A committee appointed by the President of the Cape Girardeau Fair and Park Association went over to Illinois this morning. The committee will visit several places in Southern Illinois to inspect the fair grounds for the purpose of getting some ideas as to the best plans for putting our new fair grounds in proper shape.

The St. Francois Herald, the personal organ of Martin L. Clardy, general attorney for the Mo. Pacific, at Farmington, registers a kick against the railroad Mr. Houck has begun to build from St. Marys to that town. The Herald even goes so far as to charge that Mr. Houck owns the line from Allenville to Jackson, belonging to the Iron Mountain. All the same, Mr. Houck, if he has started to build will build, but may-be he will switch off to the lead district and leave Farmington out in the cold.

Order of Sale Under School Fund Mortgage.

WHEREAS, on the sixth day of September, 1886, William M. Oliver borrowed of the county of Cape Girardeau in the State of Missouri, the sum of three hundred dollars, belonging to the Capital School Funds of said county; and whereas, in consideration of said premises, and to secure the payment of said sum of money when the same should become due, on the first day of January, 1887, the said William M. Oliver executed and delivered to said county, for the use and benefit of said Capital School Funds his certain mortgage and deed whereby he conveyed to the said county the following described lots, tracts or parcels of land, lying, being and situated in the county of Cape Girardeau, State aforesaid, viz:

The southwest quarter of the southwest quarter of section eight (8) and the southeast quarter of the southeast quarter of section nine (9) in township thirty-one (31) range eleven (11) containing eighty acres.

And whereas, it is stipulated in said mortgage that if default should be made in the payment of said sum of borrowed money, or the interest thereon, or any part thereof, when the same should become due and payable according to the tenor and effect of the said bond, then the then acting sheriff of Cape Girardeau county aforesaid should without suit on said mortgage deed, sell at public auction, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, the above described real estate upon giving thirty days public notice of the time, terms and place of sale. And whereas, the county court of Cape Girardeau county, by an order made and entered of record on the tenth day of November, 1899, doth find that default has been made in the payment of said sum of money, according to the tenor and effect of said bond, and that the said William M. Oliver is now indebted to the said county for the use of said School Townships and County School Fund in the sum of two hundred and forty-four ($244) dollars principal and interest due and unpaid on said bond. And whereas, it was both ordered and directed by the court that the sheriff of Cape Girardeau county proceed to sell the said real estate above described, upon the terms, conditions and stipulations set forth in said mortgage deed according to law, now, therefore, I, Bernhard Goekel, sheriff of Cape Girardeau county, state aforesaid, by virtue of said order of said court, and by authority in me vested by said mortgage deed, will, on Thursday, the Fourth Day of January, 1900,

At the south front door of the court house, in the city of Jackson, Cape Girardeau county, Missouri, between the hours of 10 o'clock in the forenoon and 5 o'clock in the afternoon of that day and during the session of the Circuit Court, offer, at public sale, to the highest bidder, for cash in hand, all the right, title, claim and interest that the said William M. Oliver had in and to the above described real estate.

BERNHARD GOEKEL, Sheriff.
