HANNA SAYS HE WAS MISQUOTED.

Corrects the Report of His Chicago Speech on Trusts.

Cleveland, O., Sept. 23.—Senator Hanna left for New York this evening. He will remain at the Republican headquarters there for two or three weeks, and will then return to Chicago. In an interview to-day he said:

"The speech I made at Chicago on the so-called trust issue was misquoted and garbled. What I said was that there were no trusts in the meaning of the law. When I said that I did not say that there are no combinations of capital nor did I say that there are no combinations that work in justice to the people. This so-called trust issue is nothing more than a bugaboo of Bryan's to catch votes. What anti-trust laws have been enacted have been enacted by the Republicans. On the so-called trust issue Bryan is on the defensive. He should tell why the Democratic party has never supported nor proposed any legislation to regulate the commercial combinations of the country. Bryan can not defend the Democratic party on that issue, and it, with the issue of imperialism, will soon be relegated to the rear. The money question will soon be the paramount issue. Bryan will have to meet that issue too."

Senator Hanna said he had not decided to go on the stump in the East, but would do so if he thought best. He declared furthermore that he had issued no challenge to Mr. Bryan for a joint debate, nor had he challenged anybody to debate. However, he said he was not afraid to meet anybody on the issues of the campaign.

WAR-SHIPS FOR CHINA.

America Will Make a Great Naval Demonstration in the Far East.

Having paved the way for the retirement of its army from Chinese soil, America has ordered a strong increase of its naval forces in Chinese waters. From guarding against natives it has turned to guarding against the foreigners.

Germany's proposition to demand the delivery of the Chinese ring-leaders in the recent riotous demonstration is diplomatically declined.

Russia's inquiries as to the course this government will pursue relative to the withdrawal of troops and the opening of negotiations are answered in a way which indicates that, while America is determined to proceed along lines which are entirely independent, those lines will, in a measure, be in accord with what Russia proposed in its recent circular note to the powers.

Companion to these notes, in significance, is the formal announcement from Mr. Long, the Secretary of the Navy, that our naval forces in both Chinese and Philippine waters will be immediately strengthened. Co-incident with this announcement the Secretary of the Navy gave access to orders for ships now in American ports to prepare for early assignment to the Asiatic station.

The importance of the naval demonstration which has been decided on by the United States can not be over-estimated. It is apparent that this demonstration is not directed toward China, but as one government official stated to-night, "toward the maritime powers now having interests in the Orient."

We already have a reputation in those waters which is formidable and little suspected by those outside of naval circles who have not taken a direct interest in the movements of our ships and followed them closely. Before reaching the decision which is indicated in the notes made public to-day, these elaborate naval preparations were made.

THE WATER SUPPLY OF INDIA

THE country of rivers is the country of droughts! Where rain is abundant the people lack water. Three glorious river systems bless India—the northeastern, the great Brahmaputra in its lead; the northwestern, its famous Indus sweeping to the sea; the more central, with the broad Ganges which drains the slopes of the Himalayas themselves.

Why, then, should India suffer drought and the people lack water? Because the country's surface does not readily admit of irrigation from the great rivers and because the rainfall is unsteady. Could the mighty floods of the Brahmaputra, Indus and Ganges be made largely available for agriculture the scene would brighten. Did the rains fall steadily at brief intervals the difficulty would disappear, but the great rivers take their imperial course, and the rains are centered in June-July and October-November.

Seventy-five per cent of India's people cultivate the soil. Could one get a birds-eye view of the land, it would be seen that the universal effort was for water in the fields. The uplands studded with tanks; the smaller rivers crossed by numberless dams; the beds of dry streams marked by water pits; wells everywhere on every hand. Save in the rainy seasons the contest is literally from day to day. By large buckets raised from wide, deep wells by oxen; by lesser buckets lifted by hand; by pailfuls brought from some ditch or reservoir, as well as by normal irrigation, the hundreds of millions of India combat drought. But when, for one rainy season, the rains are withheld the universal battle becomes instantly one of life and death. If, for a twelvemonth, there are no showers, the people perish, and the struggle becomes impossible.

The latest cablegram from the American consul at Bombay states that rains have ceased and crops are withering. Millions still face starvation. Let America maintain her splendid benevolence. This paper will receive and acknowledge contributions to be sent to the Committee of One Hundred, Brown Bros. & Co., treasurers, 59 Wall street, New York. All Christendom must join hands for the rescue!

FOUND STARVING ON THE ROAD.

CITY IN GENERAL.

A number will take advantage of the low rates to the St. Louis fair next week.

The Bloomfield Courier says: "The erection of a number of handsome residences in the city of Cape Girardeau will follow the completion of the railroad connection to Commerce. The 'Cape' is a very pleasant place for a home."

Our fair grounds are now in splendid condition for the opening.

Ward's Minstrel's, which will be here Saturday night come highly recommended.

There was a good crowd at the court house Saturday night to hear Congressman Vandiver.

There are now three fair banners on Main street.

Mrs. A. D. Speak has received a big shipment of fall millinery, consisting of the latest styles in ladies' hats. She requests the ladies to call and see her goods and get prices.

Hon. N. A. Mozley Republican candidate, will be in Cape Girardeau October 17th, 18th, 19th and 20th. He will make speeches at all the principal towns in the county.

Some party or parties entered the new and elegant residence of Dr. Patton's on Themis street some time Sunday and broke the locks on the sliding doors, sprung the tracks, defaced the walls and doors in general. No law could be too severe on a person who is contemptible enough to do an act of this kind. The Doctor has offered a reward of $25 for the apprehension of the party or parties and if caught they will be severely dealt with.

W. N. Terry, the new auditor of the S. M. & A. is a fine book-keeper and he will always be found at his post ready to attend to any business of his road.

The Common Pleas Courts in session this week. This is Judge Burrough's last term and at the end of the term it will be proper for the Judge to deliver an address in which he should thank the officers of the court, the lawyers and the Cape Democrat for their courtesies.

The steamer City of Paducah is now in the St. Louis and Chester trade in place of the Grey Eagle.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will have a tent at the fair week at which place they will serve good meals for 25 cents. Meal hours will be from 9 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

Judging from reports the displays at the fair this year in the art hall will be far more elaborate than heretofore.

Business in the Common Pleas Court is being disposed of right along this week. Judge Burrough expects to clean up the docket before he adjourns court as this is his last term.

Our river front now gives the city a five city appearance. Fourteen trains a day now pass up and down over the railroad track in front of the city.

Cape Girardeau is going to be a railroad town in spite of the old tropics. We now have passenger trains on two big roads running along the levee.

Now give Houck's Missouri & Arkansas Railroad the right of way into the city and we will sure enough have a railroad town.

The running of passenger trains up to the Riverview Hotel has about killed the herdic business. People now get off the trains right in town.

J. W. Limbaugh of Jackson is in the city. Jeff. is still a Jeffersonian Democrat notwithstanding the assault made on his Democracy by the editor of the Cash-Book.
