP.

Everything of Local Form To be Found That is of Interest.

MONDAY.

And now we are to have a Chinese laundry in this city. The Chinaman is here fitting up a room in the Rodney building.

We don't like to have to put accounts in the hands of a collecting agency but we will have to do that very thing. We have some names on our books we are getting tired looking at and we propose to have our money or raise a racket.

The Jury in the case of Henry Willer against Sam Williams in Justice Willer's court failed to agree and the case will be tried over at another term of court.

It takes a whole lot of people to make a city and it takes the right kind of people too. We have some of the right kind of people here and we have some of the wrong kind.

The accumulation of votes elected George G. Kimmel President and F. A. Kage, Vice-President of the Fair Association. The accumulation was made by the pull—not the push.

Scott had everything for dinner today that the appetite of man could call for. Scott is hard to head off when a hungry man wants something to eat.

Will Warren has the finest apples in the city. There is nothing nicer for a Christmas present than a barrel of fine apples.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer:—Dear doctor I have used and sold your Family Cure with excellent results. It cured me of the rheumatism and I now am 50 years old and have not an ache or pain.

MRS. F. A. RHOADS, Sutherland, Iowa.

Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drug store.

Tom Schaefer, colored, was stabbed Saturday night by a young colored man. The wound was not dangerous.

Julius Houck, brother of Hon. Louis Houck and father-in-law of Robert Giboney, is here on a visit. Mr. Houck resides in Belleville, Illinois. He is a printer by trade and in a print shop he is at home.

The push and the pull had it last Saturday and the pull was victorious.

Louie Tobler is in St. Louis purchasing an outfit for the St. Charles Hotel saloon.

The new officers of the Fair Association will be sworn in next Saturday and then the New Board will elect a secretary and treasurer.

Poison ivy, insect bites, bruises, scalds, burns, are quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

To Col. G. C. Thilenius: It was the pull and not the push that defeated you for President of the Fair Association.

That throat cutting sign comes home to roost. The election last Saturday for Fair Directors showed how the wind was blowing.

"The Boston" Grocery Store, J. F. Schwegler, Proprietor.

County Clerk Paar has not yet decided on a day when he will recount the vote polled at the third precinct in this city.

The whole system is drained and undermined by indolent ulcers and open sores. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve speedily heals them. It is the best pile cure known. For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

Otto Buchmann is in the real estate business in St. Louis. Mr. Buchmann is a hustler wherever he is and we would like to have him located in business again in this city.

There are lots of holiday goods advertised for sale in the stores at Jackson and Kelso. Our citizens will likely go to one of these places this year to purchase presents for their children for Christmas.

There are small potatoes in business in every town and city in the country, but we believe that Cape Girardeau takes the cake in the way of numbers of small potatoes in business men.

Chills are a bad sign. Chills portend the oncoming of serious disease. They are an early symptom of malaria, precede pneumonia, inflammation of the bowels, and many other dangerous diseases. They should never be neglected. Dr. Bell's Peppermint Chill Tonic cures them. It tastes like mint candy. All druggists guarantee it.

The Riverside hotel has made many improvements lately. It is now one of the best hotels in Southeast Missouri.

The merchants whose advertisements you find in the DEMOCRAT are reliable men. Buy from them. There are other houses in the city but we cannot recommend them. We don't know the proprietors.

A Ruediger is having a farm made in the swamp. He is working a crew of hands cleaning up ground ready for the plow.

Don't trifle away time when you have cholera morbus or diarrhoea. Fight them in the beginning with DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. You don't have to wait for results, they are instantaneous, and it leaves the bowels in healthy condition. For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

We have lots of hotel accommodation in this city. We have always been able to accommodate the public.

The man who is going to open a barber shop in the St. Charles Hotel is a nice country town barber. We are informed that he is a strictly temperance man and a christian gentleman, and that he will not shave a man who will take a drink on Sunday.

Theories of cure may be discussed at length by physicians, but the sufferers want quick relief; and One Minute Cough Cure will give it to them. A safe cure for children. It is "the only harmless remedy that produces immediate results." For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

TUESDAY.

The Grey Eagle got into St. Louis Monday morning with the biggest trip she has had this year. She had over one thousand head of stock, three hundred packages and two hundred passengers. That is steamboating.

A steam yacht with three people on board struck a snag about eight miles north of this city and went to the bottom of the river. The people all got ashore safe.

The Graham Mercantile Company at Bloomfield does more newspaper advertising than any other mercantile house in Southeast Missouri and does an immense business.

Our merchants can get the trade of the country if they will make the proper effort. Push is what is required to make business these days.

If you are bilious, try Dr. Sawyer's Little Wide Awake Pills, you will find them just what you want. Try a free sample. They do not gripe. Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drug store.

Now don't let us hear the complaint again that we have no hotel accommodations. Cape Girardeau has as fine a hotel as any city in the State. Come and see us and our hotels.

Henry Rowan went to St. Louis this morning to purchase a new outfit of furniture for his barbershop. He will get an up-to-date outfit.

Candies galore for the babies, the little girls and boys, the sweet hearts and beaux and the old folks at home. Don't fail to call at "The Boston," J. F. Schwegler, Proprietor, opposite Post Office.

"The Boston."

There will be a meeting of the City Council on Saturday morning, December 19th, to sell the telephone franchise. A telephone franchise in this city ought to be a valuable franchise.

Cape Girardeau is the best city of its size in the State of Missouri or any other State. Don't forget this when you are looking for a live town in which to locate. Come and see us, our location and our many advantages.

Dr. Sawyer:—Dear Sir: I can say with pleasure that I have been using your medicine, and will recommend it to all suffering ladies.

Mrs. W. W. WEATHERSHEE, Augusta, Ga.

Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drug store.

Married, at the residence of Capt. Joe Keyser, December 6th, 1896, by John M. Brown, Justice of the Peace, John H. Keppel and Miss Maud Pece, both of Egypt Mills.

Fine Oranges, Apples, Bananas, Grapes, Lemons, Buy at "The Boston."

The opening of the St. Charles gives our city the appearance of a city of one hundred thousand population. There are lots of cities in the country with more than one hundred thousand population that cannot show as fine hotel as the St. Charles.

Scott is having the interior of the Hotel Scott dining room re-papered and handsomely decorated.

There is no use taking pills or purgatives to cure the chills. Dr. Bell's Peppermint Chill Tonic cures them by itself. It does more than that, too—it gives you a new dress on the inside. It tones you up and makes you strong. It makes you feel some account. Sold on a guarantee.

We are informed by parties who are in a position to know, that we will have more and better railroad facilities for this city within the next twelve months. We know that there is a move on foot too, for a trunk line to make its terminus here.

Never before in 18 years did "The Boston" grocery store have such a fine stock of Christmas eatables as at present. It's to your interest to call there and J. F. Schwegler, the proprietor, will be pleased to see that your wants are supplied, opposite Post Office.

W. F. Rodney is having water put in his house for the Chinaman who is going to start up in the laundry business.

When you want to buy anything in this town hunt for it. Don't look in the columns of the newspapers for it. Our stores carry as large stocks and as fine goods as the merchants of any city in the country but you must go to the stores and hunt what you want. We have the stores—we have the goods. Come and see us. We will treat you right.

Strictly pure New Orleans plantation molasses, Sorghum and Drips at "The Boston." Try "them" molasses.

John Harris is building himself a nice house near the Normal school.

WEDNESDAY.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer:—I have been troubled with rheumatism and lung trouble for a number of years, can say I never had any thing help me like your Family Cure.

Mrs. H. WINGART, Lena, Ills.

Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drug store.

We are in receipt of a letter from an Indiana gentleman who is looking for a location to go into business. We have informed the gentleman that we have the best city of its size in the State.

The way to make a city prosperous is for its citizens to patronize home for everything they can get at home.

Will Warren has the finest apples in the city. If you want to make your family a nice Christmas present, order a barrel of apples sent to your house.

If you have ever seen a little child in the agony of summer complaint, you can realize the danger of the trouble and appreciate the value of instantaneous relief always afforded by DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure. For dysentery and diarrhoea it is a reliable remedy. We could not afford to recommend this as a cure unless it were a cure. For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

The stockholders of the Prospecting and Mining Company will meet next Tuesday. The company has some money in the treasury and it is to be hoped that something will be done at the meeting to further investigate the bowels of the earth in this section of the country.

The City Council, at its last meeting, allowed the salaries of the city officials.

Strangers who visit this city say we have one of the best towns in the country.

There was a meeting of railroad men held in this city last night, but for what purpose we could not learn.

The election contest in this county does not seem to be creating much excitement. The contestants have very little faith in their success and the other fellows are not scared.

Judge Joseph F. Medley, we understand, is still improving and if he gets no backset he will be able to attend the next term of the County Court.

T—U—B—E.—Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve put up in tubes and sold by all dealers at 25c a tube; is awful cheap for the best salve, the biggest package and the most convenient for use of any in the world.

The Grand Jury for the January term of Circuit Court will have very little business to do.

Some of the Normal students were lectured yesterday for violating the rules of the school. Boys will be boys and the Normal Faculty should not be too severe on the erring students.

Prof. Foss, who has been looking for a town in which to permanently locate has about arrived at the conclusion that there is no better city in the country than Cape Girardeau and he will remain here for a while at least and may be all the time. The Professor is a clever gentleman and has made many friends in this city by his courteous treatment of his customers and his gentlemanly manners to all.

There are ten or twelve cigar makers at work in this city and if our people would insist on smoking home cigars there would be forty or fifty cigar makers rolling cigars here.

Don't send off to the big city merchants for Christmas presents. Patronize home.

There are as pretty holiday goods in this town as can be found in the stores in St. Louis or elsewhere.

For Fruits, Nuts and Candies, also Fancy Groceries, call at "The Boston."

Henry Meysteadt is not in the pork packing business this year. His son will continue in the business at the old stand on the levee.

When a business house that never advertises gets into the hands of a receiver then the newspaper man gets something out of it.

Mat Morrison wants to purchase three or four head of young brood mares.

It doesn't matter much whether sick headache, biliousness, indigestion and constipation are caused by neglect or by unavoidable circumstances; DeWitt's Little Early Risers will speedily cure them all. For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

John W. Taylor is doing the decorating in Hotel Scott's dining room.

The new Board of Directors of the Fair Association will meet Saturday and organize by electing a Secretary and Treasurer. The present incumbents will be re-elected.

Our local insurance agents complain that outside agents come here and gobble up their business.

Capt. John A. Williams died at his residence in this city this morning after an illness of several months. Capt. Williams was an old and highly respected citizen of this city.

Hon. Moses Whybark who was here on business left for his home this morning.

Emmett Miller is still after the Post-office and he now has an organ to espouse his cause. Wearers of the opinion that Mr. Miller's organ will not be able to pull him through.

The St. Charles Hotel is one of the finest hotels in the State. The conveniences cannot be surpassed by any hotel in the large cities. Everything is new and modern.

THURSDAY.

Many a day's work is lost by sick headache, caused by indigestion and stomach troubles. DeWitt's Little Early Risers are the most effectual pill for overcoming such difficulties. For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

Emmett Miller's edition of the Review and Grover Cleveland's message came out at the same time and it is hard to tell which created the most excitement.

Trains have been running on the St. Louis, Cape Girardeau & Fort Smith Railroad nearly sixteen years and train robbers have never made a hold-up on the road. We are a lucky people and we reside in a grand section of the country.

See the big advertisement of the Bee Store Company elsewhere in this paper. The Bee Store is the largest store in Southeast Missouri and when it advertises goods at bargain prices it has the goods.

Cranberries and Celery at "The Boston."

Has our Board of Trade disbanded? We have not heard from it for several months.

25 cents is an insignificant sum compared to the value of a human eye and yet many people attest they would have been blind if they had not invested this sum in a tube of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve. All dealers sell it.

There is room in this city for a number of factories that could get the raw material right here at one-half the expense the same material costs in the factories in the larger cities.

You can get nice apples by the barrel, bushel, peck or penny at "The Boston" opposite Post Office.

Wagons made in this city are better than the wagons made in the big city factories and shipped here. Why can't we have a big wagon factory here?

Judge Miller, of Bollinger county gave us a call this morning. The Judge is one of the cleverest citizens of old Bollinger and his friends here are always glad to meet him.

Christmas candies by the pound, pound or penny at "The Boston," corner Main and Broadway.

Work on the grandfroid pavement for the St. Charles Hotel, which was suspended on account of the cold weather, has been resumed, and a few days of fine weather will be sufficient for the completion of the job.

Dr. Bell's Peppermint Chill Tonic tastes good, is good and does good. An effective, positive and permanent cure for chills, fever and ague. Contains no poison. An anti-malarial and an up-building tonic. A blood purifier. An appetizer, aiding digestion. P makes the complexion good. Large bottles 50c. Guaranteed by all dealers.

Mr. Ollie D. Fisher of Boulder, Colorado, and Miss Nellie E. Hughes of this city were married in this city today.

Lock your doors and sleep with Johnnie's gun under your head. There are robbers in town.

An ax handle factory would be in it here. An ax handle manufactured from our Southeast Missouri hickory in the city factories costs from fifteen to twenty-five cents. It could be made here much cheaper at a good profit.

Mr. Geo. L. Allen, of Clear Springs, Ky., writes: "I had a long spell of fever which kept me in bed all summer. It settled in my breast and lungs. My physicians expected that I would never recover as I had a severe cough, and some of my family having had lung trouble, there was little hope for me. The doctors lanced my breast and it ran four or five months. Then they gave me Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey, which stopped my cough at once. I used about two bottles of it and my lungs became sound."

Al Chenué has the nicest stock of jewelry and silverware ever shown in this city. Mr. Chenué is a practical jeweler and he knows what to buy for the trade.

Stockholders of the Prospecting and Mining Company should remember the meeting next Tuesday. The meeting will be of importance to the stockholders and other people as well.

Raisins, Currants, Citron, Orange and Lemon peel, Figs and Dates, an endless variety to select from at "The Boston."

We are going to have better times in this city. There is something going to turn up that is bound to give us better times. Just wait and watch. We are on to it but right now we cannot give particulars. The cloud with the silver lining will soon make its appearance. Have patience and watch for it.

While you are reading the DEMOCRAT think of the people whose eyes are so sore they can't read. If you know of such an one send them a tube of Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve and after they have used it they can see how to return the favor. If they can't the dealer from whom you buy it is authorized by the E. E. Sutherland Medicine Co. to refund you your 25c. All dealers will do this.

Dr. A. P. Sawyer:—Dear Sir: Mrs. Hamburg induced me to try your Family Cure, I was greatly benefited by it and I recommended it to every lady in poor health. Respectfully,

MRS. ASHER, Sold at J. Maple Wilson's drugstore.

FRIDAY.

Editor Hill, of the Marble Hill Press, was in the city yesterday. Mr. Hill says Cape Girardeau is a great city.

The Government has abandoned its work on the Mississippi River till next spring.

There is an increased demand for dwelling houses in this city, which goes to show that business is picking up.

Scott county farmers inform us that the corn crop in that county this year is not more than half a crop.

We are pleased to note that there are more strangers in the city now than there were before the opening of the big hotel.

The F. F. F. Gun Club will have its annual banquet at the Riverside Hotel next Wednesday. The supper will be accompanied with champagne.

Everybody who comes here admires our big St. Charles Hotel. It is the finest in Southeast Missouri.

There will be a regular meeting of Just Post No. 173, Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Harry Smith, son of the editor of the Perryville Sun, gave us a call today.

Henry Rowan returned home from St. Louis yesterday. He purchased a new outfit for his barber shop, which, he says, will arrive next Tuesday.

The assignee's sale of gents' furnishing goods and the going out of business sale of Plentge and Heinberg will make business a little dull with our merchants for a while.

All the conveyances from the railroad depot today had all the passengers they could accommodate. Our big hotel is a drawing card.

"Boys will be boys," but you can't afford to lose any of them. Be ready for the green apple season by having DeWitt's Colic and Cholera Cure in the house. For sale by J. Maple Wilson, Druggist.

List of Matt Matter Remains uncalled for in the post office at Cape Girardeau, county of Cape Girardeau, State of Missouri, for the week ending December 5, 1896.

Abernathy, Monie; Brown, Albert; Cleary, J.; Deever, Ben; Kirk, W. C.; Lee, Mrs. Lillie; McKredler, Mrs. Nerris; Oberer, Miss Katie; Cotter, Mrs. J. J.; Inness, Amanda; Smith, Wm E.; Thompson, Robert; Wilson, D. W.; Bradford, Frank; Chaplain, James; Deblinder, J. A.; James, Mrs. Ruth; Long, Mrs. Lulu; Lewis, Miss Eva; Mann, M. George; Phillips, Sidney; Sorster, L.; Sharpsh, John (2); Wilson, Ben; Weinhold, Mr. & Mrs.; Wallace, Miss Dollie (2).

Persons calling for any of the above letters will please say "Advertised," giving date of the list. If not called for within two weeks they will be sent to the Dead Letter Office at Washington City.

Great Danger in Coughs. A neglected Cough is source of imminent danger to all. Ballard's Horehound Syrup is guaranteed to cure the worst cough. Whooping Cough, sore throat and all other coughs. Sold at Wilson's drug store.

Assignee's Notice to Creditors.

Notice is hereby given that I, the undersigned assignee of John T. Batts, do appoint the 13th day of January, 1897, as the time and the office of the First National Bank of Cape Girardeau, in Cape Girardeau, Missouri as the place where I will, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 3 p. m. on the above named day and the two succeeding days, be in attendance to receive, adjust and allow demands of the creditors of said John T. Batts against the trust fund arising from the sale and dispose of the goods assigned to me for the benefit of the creditors of said John T. Batts, the assignor.

L. S. JOSEPH, Assignee. dec12 n34.

Home Seekers Look.

The movement of farmers and people seeking new homes in the beautiful sunny South still continues and is growing.

Low rate excursions will be run by the Mobile & Ohio railroad from ticket stations St. Louis, Missouri, to Cairo, Illinois, inclusive to points in Tennessee, Mississippi and Alabama, on December 1st and 15th, 1896, January 5th and 19th, February 2nd and 16th, March 2nd and 16th, April 6th and 20th, May 4th and 18th, 1897. The rate will be one fare plus $2.00, the one fare to be collected at starting point and the $2.00 at destination or last stopping place returning.

Trains leave St. Louis Union Station at 7:30 a. m. and 7:25 p. m. "A home-seekers' guide," and any information regarding land will be furnished free on application to the Alabama Land & Development Company, Mobile, Ala.

If any information is desired regarding tickets, ticket rates, etc., it will be furnished promptly on application to W. B. Rowland, General Agent, 215 N. Fourth St., St. Louis, Missouri; C. Rudolph, D. P. A., room 329 Marquette Building, Chicago, Illinois; W. H. Harrison Jr., D. P. A., 220 Fourth St., Des Moines, Iowa; M. A. Bohrer, D. P. A., No. 7 West Fourth St., Detroit, Michigan; F. L. Harris, Passenger Agent, No. 10 Sixth St., Cairo, Illinois, or E. E. Posey, General Passenger Agent, Mobile, Alabama.

The Number of Visitors to the Sunshine Southland is increasing.

Owing to the warm, but still bracing atmosphere of the Southern States the tourists and pleasure seekers of the North are fast learning that the delightful winter resorts on the Gulf Coast in Mississippi, Alabama and Florida, are the only places to spend the cold and bleak winter months.

In order to afford everybody an opportunity to visit these, the Mobile & Ohio Railroad, which is the favorite North and South short line, has placed on sale at all points north of the Ohio River, tickets at low rates for its patrons, to all "winter tourist" points in the South.

Tickets will be on sale daily until April 30th, 1897, and will be limited to June 1st, 1897, and passengers will be allowed to stop over at points south of the Ohio River.

Any information desired regarding rates, tickets, timetables and general information will be furnished on application to any railroad ticket agent, or to W. B. Rowland, General Agent, 215 N. Fourth St., St. Louis, Mo.; F. L. Harris, Passenger Agent, No. 10 Sixth St., Cairo, Ill.

JNO. G. MANN, Gen. Manager. E. E. POSEY, Gen. Pass'r Agent. Mobile, Ala.

nov24 n2172 6mos.

Traveling Men

And everybody else wanted to handle H. E. Hanna's "Little Wonder" Detachable Door and Transom Lock; not larger than an ordinary Jack Knives; carried in the pocket; keyless and non-pickable. Nickel plated and a handsome pocket novelty. Guaranteed to securely fasten any door or transom, on the inside and 50 cents for sample with full directions for use and terms. Address H. E. Hanna, Hutchinson, Kansas.

FEATHERBONE CORSETS AND WAISTS.

Advertisement for Featherbone Corsets and Waists. Features include: Correct Shapes, Latest Styles, Best Materials, Artistic Effects, Reasonable Prices, Most Comfortable. Includes images of corsets and waists, and text: "Merchants cheerfully refund the money after 4 weeks' trial if not satisfactory." "SOLD AND RECOMMENDED BY THE SPOT CASH STORE."