Salutatory

Santa Claus put the Mansfield Press equipment and subscription list in our stocking Christmas eve and we took charge Christmas day. With the assistance of V. W. Dimmick we are this week issuing the paper under a new name—the Mansfield Mirror.

We have purchased the business outright from the Mansfield Press Association and are the sole owners. It is our purpose to issue a clean and newsy newspaper, independent politically, but always standing for the right.

With over 14 years of experience in the newspaper business, we are not a novice at the trade, but without the assistance and co-operation of the citizens of Mansfield we cannot issue a newspaper such as the city should have. We assure you, however, that we will do our part and we feel sure the people will do theirs, else we would not have purchased the business.

We came from Hamilton, Mo., as entire strangers. Our first visit to Mansfield was this week, but the place looks good to us, and so we are here to stay. Our family will arrive in a few days and it is our intention to locate here permanently. Mrs. Black is also a practical printer and will assist in the publication of the Mirror.

We have taken the Press subscription list and will fill out all unexpired subscriptions and receive all money due on subscription. If you are not a subscriber, there is no better time to subscribe than now. Come in and see us anyway and get acquainted.

We desire correspondents in every neighborhood around Mansfield. The Mirror will be furnished free to all correspondents; also stationery. Phone and tell us the news, let us do your job printing, and advertise in the Mirror.

We would also be pleased to receive a few loads of wood on subscription.

Yours for business,
