Better Than Spanking.

Spanking will not cure children of wetting the bed, because it is not a habit but a dangerous disease. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co., Dept. A-364, Chicago, Illinois, have discovered a strictly harmless remedy for this distressing disease and to make known its merits they will send a 50 cent package securely wrapped and prepaid absolutely free to any reader of the Mansfield Mirror.

This remedy also cures frequent desire to urinate and inability to control urine during the night or day in old or young. The C. H. Rowan Drug Co. are an Old Reliable House; write to them today for the free medicine. Cure the afflicted members of your family, then tell your neighbors and friends about this remedy.

The Kansas City Weekly Star. The Weekly Kansas City Star is made to be of special value to farmers and stockmen. Its market quotations cover items of particular interest to such. There is a practical farmer in charge of the farm department. The services of Chaperon are used for the benefit of the farmer's wife and daughters, giving them helpful suggestions concerning many perplexing matters of etiquette and social usages. "Answers" is an unique feature which replies to general inquiries received from subscribers. Short and serial stories appear from time to time, these stories later when printed in book form sell in book stores for $1.50 per copy. There is no beer or whiskey advertising. No hurtful patent medicines or fake doctors are exploited. The entire news of the whole world is printed; yet, in such concise form the busiest man may, by a few hours reading a week, keep well abreast with what is going on.

Mansfield Mirror and Weekly Kansas City Star both one year for $1.15.

TWO PAPERS FOR $1.25.

Colman's Rural World, published weekly, and the Mansfield Mirror; $1.25 remitted at once will secure both of these papers for one year—new or renewal subscriptions.

Every farmer who is not a subscriber to Colman's Rural World is missing one of the greatest aids to success. It has been the leading farm journal in Missouri for sixty-five years and its reliability is unquestioned. It has departments devoted to general farming, dairying, gardening, fruit-raising, also horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry and bees, and the matter in all departments can be depended upon as being practical and up-to-date. Two entire pages are devoted to the home, making it of special interest to every member of the farmer's family.

A CASH OFFER.

The Mansfield Mirror has made a special clubbing rate with the Memphis Weekly Commercial Appeal by which we will furnish both papers for one year for only $1.25. The Commercial Appeal is one of the largest and best papers in the South, and we hope to receive many new subscriptions on this offer; $1.25 cash for both papers.

YEAR BOOK of Stark Bro's Nurseries & Orchards Co. MAILED TO YOU FREE

Just say on a Postal Card: "Send me a copy of Stark Year Book for 1913." When writing, also tell us how many trees, shrubs, vines, etc., you will probably plant this season.

This Year Book is more than a mere catalogue of Stark nursery products, it is a practical, easy to understand text book for the guidance of the man who plants trees. Our own experience of nearly 100 years, the reports of experiment stations and the opinions of planters from all sections are condensed and reproduced for the benefit of busy people. An encyclopedia of orchard information, containing full size color illustrations of gloriously tinted fruits and many photographic reproductions in black and white; also information on many subjects in which the orchardist is interested.

Hundreds of varieties of apples, pears, peach, plum, cherry, spruce, quince, grape and all small fruits are described; weaknesses of each variety are pointed out and good points are explained. We feel that planters should know both.

Those interested in growing fruits or flowers or shrubs or shade trees will find this book of incalculable value; totally different from the average nurseryman's publications. It is a book you will keep for reference, and one on which you can depend as being absolutely accurate. Write today for your copy.
